Congressman Connell will arrive home Saturday of this week and will remain in the west ten days.

The B. & M. is still crowded with freight business, a goodly sign that the great west is all right.

A deadly cyclone passed over parts of Texas yesterday, killing many people, followed by a hailstorm that ruined the crops and fruit for many miles.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday at 3 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. assembly rooms, all members are especially requested to be present at this meeting.

The pay car came in today about two o'clock with a special engine as of yore. The usual amount of ready cash was left with the boys and every body is happy.

Mike Schirk is bound to have the nicest store in town. A new coat of paint has put the finishing touches on the outside to make it correspond with the handsome interior.

The Omaha Republican says, "sealed proposals for the management of Yan-Wyck's campaign season will be received at the World-Herald office for thirty days. Only democrats need apply."

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schlater and grandson, Mr. James Standler, Miss Helen Standler, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Guthman, all of Louisville, are in attendance today at the Roth-Weckbach wedding.

We received a postal note from London, England this morning from parties who want to read the HERALD, this is as it should be, parties who care to see a live paper that prints the news know where to find it.

Beeson & Root brought suit for trespass for Andy Frye against Lawrence and Fred Stull claiming $32 damages before Judge Stiles. The case was settled this morning by defendants paying Frye $15 and paying costs of suit. B. Clark was attorney for defendants.

The Journal man can't tell a velocipede from a mogul engine; his story about a runaway engine going to Pacific Junction without an engineer or fireman, is pure unadulterated moonshine, as nothing of the kind occurred. The only "light engine" that crossed the bridge that day was Posey Messersmith on a railroad velocipede, but he didn't make fifty miles an hour.

The school board at Nebraska City is having a hot time. G. D. Ostrum was elected by the board of education to succeed C. D. Rakestraw as superintendent of the public schools. A petition is in circulation asking the board to reconsider the appointment. Rakestraw has filed charge against Ostrum, which will be heard tomorrow evening. Public sentiment is divided and is rather warm.

Robert Wescott, city editor of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil has disgraced the profession by going about the streets of that city carrying large sums of money on his person; the fact probably would never have been made public had he not fallen in with foot pads and been robbed of the entire sum of $15. His reporting so large an amount of cash on hand has caused his friends grave suspicions that he has not been robbed at all but is endeavoring to get a little not-riety.

The celebrated coal oil Johnny that made three or four millions in the oil regions of Pennsylvania in three or four months and saw more of high life in getting away with it in less than a year, than any other man on the globe, has been discovered by an Omaha newspaper as a modest citizen of Asbland helping around the B. & M. depot in that city. He is a very noted personage and probably selected Asbland as the most quiet place in the country to spend his reclining days; he evidently had't heard of Nebraska City.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. Houseworth is seeing friends in Omaha today.

Mrs. Walt. Holmes is visiting at her former home at Batavia, Illinois, for a w weeks.

R. W. Hyers was down town yesterday for the first time for more than a week having been laid up with the rheumatism.

August Bach begun yesterday the erection of a very fine residence for himself on Lincoln avenue near his new grocery house.

Hon. Chas. Hall, one of the best and squarest legislators Lancaster county ever sent to the capital, is in Plattsmouth today on legal business.

Dana Hewitt and wife have been in the city for a day or two visiting old friends and will attend the wedding of Miss Weckbach today.

J. E. Riley, the genial Omaha capitalist, that has been of so much service to this city, is shaking hands with his many Plattsmouth friends today.

Col. Flynn, the Omaha paying contractor is in the city today looking after the letting of the contract for paving Sixth street from Pearl to Vine.

A. R. Talbott, Esq., the M. P. attorney returned home this morning well pleased with the manner in which Plattsmouth people were treating the Missouri Pacific.

Charles Rusk, a brakeman on the Hastings Red Cloud division of the B. & M. had his leg badly crushed yesterday so that amputation will probably be necessary.

County Judge Ramsey is able to be out today for the first time for nearly a week; he is not entirely well but expects to attend to business with his old time regularity in a few days.

P. J. Hansen, jr., is helping out in the treasurer's office this week; a more suitable young man for an assistant in that office could not be found in the city, we hope the position is a permanent one.

A Young Woman's Success.

One of the brightest women in New York, Mrs. Isabel Mallon, who, perhaps, knows more about woman's dress and fixings than any woman in America, has been added to the editorial staff of the Ladies Home Journal, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Mallon is an experienced editorial writer, and will conduct one of the fullest and strongest fashion departments in the Journal ever attempted in a general magazine. Her new position makes her the best paid fashion writer in the country. Mrs. Mallon is young, pretty, and one of the best known women in New York society.

Agin The Wedding.

Chadron Advocate.

Mr. G. M. Hitchcock, editor of the Omaha World Herald, has added to the many interesting features of his journal a new one, that of a matrimonial agency. The first couple he wants to join is the democratic party and the Nebraska farmers, alliance. In his issue of the 26th he proposes the following terms of marriage settlement:

The Alliance to name, the democratic party indorse a state ticket. The democratic party to name and the alliance to indorse the three congressmen, both organizations to bend every energy to the election of the joint ticket so formed.

