

Neal Gully.

A special to the HERALD this morning announces the close of the Neal-Jones murder trial which has occupied the public mind for several days.

SATURDAY.

Widman & Fuller have just sold a fine bill of wall paper to Pacific Junction parties.

The reorganized B. & M. band discussed delightful music to the edification of a large crowd of appreciative listeners at the corner of fifth and Main street last night.

The Porter family, living near the old Fairfield place, owing to sickness, are reported to be in destitute circumstances.

Even the railroads are taking a tumble to the powers that be. The farmers Alliance are having a big meeting at Ashland today and tonight.

The Supreme court handed down the following important opinion yesterday.

The Grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen vs. Brand, Error from Otoe county. Affirmed. Opinion by Justice Maxwell.

1. One B., a resident of Nebraska City, in 1883 was initiated as a member of the order of A. O. U. W., and thereafter paid the dues and assessments made upon him until October 29, 1886.

2. Evidence held to sustain the verdict.

3. No error in the instructions.

4. On the facts stated, held, that B. was excused from the payment of dues during his illness, and that there was no forfeiture of the certificate.

The Hotel.

The Hotel Riley is the pride of the city, but it is not enough to extol its good qualities; that will not pay the bills.

The dining room should be crowded every Sunday with people who reside here and do not get the time to take a meal there during the week.

Notice to Tax Payers.

Notice is hereby given that the commissioners will sit as a board of equalization beginning on Tuesday, June 10th, 1890.

Good News.

A telegram from the committee at Kansas city says everything is O. K., which means the bonds are delivered and the cash is in the hands of the right way committee.

WANTED:—5,000 live pigeons for Cheyenne tournament. Will pay 30 cents per pair, delivered on express trains before June 17, on U. P., or B. & M. in Nebraska, in light boxes.

New fruits, candies and nuts coming to John Schiappagasse & Co., every day.

Court House Bonds.

A recent decision of the supreme court practically settles the question of our case being advanced on the docket so that it can be heard at once.

Injunction!

Jacob Schlater has donned his war paint and today caused the city of Plattsmouth to be enjoined from removing his corral, which the council had declared was a nuisance and had ordered the city marshal to tear down.

A Rare Opportunity.

Two energetic young men or women can secure employment at a salary of $65 per month; for particulars call on Mrs. Barnes, general agent of the Adams publishing company, at the Stiles boarding house opposite the postoffice.

Good-Bye Johnny.

A boy named Johnny Partridge. Found a nice, fat, little cartridge which had never seen the inside of a Gun.

MONDAY.

C. S. Polk, attorney, Rockwood block. The right of way committee are very busy today buying property and serving condemnation notices.

Mr. Dorrity's engine, the 173, is out of the shops after a thorough overhauling looking bright as new.

The genuine Santa Rosa cigars, five cents each, at happy Jack Denson's restaurant.

R. W. Hyers resigned the guardianship of Robert Mitchell today so that Mr. Mitchell is a free man hereafter.

"La Rosa" is the name of a special brand of cigars made by Julius Peppenberg for Gering & Co. It is a daisy.

Go to John Schiappagasse & Co., for Central America bananas, California oranges, Virginia peanuts, New York and home made candies.

The sheriff and his deputy took Theodore Bediker to Lincoln this morning on the 3:30 train. Mr. Bediker took his confinement philosophically and as a result of careful treatment may be entirely cured.

James Gilmore, son of Wm. Gilmore, residing about three miles south of town celebrated his arrival at the age of 21 years last Saturday by inviting his neighbors in to spend the evening with him, which they did and report a royal good time.

July 30th has been fixed upon as the date for the democratic congressional convention. The most prominently named candidates are W. J. Bryan, of Lincoln, Charles Brown, of Omaha, and the Hon. J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska City, any one of whom could be easily defeated by Judge Chapman.

John Schiappagasse, the Italian fruit vendor, won a dollar yesterday by carrying one of the Stadelman stone window sills, which weighs 180 pounds, from the Stadelman building to the depot and back. There probably isn't another man in the city that could have performed so difficult a feat.

The meeting conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association last night at the Tabernacle, was very largely attended. The talks were short and to the point. The singing was very fine. They will conduct the services at the M. E. church next Sunday evening and the following Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church.

"Posey" Messersmith is on the lookout for Father Burgess today; it seems the genial prelate called at the depot about 7 o'clock this morning and enquired of "Posey" what time the first train went to Omaha and received the information that the train went at 7:45 and about that time Mr. Burgess walked into the depot only to learn that the train had been gone about 15 minutes. "Posey" caught on and sought cover immediately.

