The household of Mr. and Mrs. Dal Jones, of Omaha, was gladdened yesterday by the arrival of a ten pound daughter at their home, in consequence of which grandma Jones departed for that city on the early train this morning. Grandpa W. D. Jones was unable to go.

Col. S. P. Vanatta requests us to announce his name as a candidate for county attorney before the republican convention. He claims that he has been a life long republican, has never asked for office and is fully qualified for the position, and will fill the office with credit to himself and to the best interest of the county.

The democratic solons met in solemn convulse at Louisville yesterday, and to be progressive, adopted the chautauquan plan of convention to be held out at the Wabash Lake some time in September for the purpose of nominating a ticket for the fall election. They will hold a convention in this city August 28th for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state convention.

I. S. Doten, Justice of the Peace and merchant of Bristol, Ill., says he can recommend St. Patrick's Pills. "I have used them," he says, "and know whereof I speak." Any one troubled with constipation or biliousness will find them a friend. They are prompt and certain in their action and produce a pleasant cathartic effect. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Last evening a party of five of Platts-mouth young gentlemen boarded No. 3 for a western tour to Salt Lake City and for a month of chautauquan life, and general out door recreation. The party consisted of Ed Streight, Guy Livingston, Geo Palmer, Stewart Livingston and Chas. Murphy. We know these young gentlemen will enjoy this outing to the fullest extent, and the HERALD wishes they may, then have a safe return to their many friends in this city.

The following is an appealed case from Cass county handed down July 8th: An opinion was handed down by Judge Maxwell in the case of the Hartford Fire Insurance company vs. Myer & Raapke, first in an action to enjoin a judgment upon the grounds that the plaintiff has a valid defense to the same and that it was rendered through a breach of duty of his attorney. The facts constituting the alleged defense must be pleaded so that it may appear that on a re-examination of the case the result would probably be different. Second, objections to proof of loss on a policy of insurance must be specific and not general as the proof or any part thereof may be waived. Third, upon the pleadings and proof, held that the judgment was right.

A SALOON TOWN.

Saloons, Gambling Hells and Houses of Prostitution Only Tolerated.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 7.—Harry Woodring, Allen Parker and John Lingle were arrested this morning for disturbing a religious meeting and assaulting Rev. Mr. Taylor last night at a free Methodist tent meeting in the southern part of the city. They will have a trial tomorrow.

We want no gospel or temperance speaking here. We believe in personal liberty and are going to have it if we egg and stone all the preachers and temperance cranks who come here. We are a free people and will fight for our freedom. We set upon and beat the nigger, Jordan, for talking temperance. We egged Smith and Huckins for the same cause. And now we go for the preacher for talking what we don't believe.

P. S.—Our town is on the boom.
Johnnie Donelan has entered upon the study of the law with Judge Ramsey. The HERALD wishes the young man success in his chosen study, and has no doubt of his ability to fathom its intricacies.

Another Sucker Heard From.
OMAHA, NEB., July 8.—Another man has been heard from who was bitten by Chas. L. Blazer, the Don Carlos Lumber Co. swindler. It is J. B. Thomas of Willow Springs, who writes Chief Seavey asking him to recover from Blazer three notes for $5,000 each payable to Thomas and signed by Francis F. Teeter. Thomas claims that he turned the notes over to Blazer to sell, and the latter declines to give them up. It is probable that Thomas is in some way connected with the swindling operations, as the local swindles were perpetrated under the name of the Thomas Lumber Co.

This is the same Blazer who fraudulently obtained a deed, in 1887, from Carter Rakes, an old farmer down south of Rock Bluffs, to 160 acres of land, which deed was set aside by Judge Chapman at the second to the last term of court.

An Editor's Grandchildren.
J. R. Dodd, editor of the daily and weekly Arbor State, of Wymore, Neb., says: "I have seen the magic effect of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in cases of croup and colds among My grandchildren. We would not think of going to bed at night without a bottle of his remedy in the house." For Sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Cared for by Strangers.

Miss Carrie Rodney, the daughter of a San Francisco manufacturer alighted from No. 1, yesterday morning and made inquiries of Agent Latham if he had received orders to pay her $20 that she had telegraphed her father to send to her at this place. Mr. Latham had received no order to that effect consequently the young lady had no alternative but to wait till the next train. L. E. Karnes, the gentlemanly operator saw the young lady was alone, so he kindly invited her to go and remain with his family during the day, or till the next train time in the evening. She accepted the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Karnes, and told them of how she came short of funds and had to telegraph home for money to enable her to continue her journey.

She had been to New York, and two young ladies were accompanying her home to take positions in her father's factory, and all had purchased through tickets to San Francisco. Miss Rodney had two pocket books, one containing their tickets and $7 in cash, and the other contained $70. She had occasion to settle their hotel bills at Fort Wayne, laying her book containing the $70 upon the counter and turning around, some sneakthief picked it up leaving her but $7 to pay the incidental expenses of the entire party to their destination. She consequently telegraphed her father from Chicago to send her $20 payable at this city, at the same time giving her two lady friends the remaining $7 to pay their expenses, and in case the order had failed to reach the agent here she would wait, and they might continue their journey. At 11 o'clock Mr. Latham received the order to pay her the $20, and in the evening she boarded No. 3 and resumed her journey, and doubtless she will ever hold in grateful remembrance the kindness shown her by her newly made friends, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Karnes.

The flyer was several hours late this morning on account of a bridge being burned out near Ottumwa. The papers brought down by the paper train were therefore delayed here.
