PLATTSMOUTH, CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1890.

$1.50 A YEAR.

AMENDMENT NOTES.

REV. J. D. M. BECKER.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The two amendments that will be voted on this November are worthy of the candid consideration of every voter, and every one who will be affected by the results of the election.

One amendment, is to so change the constitution of our state, that it will close every saloon in the state. The other amendment, is to so change the constitution of our state that the saloon will continue in our state and can be placed any where.

In those towns where they have not had a saloon for years, and where the majority do not want one; this license amendment makes it possible to open a saloon in every city, town, village, precinct, and neighborhood, even if every man, woman and child say they do not want it. This license amendment makes the law of the state such, that a man can open a saloon in the face of all opposition when he has paid the license.

The vote is to be for the saloon or against it. Is the saloon a good institution, and do I want it to remain? Do I want more saloons in our state? Will they make the people better and richer? It seems to me that every man who is opposed to the prohibitory amendment is in favor of the saloon.

Now this may not be true, but it looks so to us on this side. If the prohibitory amendment is a law that closes the saloon and I am opposed to that law, then I am opposed to the saloon being closed. If I believe we are better off with the saloon then I will favor that law which continues it. How would it look to a saloon keeper, for a man to say he believed the saloon was a good thing; that he believed that it added wealth and prosperity, strength and excellence, virtue and glory, to our city and state, and in the face of all these declarations vote for the prohibitory amendment that abolishes the saloon?

Do you believe the saloon keeper would understand the logic of such a course? Of course the man is honest and is true to his convictions, and talks and votes as he believes.

But what bothers the saloon keeper is to harmonize the talk and vote. He never questions the man's honesty for a moment; he knew when he said all those things in favor of a saloon that he believed them, and he had a talk with him since he voted and he said he had not changed his mind one iota. And the problem is to be solved how a man who believes a saloon is such a good institution and does so much good for the state can vote for a law to destroy it.

How would it look to a minister, for a man to say he believed the saloon was a very bad institution; that it produced poverty, want, vice, crime, drunkards, sorrow, misery and woe; that any city, town or village or state or people would be better off without it, and in the face of all these declarations vote for that amendment which provides for the perpetuity and increase of the saloon? How could the minister harmonize the talk and vote? Therefore it seems to me that any man who is opposed to a law to close the saloon is in favor of keeping them open. If I don't want them shut I want them open. If I don't want them destroyed I want them to exist. If I believe they are bad institutions and do much harm I don't believe they are good institutions and do much good. I can not believe two things which are diametrically opposed to each other.

PERSONAL.

Thos. W. Shryock, of Louisville, came down this morning.

The county commissioners are sitting as a board of equalization.

Hon. John Fitzgerald, of Lincoln, arrived on No. 2 last evening.

Oswald Guthman, of Louisville, came in this morning on the Schuyler.

Mr. Silas Long left this morning for Des Moines, Iowa, on a short visit.

A. Hoskins, of Weeping Water, is an attendant upon district court this week.

Mrs. Dr. Emmons of Omaha, sister to Mrs. B. Spurlock, is visiting in the city.

S. C. Patterson, the South Bend merchant came down this morning on the Schuyler.

Mrs. M. J. Knotts, of Murray, Iowa, who has been visiting relatives in this state left for her home this morning.

Mrs. Maxwell, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Geo. O'Neil, returned to her home in Omaha this morning.

Miss Almira Winterstein, a sister of Dr. Winterstein of this city, departed for her home at Lexington, Ohio, yesterday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson received the sad intelligence this morning of the serious illness of her father at his home at Patterson's Mills, Washington county, Penn and departed on No. 4 for that place.

Messrs. George Poissell and D. M. Jones went, as tournament delegates to Marshalltown, Ia., this morning to advertise the tournament and endeavor to increase the attendance.

Plenty of feed, flour, graham and meal at Hoisel's mill.

The assessed valuation of Nebraska City precinct, figures up a total of $1,104,098.

Will you suffer with Dyspepsia and Liver complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you. For sale by F. G. Fricke and O. H. Snyder.

Go to Philip Kraus for your groceries, queensware, and glassware, also for fresh vegetables and fruits. All orders promptly filled and delivered to any part of the city.

Police Judge Archer issued a warrant this afternoon for the arrest of Alva Kelley and Frank Sitzman upon the complaint of John Flynn for breaking and injuring three cars, the property of the B. & M. railroad.

