

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

FRIDAY.

John Fitzgerald, who took the contract for the 100 mile extension of the B. & M. in Dakota and Wyoming, is said to have underbid his chief opponent in the full sum of $100,000. The difference in bids would be profit enough to allow a newspaper man to retire and live in luxury the balance of his days.

Judge Sullivan, of Plattsmouth, was here a short time yesterday. He said that three of the Dagsos that voted for court house bonds recently visited their city with an Italian Opera company, taking leading parts in the same. Sullivan must have been taking lessons of Sherman.—Weeping Water Eagle.

Fred Schroeder, of the Cedar Creek mills, was in the city yesterday, and sold a carload of his celebrated Climax and Success brands of flour. The mills, which are the largest in the county, under Mr. Schroeder's management, are making excellent goods, that our people will find is much better than the same grade and price from other places.

N. P. Drage, the proprietor of a tailor shop on Howard street in Omaha, was burned to death last night, while thirty women, working in a dressmaking shop up stairs, had a close call. The fire was doubtless caused by the fumes from a can of gasoline catching fire.

G. C. Hadsell, esq., the head and shoulders of the typographical department of the Weeping Water Eagle, made the HERALD a pleasant call today.

The B. & M. Magnates

President Perkins, Vice President Harris and General Manager Holdredge of the B. & M. as predicted in last evening's HERALD, came in about six o'clock on their special and remained during the night, Conductor Berry taking them west on an extra this morning about 8 o'clock. The party got off the train at 7 o'clock and in company with Col. Connor looked over main street and paid a visit to the Hotel Riley which Mr. Perkins pronounced the finest and best arranged west of the Missouri River. Mr. Harris was surprised and greatly pleased at the solid city-like appearance which greeted him, in strong contrast to the old rickety frame built town he had known years ago when he was cashier of the land department for the B. & M. at Lincoln. The party was starting out for a tour of the entire lines and remained here over night to look thoroughly over their varied interests. The HERALD reporter in a conversation with Mr. Holdredge and Mr. Perkins was lead to believe that while they were looking over depot grounds with a view of building that nothing would be done for a while in that direction.

Judge Chapman, Mayor Richey and C. S. Dawson called on the distinguished party at their cars which remained up by the store-house during the night and spent a pleasant half hour. The gentlemen feel friendly toward Plattsmouth and will give our people a hearing on the new shop matter before permanent arrangements are made for building anywhere else.

HOMES FOR THE PEOPLE.

South Park, O'Neill's, Wise's Addition and Porter Place, Busy with Building.

The HERALD reporter, having heard fabulous stories about the number of new residences being built and contracted for in the south part of the city, took a hasty drive this morning, to see for himself what was going on. We started south on 6th street in company with Mr. Knotts, and after going a block west at the end of 6th, arrived at the edge of Billingstown, where we found two nice new cottages nearly completed. A little farther on, with south fronts, we noticed the three handsome cottages of C. E. Wescott's recently completed; farther on was a substantial brick, built and owned by J. V. Weckbach. Engineer Hilton has a slightly place farther to the east where he is erecting a well planned $2,000 residence.

On Patterson avenue in South Park, a very sightly street by the way, we noticed the well built cottage of M. M. Beals; at No. 1014, on the same street, Mr. Hall, the tinner, has put up a large two story house that adds to the appearance of that part of town.

John Tutt had caught the prevailing spirit of improvement that surrounded him and put a new roof on his handsome brick residence. South of the school house we noticed an excavation just begun and farther east, surrounded by a tastypicket fence, R. B. Windham is completing a neat cottage with brick basement. Starting southwest on the avenue leading to the fair grounds, we noticed at No. 1415 a well built cottage.

The finest residence, however, in South Park suburbs, will be that of Mr. Ed. Oliver. Mr. Oliver has extensive grounds of beautiful Woodland, situated on a commanding location on which he is erecting a $5,000 brick residence that would be a credit to Omaha or Lincoln. Mr. Oliver is to be congratulated on his good taste and public spirit. Plattsmouth contains a few wealthy men that a dugout would be too expensive for, but Ed is not one of that kind, he spends his money where he makes it. South and east of South Park we counted six new houses in the course of completion, some of them being very good ones.