The farmers did not get after the railroads soon enough, was the unanimous opinion of twenty prominent citizens who hurried to the depot this morning to learn that the time had been changed, without a moments notice to the public, to 7:30, and that the train was gone. There was some very expressive language used when it dawned on the crowd that they were left.

The many friends of J. B. Archer, father of Sam Archer, will be sorry to learn of his receiving a paralytic stroke last night. Mr. Archer retired about his usual hour feeling as well as common; he was awakened about 11 o'clock and noticed a numbness and at the same time an inability to move, when it dawned upon him that he was paralyzed. He is resting well today but the entire left side is numb and helpless.

CALAMITY FALLS.

The Storm King's Bad Work in the Middle States.

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION IN OHIO.

The Killed and Injured—Eight Persons Drowned—A Serious Wreck in Iowa—Thirty Buildings Burned—Earthquakes in New York—Fatal Fire at Lincoln, Neb.

MANSFIELD, O., May 26.—A powerful rain storm passed over this (Richland) county, accompanied by lightning and thunder. During the continuance of the storm, lightning struck the John Charles block in Lucas, six miles east of this city, about 3 o'clock a. m.

The bodies of John Smith and Jeremiah Jones were horribly mangled and mutilated beyond recognition. About twenty-five persons in all were more or less hurt. The following were seriously injured: Joseph Hahn, bad cuts on forehead, hand and legs; F. Russell, severe cut over left eye; John Gallagher, leg severely bruised by falling from a ladder; F. Myers, badly hurt, struck by flying bricks.

The report of the explosion was heard five miles distant, and the shock was so great that nearly all the windows in the village were broken. The fire department of this city was called upon for assistance and the fire apparatus was put on a special train, but before they could start word reached them that the fire was under control.

A Bad Collision in Iowa. DES MOINES, May 26.—Passenger trains No. 2 and 5, on the Chicago and Northwestern road, had a front-end collision and were wrecked near Logan, Harrison county.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The Carpenter, the organ of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, will say in this week's issue that the result of the short hour movement in that trade thus far is that it has been successful in 117 cities and has benefited 30,197 workmen in that trade, and countless others in every branch of the building trades have been also the gainers.

Heavy Fire Loss at Portsmouth, O.

PORTSMOUTH, O., May 26.—The explosion of a gasoline stove set fire to the frame building in the rear of F. T. Welch's wholesale confectionery store. The flames quickly spread to the main building itself and from there to the large blocks on either side of it.

Eight Were Drowned. FALL RIVER, Mass., May 26.—A small boat containing a party of pleasure-seekers was capsized in the bay and eight persons were drowned. The names are: SAMUEL WITTLES, aged 39. MRS. WITTLES, aged 45. HENRY WITTLES, aged 10. SAMUEL WITTLES, Jr., aged 12. LEVIN A. BUCKLEY, aged 35. FRED BUCKLEY, aged 3. WILLIE BUCKLEY, aged 8. WILLIE TURNER, aged 8.

Fatal Fire at Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 26.—Fire broke out in the Ivory barn of Bohanan Bros., at 6 o'clock. Half an hour after the discovery of the blaze and while the firemen were working in the lower portion of the building the roof crashed in, burying a number of firemen in the ruins.

Destruction in Indiana.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., May 26.—A tornado passed through the north part of this county doing considerable damage. At New Richmond several houses were blown down, also a large hardware store was blown from its foundation.

Thirty Buildings Burned.

PORT LEYDEN, N. Y., May 26.—Thirty buildings, including a hotel, stores, shops and dwellings, were burned here. Loss, $50,000 to $75,000; insurance, $20,000. This is the third serious fire, all of incendiary origin, within three months and the village is almost ruined.

Cain and Abel.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 26.—At Lydia, Darlington county, on Saturday, two brothers, young white men, Murray and Ben Knotts, were working in a field when an old quarrel was renewed and Murray shot Ben to death.

EARTHQUAKES IN NEW YORK.

Large Buildings Shaken, People Thrown Out of Chairs, Glass Broken.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., May 26.—At 7 o'clock Sunday morning the city was visited with a severe shock of earthquake. Large buildings were shaken, people were thrown out of chairs and out of bed, and glass was shattered. The earthquake was preceded by a loud rumbling sound, at the same moment the fire bells rang out and the whole city turned out, the excitement being intense.

DISPERSED TRAMPS.

They Prove Too Much for the Officials of a Pennsylvania Town.