The colored man Jordan, styled the "Texas Cyclone" delivered two lectures at Union on Monday and Tuesday nights to the great satisfaction of the amendment people, and will address the people of Rock Bluffs and vicinity tonight.

The ninth annual commencement exercises of the high school will be given at the opera house next Friday evening. An interesting program will be rendered. Tickets for the entertainment are on sale at J. P. Young's store.

An Omaha paper is frank enough to say that Monday night was the regular meeting night of the board of trade of that city, but that "Judge" Julius Cooley captured the town in his latest efforts upon the boards, and that in consequence a quorum could not be secured.

Following is a partial list of Bellevue visitors today to attend Commencement exercises of the Bellevue College: Mrs. W. D. Jones, Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Mrs. Chas. Parmele, Mrs. A. Patterson, Miss May Patterson, Mrs. J. D. Simpson, Miss Lou Simpson, Messrs. Sam Patterson and Thos. Parmele.

The Murphy meetings at Rockwood hall opened last night a little after 8 o'clock with a large audience. The speaker made some good hits for total abstinence and righteous living, paying a high tribute of respect to the mothers who are charged with the early training of the children. The audience was frequently convulsed with laughter, yet the speaker turned all he said to good account. At the close an earnest invitation was given to all to sign the pledge and don the blue ribbon, to which quite a number responded. No admission was charged at the door but a collection was taken to meet the expenses of the meetings. The Rockwood hall proving insufficient, the management have concluded to secure the opera house for the remainder of the week.

What Everybody Says Must be True.

Every man, woman and child knows that the Sells Brothers' circus upon its last visit to this place was by far the best circus organization that ever came this way. This year these enterprising managers have formed a corner on the show business by consolidating Barrett's World's Fair with their enormous exhibition, and after this season it will be hard for the average show to satisfy the public with a moderate exhibition. The people when once educated to expect big things, are not satisfied with commonplace or little ones. After this season a circus to attract the attention of our citizens will have to be of a high order, because it must come into comparison with the show that preceded it, and as Sells Brothers and Barrett's United Shows are so much larger than any other in this country, there will be no room for the small fry. These two shows will spread their huge tents in Plattsmouth on Tuesday, June 24th.

TOUCHING FAREWELL.

Shepherd, the Condemned Fremont Murderer, Holds a Touching Interview With Relatives.

PROUD DAY FOR WINSIDE.

Bishop O'Connor's Will Filed for Probate--Politics at Harrison--A $50,000 Building for Colorado Springs.

From Wednesday's Daily.

FREMONT, Neb., June 10.—The mother and sister of Chas. Shepherd, the young man condemned to hang on Friday of this week, came down from Scribner this morning and were this evening granted a sad interview with their son and brother. Shepherd's case was a few days since appealed to the supreme court. Nostalgia of execution has been received by Sheriff Mallon from the supreme court, but one is confidently expected tomorrow. With the understanding that this would be forthcoming in proper time the sheriff has made no arrangements for the hanging. Shepherd and his partner, Furst, who is also under sentence, are at present under the spiritual guidance of Rev. Fife, pastor of the Presbyterian church, but they have not yet evinced much interest in their soul's salvation.

Waterworks for Winside.

WINSIDE, Neb., June 10.—The water works have just been tested and proved satisfactory in every particular, throwing a good, strong stream over the highest building in town. Everybody is jubilant over Winside and proud of her having the best system of waterworks in Wayne county.

The Dead Bishop's Will.

OMAHA, Neb., June 10.—The last will and testament of the late Bishop O'Connor was filed for probate today. After the usual provisions for the payment of the indebtedness of the deceased, he leaves $50 to each of his servants, $500 to A. M. Colaneri, his private secretary, and $5,000 to Woodstock College in Baltimore county, Maryland. The remainder he bequeaths in trust to Bishop Cosgrove of Davenport, Ia., to be held for his successor. The will is witnessed by M. A. Kennedy of Lincoln and J. Glander, of Omaha, and is dated February 8, 1887.

Politics at Harrison.

HARRISON, Neb., June 10.—The action of the state central committee in placing the representation on the basis of the vote polled in 1888 is not approved in northwest Nebraska, where the population has materially increased the past two years, and a less number of delegates to the state convention is thereby allowed this part of the state than if based on the vote for regents a year ago.