No. 1300 and 1322 are good cottages on the avenue south of the shops. Just south of the old brick residence where the avenue intercepts the old road, four new houses are nearly complete; further north the carpenters were busy putting up a new house for Green Coffman, the engineer. Bach's grocery store, on the avenue near the south end of the shop yards, is about completed. Timothy Clark has built two good houses and is building two more, having already sold the first two; if some of our 2 per cent sharks would emulate Mr. Clark, our town would be better off; Mr. Clark builds and pays for his houses, then sells them to parties on monthly payments of $20 with interest at 8 per cent, a most fair and easy manner for one to buy property.

South and east of the shops are Wise's and O'Neill's additions where we counted four new houses, while we were informed that in Porter place near the fair grounds contracts has been let for the construction of eight houses, some of which are nearing completion. This would make forty-three houses completed or under way at the present time, and work for the summer is scarcely begun. Verily Plattsmouth is a hummer. We will look over the other parts of the city at another time.

Enjoined.

Mathew Gering on behalf of J. G. Oldham and others has enjoined James Allison, James Lignier and James Chalfant; trustees of the Lewiston M. E. Church, located about four miles north east of Union, from closing the church doors against a non-sectarian Sunday School, which has recently been organized there. Intense feeling prevails in the neighborhood, as every body takes sides. The trial at the next term of the District Court will be red hot unless the judge sees proper to dissolve the injunction on affidavits.

The Boys' Branch.

The boys' branch of the Y. M. C. A. were given a reception last evening by Mrs. P. G. Regnard, and a grand time which wide awake boys can thoroughly appreciate was had. Forty-five of the young Americans partook of ice cream and cake with that contagious zeal peculiar to hungry boys. The singing of the association and manly actions of the young fellows showed the good training they had enjoyed. We are inclined to the opinion that more real good is accomplished by interesting and starting out the boys aright than in any other way.

The boys repaired to their homes about 10 o'clock, vowing that Mrs. Regnard was the nicest lady in the city.

DEATH'S SUMMONS

Senator Beck Drops Dead at a Washington Depot.

DR. CRONIN'S BONES NOW AT REST

The Carlson Cottage Victim Interred at Calvary Cemetery.—Bishop Burgess Expires.—Death of Mrs. Kate Harper.—A Southern Capitalist Dies.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senator Beck of Kentucky died at the Pennsylvania railroad station in this city a little after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. He was accompanying his daughter and was about to take the train for Fortress Monroe. He was carrying a light valise and had just reached the gate at which passengers show their tickets when he fell to the platform, with the words: "I am dizzy."

His daughter, Mrs. Goodloe, the wife of Paymaster Goodloe, of the marine corps, fell prostrate and almost unconscious at his side with a moaning cry: "Oh, father." The porter, who was carrying the heavier baggage, raised the head of the stricken senator, and immediately sturdy porters carried the prostrate and apparently inanimate form to the room of the depot master. A gentleman who was standing at his side as he fell, says that Mr. Beck had hardly reached the platform when his face turned blue and black, and he seemed to be suffocated.

Several physicians were soon in attendance. One arrived before life was extinct, and endeavored to administer some restorative; but it was too late. The fatal attack of heart disease so long expected had come. Even as the physician was endeavoring to apply the medicine life took its flight. The news spread quickly by telephone to the Capitol. Senator Berry of Arkansas, who lives at an adjacent hotel, was one of the first to reach the depot, but his friend was dead. Others came soon afterward, among them members of the Kentucky congressional delegation, who took charge of the body.

Mr. Beck had not performed active service in the senate for more than a year. About that time he fell ill with premonitory symptoms of the disease which caused his death.

The Funeral Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Arrangements for Senator Beck's funeral are nearly completed. The formal announcement of his death will be made in the senate by Senator Blackburn to-day, and the senate will at once adjourn and on Tuesday the funeral services will be held in the senate chamber. This being suspension day in the house, Mr. Carlisle will not formally announce the death of Senator Beck, until after consultation with Speaker Reed, and so it is probable the house will not adjourn until late in the afternoon. After the funeral services on Tuesday the Senator's remains will be taken over the Chesapeake and Ohio road to Lexington, Ky., where the funeral will take place on Thursday. All the Kentucky delegation in congress will accompany the remains to Lexington and attend the funeral there. The following named gentlemen, invited by the friends of the dead senator, have been selected by the family as pall bearers, and will also go to Lexington: Ex-Congressman Trimble, ex-Congressman Phil D. Thompson and O. O. Stealy and R. C. Wintersmith of Kentucky, L. Q. Washington and Wm. R. Smith.

