

THURSDAY.

Charles Spencer the affable express agent purchased a new safety bicycle of the local agent, Bert Pollock, that is a genuine daisy.

Noah Clemmons, residing six miles south of Plattsmouth made the HERALD a Pleasant call today. Mr. Clemmons is an old citizen of this county and is considered one of the wheel horses of Prohibition in Rock Bluffs precinct.

Ed. Jeary, the wide awake Elmwood banker startled his neighbor some time ago by claiming he had been cheated by him in the purchase of a young cow. Jeary angrily claimed the cow in dispute was so old that her upper front teeth were all out. Explanations followed and Jeary knows more than he did.

The Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah went to Omaha today in force. They will go over to the Bluffs on the motor and celebrate in a becoming manner, the founding of American Odd Fellowship. A special coach was put on here for the use of the Plattsmouth people, over seventy tickets having been sold.

A dangerous hole was left near the sidewalk last evening at the Wettencamp block, without either lantern or railing to warn or prevent anyone falling in. With the experience of numerous judgments against the city and property owners on account of like carelessness it is a little strange more care is not taken to guard against accidents.

A lady in the third ward, who owns two nice residences on seventh street, one being for the present unoccupied, said she would not rent a house to people who had children, but that she had already rented the house in question to a bachelor, who would leave bachelorhood about May first. The question now is who can it be?

PERSONAL

Mr. K. Kneutson, of Lincoln, is in the city.

F. S. White accompanied by his wife and daughter went to Lincoln this morning to see his son John.

Judge Pottenger is able to get around a little on crutches since his fall on the stairway in the Rockwood block.

Mrs. L. E. Bailey is giving some telling lectures on the amendment to crowded houses throughout the county.

P. J. Hansen will not move into the Johnson building until May 1st, he was simply putting a car load of flour into the new quarters yesterday.

W. M. Thomas, of Weeping Water, was in the city last night. He reports the minnie boo hoo people in good humor and that they are largely engaged in the manufacture of sewing machines.

Judge Chapman returned home from Nebraska City last night, he says the Oteo county term of court will be finished next week. The Judge went to Lincoln this morning and will return tonight.

WEDNESDAY.

C. S. Wortman, a citizen of Plattsmouth thirty years ago, now residing in this county near Ashland, is in the city today.

Mr. Billings, having been quite low for some time was reported as dying last night, he rallied however and seemed a little better.

Judge Ramsey is afflicted with boils to such an extent that he finds it more comfortable to eat his meals off the mantle piece, in a standing posture.

J. H. McIntosh, brother of Alex., was married Monday to Miss Claire Rustin one of Omaha's fairest belles. The bride is the daughter of C. B. Rustin, one of Omaha's wealthiest capitalists.

Philip Eidemiller, the cave dweller and tramp looking denizen, of this city is painfully afflicted with erysipelas on his foot and knee. Some of our charitably disposed people should look after him.

Farmers will not be allowed to hitch and feed in front of the old Fitzgerald residence on 5th street; they can be accommodated better on Vine any way, and at the same time will not discommode any one.

The heavy plate glass window at Gehrig's that was broken a few nights ago without the knowledge of the police, is still a mystery. Some people seem to think it was done by one of Tom Riddle's tramps that escaped a few months ago.

Mrs. Zobrist, mother of Mrs. John Gobleman residing in South Park, died yesterday morning and was buried this afternoon. A large concourse of people followed the remains of the good woman to her last resting place at Oak Hill cemetery.

The Young Mens Republican club should wake up and get ready for their annual banquet in June. The success which has always attended these banquets ought to spur the boys into active preparation for the next one, that it may be made the event of the year.

Mr. Lindon, Willard Wise and young Leach went over the river the other day and brought home quite a string of game consisting of a nice bag of teal duck and jack snipe, a bunch of squirrels and two turtles one of which weighed 38 pounds.

A. F. Norman, a brakeman on the main line, delighted quite a crowd today at noon at Denson's restaurant by his wonderful manipulations of a French harp. It is a rare treat to hear him; his imitations of the violin and other musical instruments was fine beyond comparison.

Moses Dodge tells us that the great panic of 1857 was precipitated by the failure of the largest banking company west of New York city, located at Cincinnati and known as the Ohio Life and Trust company. He was there at the time and gives a very clear idea of the intense excitement which prevailed.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mayer leave for their new home in Lincoln tonight. They request the HERALD to say that it is with deep regret, that they remove from among their friends here, and that the latch string will always be out, and a warm welcome extended to Plattsmouth people who may call to see them.