CORRY, Pa., May 26.—A gang of tramps surrounded the house of Mrs. McLaughlin, a wealthy widow living near the western part of the city, and attempted to rob her, but being discovered by the family fired a volley of shots at the inmates and then disappeared. Chief of Police Porter was summoned and with the assistance of two officers soon had a greater part of the gang cornered in a barn. After disarming them the officers started with the party for the lock-up, the chief in charge of four and the other officers two each.

Ocean Racers.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Anchor line steamer City of Rome, the Cunard line steamer Aurania and the Grion line steamer Alaska, which left Queens-town respectively at 12:30 and 1:30 p. m., May 18, were sighted off Fire Island Sunday at 1:10, 3:26 and 5:10 p. m., respectively. Allowing five hours difference in Queens-town time, the voyage was made by the City of Rome in 7 days, 3 hours, 4 minutes; by the Aurania in 7 days, 8 hours, 26 minutes; and by the Alaska in 7 days, 9 hours, 49 minutes. There was much betting on the result both in London and here.

The Short Hours Movement.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The Carpenter, the organ of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, will say in this week's issue that the result of the short hour movement in that trade thus far is that it has been successful in 117 cities and has benefited 30,197 workmen in that trade, and countless others in every branch of the building trades have been also the gainers.

Original Packages Land a Man in Jail.

LANSING, Mich., May 26.—A car load of beer was delivered to Mr. Silverman in this place, who immediately began to dispose of it in original packages. By 6:30 o'clock all but seven kegs were disposed of. Suit will be brought against Silverman for violation of the Brooks law. The latter says he will give bail or go to jail, and then if decided his business is legal he will sue for damages.

A Dispute Settled.

CHICAGO, May 26.—The officials of the Illinois Central investigated the grievances of their freight switchmen, and Assistant Superintendent Russell ordered the reinstatement of two of the men with full pay for the time they had lost. In the cases of Foreman Sheehan and one of the helpers, Peter Lynch, Mr. Russell decided to suspend the men ten days. The committee appointed by the switchmen to confer with Mr. Russell was satisfied with his decision.

The Man Who Robbed Moffatt.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 26.—The man recent-ly at Clayton, Mo., for stealing horses, has been identified as the man who robbed President Moffatt, of the First National bank, of Denver, a year ago, of $21,000. Papers have been made out assailing for his requisition. The man's name was Mansfield King. He says that President Moffatt's story of the robbery was exactly correct.

The Hendricks Statute.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 26.—The committee in charge announced that July 1 had been selected as the day upon which will occur the unveiling of the statue of the late Vice President Hendricks. THE LIQUOR BILL

To Be Taken Up and Fought to a Finish.

UNEASY ABOUT APPROPRIATIONS.

Conservative Members Growing Anxious Over the Outlook—Members of the Senate Committee on Finance Besieged by Tariff Talkers—Weather and the Crops.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The end of the silver debate in the senate is not yet in sight. An effort will be made to close it by the time the tariff bill is ready to report to the senate from the finance committee, but that is a matter of the indefinite future.

The committee on appropriations expects to get the legislative and fortifications appropriations bills before the senate during the week, and possibly the diplomatic bill. Any one of these may be called up, and when the liquor bill is out of the way Mr. Sherman and Mr. Aldrich are down for speeches on the silver bill, and if the liquor bill is disposed of in time and the appropriations bills do not interfere, they will deliver their part of the week.

It was the intention of the elections committee to have the contested case of McDiffies (Republican) against Turpin (Democrat) from Alabama, passed upon, but action in the matter will probably be postponed for a week.

Appropriation Bills Piling Up.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Conservative members of congress are beginning to feel a little uneasy about the way appropriation bills are piling up this session. The amount of appropriations on bills already passed and pending point to an aggregate that will exceed government revenues by many millions during the coming fiscal year.

The Miscellaneous Appropriations at the Last Session.

The miscellaneous appropriations at the last session amounted to $10,255,795, and they are likely to amount to a good deal more at this session, as the public building bills already reported in the house carry an aggregate appropriation of $14,000,000, to say nothing of the senate bills, but if the miscellaneous appropriations carry only the same amount as last session the total of appropriations will amount to $547,375,865, leaving a deficiency of $97,000,000.

They Want a Hearing.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The members of the senate committee on finance are being besieged by manufacturers and importers who wish them to give hearings in regard to clauses in the tariff bill. At the urgent request of Senator McMillan a hearing was given to the flue-cured tobacco men last Thursday. An effort to keep the matter secret was unsuccessful, and now the committee is experiencing some difficulty in dodging important agents of the different manufacturing interests.