Senator Beck's remains will be taken to the Capitol this afternoon and, surrounded by a guard of honor of senate officials, will lie in state in the senate corridor until Tuesday noon. The body will then be taken into the senate chamber, where, at 1 o'clock the obsequies will be held. Senator Blackburn will deliver an oration.

Dr. Cronin Interred.

CHICAGO, May 5.—All that is mortal of Dr. Patrick Henry Cronin, who a year ago Saturday night was lured to the den of death, now known to history as the Carlson cottage, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in a grave on the cold and desolate beach-front of Calvary cemetery. Over a thousand men and women who had known him in life, braved the bleak wind and pelting rain to witness the final obsequies. The Sheridan Guards acted as guard of honor, and the Illinois Drum Corps, with muffled drums, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, in their green regalia, and the Catholic Foresters, turned out to a large number. When the casket had been placed on the edge of the grave the brief offices for the interment of the dead were read by Father Muldoon, chancellor of the diocese, and it had been sprinkled with holy water, it was lowered into the tomb. Then the members of the ladies' committee began to strew flowers upon the coffin lid, and before the two wagon loads which they had brought with them had been exhausted the grave was filled to the brim. The drum corps beat a tattoo as the heavy stone was rolled over the tomb and sealed and cemented; the office for commitment was read by the priest and the ceremony was at an end. It is intended to erect a monument over the grave at a cost of not less than $5,000 and also to beautify the surroundings until the present waste is converted into a garden.

Bishop Borgess Expires.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., May 5.—At 1:10 o'clock occurred the death of Bishop Casper H. Borgess of Detroit after an illness of five days. Although the fatal affliction had forever laid his voice aside, still by movements of his head and eyes he made known his wishes and desires to Father O'Brien, who has so closely watched at his bedside. The interment will be made in the church yard, and the funeral ceremonies have been designated for next Wednesday. Bishop Foley of Detroit will be present and about twenty archbishops and bishops are expected, as well as 100 priests. A telegram was received from Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, announcing his inability to be present at the funeral.

Mrs. Kate Harper's Death.

YONKERS, N. Y., May 5.—Mrs. Kate Harper, wife of William A. Harper, of the firm of Harper & Co., book publishers, and daughter of Col. Beecher, son of the late Henry Ward Beecher, died suddenly from a rupture of the heart.

STORIES OF WOE.

Tennesseans Driven from Their Homes by Fever.

A HURRICANE SWEEPS TEXAS.

Timber and Prairie Fires Threatening Northern Villages.—Children Thrown from a Buggy and Killed and the Mother Driven Insane by the Tragedy.

CINCINNATI, May 5.—Additional reports of the ravages of spotted fever near Franklin, Tenn., have been received, confirming and augmenting the horrors briefly reported last week. The disease is unusually fatal, nine out of every ten persons attacked dying. The fever had a brief run in Sumner and Webster counties about two months ago, but disappeared and the people were greatly elated at their seeming escape, but last week it reappeared and within forty-eight hours of its coming had taken five lives. Since then a dozen more have died and the people of the stricken districts have about concluded to abandon it forever, as this is the fifth visitation of the fever. Farms and all kinds of stock can be bought for a song. The origin of the disease is not known. It comes without warning and goes as suddenly.

A Hurricane in Texas.

WILLISTON, Texas, May 5.—A hurricane struck here at noon and every home in town is more or less damaged. Two persons were killed outright and several injured. The killed are Mrs. Deane, caught under a falling wall, and crushed to death with a negro girl, 14 years old, daughter of Sam Mitchell. The injured are Jack Ballard, internally dangerous; a son of F. McManus, arm broken in two places; Mrs. Mitchell, (colored) mother of the girl killed. Mrs. Freeman's residence was blown over, the family just getting out in time to escape injury. The Methodist church and part of the building were demolished, while other churches were blown off their foundations. A number of stores and residences were blown down. The hurricane also visited Mesquite, Thornton, Terrell and other points, doing great damage.

A Train Bored.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., May 5.—Timber fires along the Hinckley branch of the Great Northern railway set fire to the bridge across the ravine between Holley and St. Francis stations. When the west-bound regular approached the burned structure Engineer Ryan noticed the best rails, and apprehending danger, reversed the lever, and together with the fireman, jumped from the engine. A moment later the engine, tender and ten cars plunged through the burned bridge, a distance of twelve feet, and were entirely consumed by fire. No one was injured, although the escape of the engineer and fireman was miraculous.

