THE FIGURE "9." The figure 9 in our date is a million a day. No man or woman now being with the 9. Document without using the figure 9. It stands in the third place in 1898, when it sold 100,000,000 copies and then rose up to several places in 1899, where it will rest for our hundred years.

There is another "9" which has also come to stay. It is unlike the figure 9 in our date in the respect that it has already moved up to first place, where it will permanently remain. It is called the "No. 9" High Arm Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine.

The "No. 9" was ordered for first place by the exports of Europe at the Paris Exposition of 1889, where, after a severe contest with the leading machines of the world, it was awarded the Grand Prize given to family sewing machines.