It is the opinion of this paper that the bride expectant in this case has a mind of her own and did not intend to be given away to a gray haired old monopolist like the democratic party. Behold the leaders of the democracy in this state! The Millers, Mortons, and McShanes—what do they have in common with the toiling thousands of the farmers' alliance?

A GALA WEDDING.

The Roth-Weckbach Nuptials Celebrated this Afternoon.

Mr. Frederick Roth and Miss Annie Weckbach were married today at the residence of the brides parents in this city. The groom is a prominent business man in Grand Island and already has a handsome home furnished for occupancy of the newly wedded pair. Miss Annie Weckbach is the well known daughter of J. V. Weckbach Esq., and is one of Plattsmouths brightest girls, her genial ways and kindly manners made her a host of friends. She will be greatly missed in a larger circle than that of the Weckbach family. Mr. Roth is indeed fortunate in his choice.

At a few minutes past 2 o'clock, the spacious parlors, glowing in the gas light and decorated with beautiful bouquets of flowers, were crowded with the friends of the bride and groom. Miss Minnie Guthman struck up the wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor at the north door, little Katie Weckbach heading the party and carrying a handsome basket of flowers, then came Kate Hemple and Chas. Weckbach, cousin and brother of the bride, then F. Tschouder, a friend of the groom and May Weckbach, sister of the bride, followed by the bride and groom.

The party passed into the south parlor on the west side, where Rev. Father Kearney, in the beautiful impressive form of the Catholic church performed the marriage ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of white silk batiste with diamond ornaments, a corsage bouquet of Marschal Neil roses and white veil with wreath of lilies. After the ceremony, congratulations were showered upon the happy couple, until dinner was announced, when a sumptuous feast was partaken of by a host of friends and relatives.

The presents consisting of many useful and ornamental articles, were rich and expensive, one room of the house being almost entirely occupied with enough to set up two or three couples at house-keeping.

Among the many guests from abroad the HERALD noticed Wm Krug, Gust and Wm Weckbach and families of Omaha; Major Klutsch and daughter, Mrs. Carpenter and Mr. Bigar of Lincoln; Miss Breed, Miss Lou Engel, of Hastings; Mr. Humbert and family and Mrs. Antrid, of Omaha; Miss Helen and James Standler, Louisville; Peter Standler and wife, South Bend. With many others whom we did not know.

The HERALD in common with all the good people of Plattsmouth extends best wishes, and sincere hopes for prosperity and happiness.

The hypocrite who runs the Journal has never shown the least respect for the feelings of others, he has times without number jumped upon and shamefully abused some of our best citizens without cause or warrant, and for a man of his ilk to talk about malice of the lowest order, as though he were a teacher of public purity is certainly a fine exhibition of pure gall. He shows the base calumniator that he is by saying that the local editor of the HERALD in any manner threw a straw in Mr. Peterson's way. He even accepts the charge of the Omaha Herald wherein it says "Sherman telegraphed that he did not know Peterson," with out a word of denial, in order that he might quote it against us. They are welcome to all they can make out of their plea of injured innocence but they must not carry the matter too far. The fact that we scooped the Journal in printing the article hurt Mr. Sherman's feelings far worse than the mere mention of Mr. Peterson's name in connection with the arrest.

$5.50 cash prize to farmers.

The Weekly World-Herald hereby offers a cash prize of $500 for the largest yield of corn grown on an acre of ground in Nebraska, or in any state bordering on Nebraska, during the year 1890, to which the Plattsmouth WEEKLY HERALD adds $50. to be given to the winner, providing he be a Cass Co. farmer. Rules and regulations for which are published in another column.

No person can compete for this prize who is not a paid up subscriber to the weekly World-Herald or who does not become one during the continuance of this offer which may be closed at any time after April 15 by the World-Herald on ten days publishers notice. After being so closed no new competitors will be admitted.

The $500 will be paid in cash to the successful farmer within ten days after the award is made, which will be as soon after harvests are completed as possible.

World Publishing Co. By G. M. HITCHCOCK, President.

The World-Herald has decided to enlarge its big prize offer above made by the following additional prizes:

It will divide $100 in gold among the raisers of the next ten largest crops, being $10 each.

It will divide $50 among the raisers of the ten crops next largest to the first ten, being $5 each.

It will divide $20 among the raisers of the ten crops next largest to the second ten, being $2 each.

That is to say, in addition to the winner of the big $500 prize there will be thirty persons who will win prizes, ten will win $10 each, ten will win $5 each, and ten will win $2 each.

Now then, if you can't win the first prize may be you can raise a large enough crop to win one of the thirty other prizes.

Certainly somebody in Cass county ought to.

To any Cass county farmer winning any of the above prizes the HERALD will donate a year's subscription.

Sample copies of the World Herald may be seen at this office.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. F. G. Fricke & Co., Druggists.