M. H. Isabell and wife celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary last evening by inviting in their most intimate friends to partake of a splendid supper and engage in social converse. Mr. Isabell is the accommodating motor manipulator for the street railway company, his estimable companion is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Beeson.

Col. Joseph A. Connor ought to join the Farmer's Alliance, as a farmer he appears to be a great success. He owns near Columbus a farm 5,200 acres said to be worth $50 per acre; he has in one field 1,800 acres of corn, 500 acres of wheat and 255 acres of oats.

Nebraska City is all torn up over a spirited dispute between Colonel Stewart and the board of trade over the pontoon bridge down there. The doctory Colonel wants his dues while the board of trade wants to dock him heavily on account of the bridge being out.

They came near having a conflagration up in the second ward last night at the residence of Mrs. Newland. It seems they have a patent gasoline lamp which the little girl was trying to fill when the escaping gas caught fire from a lamp near by and blazed up frightfully for a little while, but by quick careful work the flaming lamp was dumped into a tub and carried out of doors without doing much damage.

High School Notes.

Arbor day is among the things of the past and was celebrated by the schools in a profitable manner. Much shrubbery was planted and the pupils enjoyed the afternoon vacation.

Bertie Palmeter has the thanks of both teachers and pupils for his generosity in furnishing a dozen nice trees which he planted along the walk.

One of the hindrances to a successful arbor day is the fact that it comes about ten days too late. Shrubby is too far advanced to transplant with any great degree of success.

Miss Humphry contemplates leaving us and accepting a position in the Wy-more schools and if she does Plattsmouth loses one of its best and most efficient teachers. She has made many friends during her stay with us and if she leaves us she will carry with her the esteem and best wishes of Plattsmouth.

It is a little cold in the morning without steam and if our janitor would kindly attend to his business and furnish a little fire, we teachers would appreciate the effort. Some one wake him up please.

The crop of prospective superintendents is very bountiful and there is no reason why our board cannot secure a first class man for the position.

One of our teachers contemplates a visit to the mountains in vacation and it is hoped with better results than heretofore. If you don't catch something worth shipping don't bring it.

Room No. 10 is occupied by Miss Addie Searle, one of our best teachers. She has held her position for many years and no one has found fault; long may she remain a Plattsmouth teacher. She had enrolled last month forty-four pupils and the average attendance was thirty-three and one-fourth. Parents, desiring to see a model school room, come and visit No. 10.

Room No. 11 is in the hands of Miss Gass, a very competent teacher, and is a good school indeed. She had forty-two pupils enrolled last month and twenty-nine average attendance.

Much credit is due the board of education for the manner and way our grounds are kept. We have one of the nicest lawns in the city and the fence is one perpetual line of roses, trees, etc.; four years ago there was no fence, no walk, no grass nor shrubbery and it was no unusual thing to see teams drive over the grounds and people taking up and carrying away the sod we then had. When our fence and walks were built some of our mossbacks or grannies, as you please, prophesied, it is only throwing money away, pupils will only tear the pickets off and destroy your fence. But years have come and gone, and our fence still remains intact. As a rule when a man prophesies rain he wants a shower. CLARA WILSON.

The Log Rolling.

The methods of log rolling, inaugurated by the camp of Modern Woodmen last night, at their rendezvous in the Fitzgerald block, was a great success. Good music at the hands of Ben Homan and excellent performer, was furnished, while all who desired indulged in the fascinating game of high five. About 10 o'clock, Robert Stewart "genial Bob," began loading the tables with the delicacies of the season, which had been most bountifully supplied by the members of the camp; about forty couple did ample justice to the tempting repast, lingering at the tables until a late hour when all went home heartily congratulating themselves for having been attendants at the so called log rolling.

The modern Woodmen give evidence of having a very flourishing organization, the officers are Dan. Smith, venerable counsel; J. G. Hall, worthy adviser; P. J. Hansen jr, banker; Tom. Wild, clerk; Mr. Westerberger, escort; August Anderson, watchman; Managers, Robert Stewart, Frank Boyd, Robt. Troop.

How They Cure Rheumatism in Pennsylvania.

Mr. J. F. Meighan, a Pittsburgh, Pa., cigar dealer, woke up one morning with an attack of rheumatism in his arm, working around the store during the morning made it worse so that by noon it was so painful he could not raise his arm to his head and had to carry it in a sling. A traveling man on learning his condition went across the street to Mr. Heck's drug store and at his own expense procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for Mr. Meighan who says: "After one night's bathing with this excellent medicine the pain, swelling and soreness had nearly all disappeared and by the second morning I was entirely well, thanks to this valuable remedy." He is confident that it saved him a long seige of the rheumatism and was so much pleased that he filled the traveling man's
