

Crazed by Cigarettes.

Lincoln Call. From Thursday. HANNIBAL, Mo., July 9.—Frank H. Holme, aged 24 years, a son of John H. Holme, one of the prominent insurance men of this city, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself through the brain. Over a year ago he had a severe spell of sickness, brought on by the excessive use of cigarettes. For weeks he lingered between life and death and finally recovered sufficiently to be brought home, but he never fully regained his strength and vigor, and at times he suffered from mental aberration. He left a letter addressed to Miss Jennie Ewalt, a young lady to whom he was engaged to be married.

The supreme court adjourned yesterday to the third Tuesday in September.

The date in the call for the republican float convention to be held at Nebraska City is July 26th instead of the 24th as first fixed. The representation will be the same as that of the state convention.

The following of this city and Burlington, Iowa, compose a party who departed this morning for a three weeks outing to Denver and Georgetown Colorado: Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Campbell and daughter Olga, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rankin, and Mr. Geo. F. Smith, of Plattsmouth, and Misses Jennie Runkin and Nellie Cogswell, of Burlington. These people are out for recreation and a good time and will adopt the camp life after reaching the mountains. The HERALD wishes them an enjoyable time and a safe return.

Down at the Beatrice chautauqua at Messrs. Dickey, Small, Rosewater and Webster had concluded their famous debate a call was made as follows: "All those who favor the prohibitory amendment will rise to their feet" between seven and ten thousand people arose to their feet. The chairman then said, "All those in favor of high license rise to their feet," two men and one boy stood up. "Poor misguided boy! It was a terrible thing to see him standing up for such bad cause. His training at home must have been in the 'personal liberty' order."

To avoid the excessive heat of the day Mr. White's teamsters started for the city, with their loads, at 1 o'clock a. m. and report a stranger stepping out of the brush a little this side of Mr. White's place, and sauntering along managed to scrutinize two of the drivers, in a manner to indicate that he was looking for some one, but evidently seeing no chance of "holding up" any one, there being three men in that division of the teamsters, he slunk off in the brush again. One of the drivers passed some words with him, and declares his ability to recognize him should he hear his voice again. The stranger stated he was coming to Plattsmouth.

President Harrison, late yesterday afternoon approved the act for the admission of Wyoming into the union.

The local scribe of this paper was the recipient of a box of fine honey today from the apiary of J. M. Young out near the fair grounds. Thanks!

Union is beginning to revivify by reason of prospective increased railroad facilities. A bank was organized there Tuesday with J. H. Catron, president and L. Engart, vice-president. It begins business the first of September.

The wagon bridge bonds of Nebraska City are to be voted over. A release from the last election was filed with the county commissioners yesterday, and that body requested to call another election forthwith. The bonds were voted over the assessment of 1889 instead of 1890, and the 10 per cent allowed by the law was exceeded.

The dirty attack of the Journal upon Messrs. Windham and Davies in last evening's issue, illustrates the disposition and character of the editor of that paper to slur respectable citizens whenever opportunity offers. The facts in the case referred to are plain and were all elicited in open court where any respectable and honest newspaper man would go for information; instead of doing so, however, the editor of that sheet indulges in second-hand falsehoods because he prefers that kind of material. Mr. Sherman cannot injure these gentlemen and the fellows who are behind him cannot enter into office on that platform or injure John A. Davies. The animus of the Journal attack is well understood and in good time the HERALD proposes to lay bare a few facts touching the fellows who are trying to make capital out of the Askins episode.

Fatal Accident.

MILFORD, Neb., July 11.—At the elevator owned by J. A. Connor and operated by L. M. Andrews, there occurred a serious accident this morning. The tumbling rod connected with a corn sheller broke loose from the jack, swinging around, struck John Nice in the mouth, breaking the jawbone in three places and fracturing his skull. Medical aid was called and rendered every assistance possible, but the doctor pronounces his recovery very doubtful. His home is at Beaver Crossing.

Parmele returned last evening from a six week's visit with her parents at Elmwood. J. F. Wellington, Esq., representing the Omaha Bee, was a pleasant caller at the HERALD sanctum today. Parmele, the liveryman, went up to Omaha today to make some additions to the carriage department of his stables. Elmer is determined to be to the fore in his line of business, and his rigs are second to none in the city. J. R. Denson, has retired from the restaurant business, Messrs. W. J. Murray, conductor on the bridge run, and Fred Walter former brakeman, on that run, succeeding him. Mr. Walter will conduct the business and we bespeak for the new firm a liberal patronage.

Assaulted on the Street.

At a little after two o'clock this afternoon, as Lawyer John A. Davies was passing up Main street he was assaulted by John Askins, who was secreted at the foot of Vanatta's stairway awaiting the arrival of his victim, and by Will Sage, his associate, who was hidden behind some adjacent bill boards. It seems that Mr. Davies and Mr. Askins had a little altercation a few days ago, which grew out of a misunderstanding as to a contract under which Askins was to repair the dynamo of the street railway. Askins filed a complaint against Mr. Davies, charging him with assault and battery, in Judge Ramsey's court, and upon hearing the evidence Judge Ramsey decided the charge was not sustained and Mr. Davies was acquitted, which fact seems to have mortified Askins, and being further encouraged by an article in last night's Journal, sought to take the law in his own hands, or rather seek vengeance for an imagined wrong, as above stated.

Deputy Sheriff Tighe followed the fellows, who fled through Webber's saloon and arrested them and they now languish in jail awaiting the filing of a charge probably for a more serious offense than assault.