Children Killed and Mother Driven Insane. WESTCHESTER, Pa., May 5.—Willie and Clara Fitzpatrick, aged 8 and 6 years respectively, were killed and two other children seriously, perhaps fatally, injured by being thrown from a carriage. Mr. Fitzpatrick had just placed the children in the carriage, when Willie struck the horse with a whip, causing the animal to run away. Mr. Fitzpatrick was dragged a long distance and badly hurt in trying to stop the horse. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was driven insane by the tragedy.

Destructive Timber Fires.

STILLWATER, Minn., May 5.—Millions of feet of pine are being consumed in the St. Croix valley by forest fires. For miles the air is so filled with smoke that breathing is almost impossible. Hundreds of men are at work plowing about their meadows to prevent the spread of forest fires. The woodland cannot be saved, and the fire will cease only after exhausting its supply of combustibles. Many woodsmen have deserted their homes and gone southward.

Praying for More Snow.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 5.—Prayers were offered in a thousand churches in Minnesota Sunday for a continuance of the heavy snow storm now in progress all over the state. The prairie fires in the vicinities of Gull River, Osakis, Rushford and St. Cloud are remote from great forests, and the reports as far as received all show the heavy snow has practically obliterated the fires.

Alarming Reports.

Hudson, Wis., May 5.—Reports to this point from New Richmond, Wis., are of the most alarming character. Forest fires are burning on three sides of the village, and the last dispatch stated that the depot of the Omaha company was on fire and asked that the Hudson fire department be rushed to that point at once.

At Quarantine.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The steamship Amsterdam which arrived here Saturday with a case of smallpox, is still at quarantine. The passengers numbering 505, will be removed to Hoffman Island, to be held until the authorities are satisfied no others are afflicted. The ship will be fumigated.

A Wisconsin Village Scorched.

HAZELBURST, Wis., May 5.—This village had a narrow escape from total destruction. Fire started in some lumber piles, and, driven by a terrific wind, bore down on the village, carrying everything before it. Ten dwellings were burned before it was gotten under control.

The Rainfall is General.

SIoux Falls, S. D., May 5.—Reports received from a number of places in North and South Dakota show that the rainfall is general throughout both states and will be of great value to growing crops.

Small Towns in Danger.

MOREHEAD, Minn., May 5.—The prairies are ablaze in Cra county, and several small towns are in danger of destruction.

THE CONGRESSIONAL FORECAST.

The Great Tariff Debate to Begin in the House This Week.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The great tariff debate opens in the house this week. It is to begin Tuesday if nothing occurs to interfere, and it will extend through the week at least. No limit has been set upon the general debate yet, but an effort will be made during the week to pass a resolution placing a limit upon it, and that limit will be short. The Republicans talk about settling it at one week, and the Democrats talk about two weeks. An effort is being made to bring about a compromise on ten days, but with what success remains to be seen. The leaders of the Republican side have consulted among themselves, they have consulted with the speaker, and they have consulted with the Democratic members of the ways and means committee, but always with the same unsatisfactory result. The matter now rests in the hands of the committee on rules, and a resolution will doubtless be reported from that committee at an early day.

The Republicans are anxious to call up the speaker and harbor bill, and they claim they have pledged the two-thirds vote necessary to take it up, but the speaker has not said that he will recognize a member of the committee to make the motion to take up the bill and so it may still be a problem. What other business may be called up under suspension is a matter of speculation and of no certainty.

On Saturday afternoon the house will listen to addresses on the late Representative Wilbur of New York.

The Senate Business.

The Senate will probably get out for the week, although some important changes in the program may take place. The bill for the addition of Wyoming to the Union is down for consideration to-day and the Jones silver bill for West Virginia. If the Jones bill should be taken up as per programme and the Wyoming bill should not be taken up in the morning hour each day, while the Jones bill is considered after 2 o'clock, the consideration of the Jones bill may be postponed if there seems any probability that the Republican caucus will come to an agreement, but as matters now stand the senate will adjourn the silver debate without any such action binding the Republican members, and if this condition remains unaltered, it is altogether likely that the senate will pass a measure which will be of assistance a free coinage bill, or rather a bill for the free purchase of bullion. On Saturday the senate will consider measures on the calendar.

On Sunday during the week will be given over to the funeral of the late Senator Beck.