It is quite probable that the rival factions in the republican ranks in Sioux county will this year be united. The "half and half" representation at the state convention last year is not wanted again.

There is some talk to the effect that the next legislature should contain a representative from among the Sioux. Republicans in this county want some of the honors as well as the work attached to electing legislators.

Printers at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 10.—At today's session of the International Typographical union the special committee appointed to consider the proposed home at Colorado Springs reported favoring the use of the Childs-Drexel fund. The convention was unanimous concerning the general plan. A $50,000 home will undoubtedly be built at Colorado Springs.

BLAIR, Neb., June 10.—A woman has been the bone of contention between some of the men working on the new court house and the collar factory. The collar factory cause was backed by one Morgan and the court house gang by Compton. After a war of words both parties decided to settle the controversy by a pugilistic encounter. Both parties retired beyond the city limits, followed by a large crowd. Upon arriving at the grounds Morgan had but two or three backers, while Compton had a large crowd drawn up in battle array. Morgan, seeing that his chances were slim and the odds were greatly against him, suddenly pulled a 44-calibre revolver and told his opponents to disperse. This they did in fine style, and in the haste to get out of range one official's buggy was nearly upset in the scramble and retreat.

Took the Whole Vinyard.

Under the above heading the World Herald special from Hastings June 10th, says, R. J. Faulkner and Miss Zula Vinyard were married this morning. Mr. Faulkner is cashier at the Burlington and Missouri depot, and Miss Vinyard has for several years held the same position at Wolbach & Brach's dry goods establishment. Mr. Faulkner will be remembered by many of the citizens of Plattsmouth as the cashier for the B. & M. at this place some years ago and is the nephew of agent F. Latham of this city.

District Court.

In the case of Tidball & Fuller tried to a jury yesterday, a verdict was returned for the plaintiff in the sum of $235.35.

In the case of John Smith vs. the city of Weeping Water, the jury after being out twenty-four hours and failing to agree upon a verdict was discharged at 4 o'clock last evening and the case will stand for trial at the next term of court. The case of Daniel S. Draper vs. Joseph A. Conner, is on trial to a jury today.

W. W. Moore, of the Grand Opera House, Des Moines, is an early settler in that part of Iowa, and has had a great deal of experience in his time. He says: "At various times I have had acute attacks of bilious colic and violent pains in the stomach, and found nothing that gave me relief like Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Every person," he says, "should have a bottle." For sale by F. G. Fricke

PERSONAL.

Prof. Beck went to Council Bluffs yesterday.

Wm. Fraus, the Union merchant, is in the city on business today.

Attorney Jesse Root made a business trip to the metropolis today.

Mr. L. G. Knotts, of Council Bluffs, was visiting the HERALD folks today.

H. M. Bons and little daughter, Neva, were Omaha passengers this morning.

Mr. Chas. Eads and wife were passengers yesterday for Burlington for a visit with relatives in that city.

John Donelan, one of the messenger boys, was a passenger to the Bellevue commencement, this morning.

Owen McGlynn, who has been a faithful clerk in the grocery store of A. Clark for several years, now takes a position in the B. & M. shops.

W. S. Wise had the misfortune to lose his fine nag, "Kittie," last night. This was a valuable animal and had shown some good points for speed.

C. H. Petersen, the ferryman, called on the HERALD this morning, and reports travel still impeded by reason of the high water on the Missouri bottoms.

J. D. Patterson, county surveyor of Sarpy county, came down last evening, and returned to La Platte this morning where he is doing surveyor's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ferguson arrived on No. 5 this morning from Keokuk, Ia., bearing with them the remains of their little girl babe that died there the 25th.

FOR INFANTS and INVALIDS
THE PHYSICIAN'S FAVORITE.

It Saved my Child's Life.
When my child was born, the doctor ordered one of the best Foods. She ate that until she nearly died. I had three doctors, who said the trouble was indigestion, and ordered the food changed to Lactated Food. It saved my child's life, and I owe you many thanks for it. I regard your Food as invaluable, and superior to all other artificial food for babies.

It Has No Equal.
We are using in our nursery (containing forty infants) your Lactated Food, and find it far superior to all other food which has been used during the past ten years that I have been visiting physician. The sisters of Charity, who have charge of the institution, say it has no equal.