Crete Chautauqua Closes.

The Crete chautauqua closes tonight. As per announcement the Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage made his appearance Wednesday and lectured to a vast audience on the subject of "Big Blunders."

He said among other things that the big blunders men make were found to be first, the mistake of engaging in too many occupations. "Jack of all trades" master of none. Second, the mistake of indulging in ill humor; third, the mistake of being discouraged under bad treatment. Another blunder is excessive amusement, not the innocent laughter of youth and manhood, but those amusements that distract man from the common duties of life. The next blunder is the forming of the wrong kind of domestic relations.

The meanest men in the world often have the loveliest of wives. If a man is cross and snappish and ugly in his household, he is a greater nuisance than if he were dead drunk. Many a man is discouraged by a peevish, fretful wife. When a man marries it is for heaven or hell; when a woman marries it is more so. Solomon says that "a good wife is from the Lord," but assumes that we can guess where a husband comes from.

Passed Away.

General Clinton B. Fiske, candidate two years ago for president on the prohibitory ticket, died Wednesday morning last at his home in New York City. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock today. The body will be laid to rest tomorrow, at Coldwater, Michigan.

Commissioners Restrained. A special from Nebraska City to the Lincoln Journal says County Judge Eat on today issued an injunction restraining the county commissioners from issuing the seventy nine thousand precinct bonds for a highway wagon bridge voted yesterday, on the ground that the 10 per cent limit allowed by law had been exceeded. The case will be argued next week before Judge Chapman.

Equalization Board Adjourned. The county commissioners adjourned last evening as a board of equalization, but will be in session the greater part of the month making the annual settlement with the other county officials.

The total valuation of the county as corrected by the board of equalization for the year 1890 is $5,214,500.

Following are the levies for 1890: General fund 7 1/2 mills, $30,107.75; Bridge fund 2 mills, 10,429.00; Road fund 2 1/2 mills, 13,995.25; B & M bonds 3 1/2 mills, 18,292.75; Total 15 1/2 mills, $72,824.75. The total valuation for 1889 was $4,767,884, upon which the levy was 16 mills raising $76,286.14.

THE NEBRASKA WORLD'S FAIR

Nebraska State Fair and Exposition, Lincoln, September 5 to 12, 1890. The time is drawing near, when the Nebraska state board of agriculture will hold its twenty-fourth annual exposition, under the new contract term for five years, commencing this year—1890. As our readers are aware, the fair will be held on the same large and commodious grounds adjoining the city of Lincoln, as occupied the past five years. While there already exists extensive and superior accommodations, second to no other in the country, more and better are being provided for the coming fair. A visit to the grounds finds a force of workmen engaged in erecting a large entire new and systematically arranged art hall; additions to agricultural hall, increasing its space near double what it has been heretofore; a new and enlarged poultry house; the state fish exhibit house enlarged rearranged, the water mains enlarged to furnish an increased supply of pure water from the city water works; the capacity of the amphitheatre will be enlarged, together with many other preparations to accommodate, among which will be seats about the grounds where the weary may rest, shaded seats about the show rings, and the like, for the convenience of guests. Every effort on the part of the management to bring out the products and show the resources of the state is being made. Especially in behalf of agricultural products. This year, for county collective exhibits, the premiums are: For first best colic tier $50.00, For second best collection 200.00, For third best collection 150.00, For fourth best collection 125.00, For fifth best collection 100.00, For sixth best collection 75.00, For seventh best collection 50.00. The management intent on both instruction and amusement has contracted for, as an attraction, the Coup equestrianism of sixteen wonderful horses, the best educated in the world—their equals do not exist. Also Professor Freyer's educated dogs. These wonderful animals perform military drill with equal precision as old soldiers, and actually perform theatrical plays, presenting marvellous and highly educational exhibitions. They will astonish, please, amaze and amuse, not only the young, but the old as well. A practically illustration of the power of education, showing to what extent even the dumb animals of creation can be educated.

From an interview with the secretary we learn that negotiations are pending, with promise, of putting a "fast stepper" on the race track, that will chase two minutes slower than ever before known on the Nebraska state fair, or any other track in the world. No pains will be spared this year to make the coming fair and exposition superior in all respects to any of its predecessors. A general public interest is being manifested of most encouraging character. Live stock stables, stalls and pens are being called for more than usual. Speed purses are filling up nicely. The two large purses one thousand dollars each guarantee, are already filled to overflow. Space, too, in all the halls is largely engaged even at this date. The secretary says: "All looks big! If the clerk of the weather smiles on us as usual the fair of 1890 will eclipse all others in the history of the state."

For information write the secretary, Robt. W. Furnas, Brownville. "His business" is to "diffuse light and information" in fair matters.

Advice of a Prominent Land Broker

Rheumatic Syrup Co., Jackson, Mich.: GENTS: In February, 1889, I commenced using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Strengthening Plasters for inflammatory rheumatism, having been troubled three years with this terrible disease. My joints were swollen so that I could hardly walk and I attended to my business with difficulty. I used three bottles and applied the plasters to my limbs and back, and I can say that I am now cured. I have not been troubled with rheumatism since discontinuing its use. My father-in-law, Mr. J. D. Skinner, of Manson, has also been benefited by this medicine. We earnestly recommend it to our friends. Take my advice, give it a trial. C. R. NICHOLSON, Manson, Iowa. Ask your druggist for it.