G. W. Child's Stables Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—The stables of George W. Childs, at Wootton, valued at $45,000, were destroyed by fire. The harness and groom were slightly burned while trying to save the contents of the stable.

THE MISSOURI CRUSADERS.

Twenty-one Ladies Arrested at Lathrop for Malicious Destruction of Property.—The Fight Wages.

LATHROP, Mo., May 5.—Prosecuting Attorney Crisp of this city issued warrants against just all the women who took part in the recent crusade in this town. A warrant was sent to Clay county for the arrest of Mrs. Anna Carmichael, the wife of the Baptist minister, and leader of the crusade. They were all arrested and gave bonds. The charge is malicious destruction of property. The arrests have caused great excitement and the women threaten to wipe out every felon in the county. Twenty-one and one man were arrested.

The Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The treasury department monthly statement of changes in the circulation during April just issued, shows a net decrease during the month amounting to $199,721. The change during the month was comparatively light. There was an increase of $2,137,759 in silver certificates, and $683,431 in gold coin. On the other hand there was a decrease of $145,823 in national bank notes, $32,679 in standard silver dollars, $295,240 in gold certificates, $289,774 in United States notes and $180,933 in subsidiary silver. The total amount of circulation on May 1 is placed at $1,497,998,773. The coinage of the mints during April past aggregated in value $5,763,267. The gold coinage was 63,000 double eagles valued at $1,320,000, the silver 3,600,000 standard silver dollars, and $15,000 worth of dimes.

SILVER MEN'S APPEAL.

Congressmen Asked to Stand Firm for Free and Undiminished Coinage.

DENVER, Col., May 5.—At a meeting of the Colorado Silver association, held at opera house block, Hon. H. A. W. Tabor, the president, called the meeting to order. After several ringing speeches were made, the following resolution was adopted amid great enthusiasm: Resolved—That we urge upon our senators and representatives in congress to stand firm for the free and undiminished coinage of silver on the same terms and basis with gold, and we call upon the Farmers' Alliance all over the country to join us in securing its passage. If successful it will bring back the price of lands and the prospect of labor to where they were in 1873, when silver was demonetized.

Compelled to Issue New Stock.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—The Asphalt Block company, which, according to Cashier Samuel Stokes, was the cause of the suspension of the Gloucester City National bank, has been compelled to issue an amount of new stock equal to one-half of its present issue, in order to raise enough funds to meet maturing obligations and carry on business. The capitalization is $276,000.

An Englishman Hunting a Heartache.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Inspector Brynes says he did not apologize to Mrs. Martin (or Victoria Woodhull) who she called on him Saturday, but he told her and her husband that he was responsible for the statement he had made, and that he was ready to be sued at any time.

Ex-President Hayes.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The steamship Orinoco, which arrived from Bermuda, brought ex-President Hayes, accompanied by his daughter and Lieut. Col. King.

Health Better Than Wealth.

The above advice appeals to all persons, especially to those who to all outward appearances seem hale and hearty, but on whom the impression is daily made that their health is not what it should be.

Many ailments that may be relieved for a short period, only to appear again are as certain in time to undermine the health, as a break in the levee of the Mississippi river, which is hardly seen at first, daily enlarges with the pressure of the waters, and at length lets in a raging flood.

To guard against or to remove disease is the one and most important thing to remember in health or sickness.

To know whom to advise with should be our foremost duty, many do, but the public at large should demand and receive good medical advice for the preservation of health.

The Arakoff Medical Co., with its worldwide reputation in seeking to follow out the principles and aims of the eminent Russian physician, Dr. Arakoff, of Moscow, and his celebrated Russian Hospital treatment, has secured the services of an efficient and experienced medical corps, who will upon application give advice by letter free of charge to persons suffering from any form of disease.

Write and describe your complaint and its symptoms, also give your full name and address on a stamped envelope, and by return mail receive advice for treatment free of expense. Address all communications to Advice of a Prominent Land Broker.

Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.: GENTS: In February, 1889, I contracted using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Strengthening Plasters for inflammatory rheumatism, having been troubled three years with this terrible disease. My joints were swollen so that I could hardly walk and I attended to my business with difficulty. I used three bottles and applied the plasters to my limbs and back, and I can say that I am now cured. I have not been troubled with rheumatism since discontinuing its use. My father-in-law, Mr. J. D. Skinner, of Manson, has also been benefited by this medicine. We earnestly recommend it to our friends. Take my advice, give it a trial.
