The Bankruptcy Bill Next Considered in the House, While the Senate Gives Attention to Indian Appropriations-Other Capital News.

WASHINGTON, July 23 .- The house began voting on the "original package" bill as soon as the reading of the journal was concluded. The first vote was on Adams' substitute defining original packages. Rejected-Yeas, 33; nays, 115. The next vote was on the house substitute for the senate bill, which provides that whenever any article of commerce is imported into any state from any other state territory or foreign nation, and there held or offered for sale, it shall be sub-ject to the laws of that state, provided that no discrimination shall be made by any state in favor of citizens of that state against citizens of any other state, nor shall the transportation of commerce through any other state be obstructed, except in necessary enforce-ment of the health laws of that state.

As the vote proceeded it appeared the result was in doubt, and there was great excitement. At the end of the first call there was an affirmative majority of one. At the second call the majority was the same, but a number of members changed their votes, and the vote, as announced, was: yeas, 109; nays, 94. Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio, who had changed his vote for the purpose, moved a reconsideration.

The bankruptcy bill was then taken up. Mr. Kelly of Kansas inquired whether, under the provisions of the bill, lawyers only could be appointed referees. Mr. Buchanan made an affirmative response. Mr. Kelly suggested that it was not right to discriminate against farmers, and he was one himself. and business men who were not mem-bers of the bar. Mr. Buchanan (speaking, he said, from personal experience) gave it as his opinion that the worst thing that could befall a farmer was to quit farming and practice law. But the fact was that the referees had judicial functions to perform. Mr. Kelly suggested that all who were qualified to make the law (and who might be president of the United States) are competent to execute the law without being a lawyer.

Mr. Oates of Alabama opposed the bill, at the same time frankly admitting that it was one of the most carefully considered bankruptcy measures ever brought before congress. But the act of 1867 had been so completely debauched and mal-administered in the south. and so much fraud and perjury had been committed under it that the very word bankruptcy had become a stench in the nostrils of honest men in that section.

Mr. Boatner, of Louisiana, and Mr. Hayes, of Iowa, gave a modified support to the bill, advocating the general tenor of the measure but suggesting certain changes. Pending further debate the house at 4:50 adjourned.

Senate.

The Indian appropriation bill was taken up. Amendments were adopted inserting an item of $400,000 for the Creek Indians under the third article of the treaty of 1886 (out of their own funds in the treasury); inserting an item of $280,000 for the Miamis of Kansas.

California has a few counties in which the work is not quite done, and there is one county remaining in Maryland. It is expected to complete the collection of statistics by Aug. 1, and the entire force of this division will be put upon the office works. It will be some weeks before any results can be announced, and as fast as the figures relating to a state are compiled they will be published in bulletin form by the superintendent.

Paddock Makes a Statement.

WASHINGTON, July 23. - The announcement made in several papers that Senator Paddock will under no circumstances vote for any federal election bill proves to be unauthorized and unfound-Senator Faddock has been confined to his bed for five days past, and last night emphatically denied that he had given out any such statement to the press. "I believe," he said, "that con-sideration of the tariff bill is of paramount importance, and I am not in favor of any election bill modeled on the lines of the Lodge bill. I can not even say that I deem the passage of any bill interfering in elections in the states an act of wisdom or of party expediency at the present time. But I do not say, and have not said, that I would vote against any federal election bill in the senate. You can deny that state-ment emphatically."

Census Reports.

WASHINGTON, July 23 .- Superintendent Porter has presented to Secretary Noble the request of the citizens of Kansas City that the first count of the population of that city be regarded as the official count, and he recommends that this request be granted. As a result of the recount of a number of districts in that city the returns showed a population of 1,200 less than was ascertained by the first count. A recount of some of the districts in Milwaukee has been completed. The total population is shown to be 206,308, an increase since the census of 1880 of 90,721.

Georgia Saloons in Danger.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 23 .- There is going to be a big fight in the next legislature for the suppression of bar rooms in Georgia. A general law making it illegal to sell whisky in quantities less than one quart will be asked for. Five thousand petitions are now being circulated over the state, and 1,500 minis-ters are at work for the law. Judge John D. Cunningham of Atlanta is one of the leaders in the movement, and he and his co-laborers are very much in The gentlemen who are at the earnest. head of this movement think now is the time to press their bill. The original package decision has made the liquor question a new issse. They also base hopes on the fact that the Farmers' Alliance is against barkeepers.

A New Iowa Railroad.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 23 .- The Sioux City and Northwestern is a new railroad company whose articles of incorporation were filed Tuesday. Preparations for building the road have been in progress since the completion of the Sioux City and Northern, which was built by the same parties. The road will run from Sioux City west across Nebraska and the Sioux reservation to the Black Hills, for the special purpose of carrying cat-tle. The fact that John F. Duncombe, who is attorney for the Illinois Central, will be president of the new road, is regarded as significant.

First crew-Albert Hamm, J. Gaudaur. John McKay and J. Teneyck. Hosmer, Hugh Second crew-Geo. Wise, John Teemer, Edward Hanlan. Third crew-Eries of Buffalo, C. W. Roth, J. P. Roth, George Ware, William Urennings. Fourth crew-West Ends of Buffalo. Fifth crew-Wallace Ross and picked crew. The race was three miles with turn and was the most magnificent exhibition of four-oar work ever seen in any country. The start was even, the boats leaping forward with the following stroke: Hanlan, 36; Ross, 42; Eries, 37; Gaudaur, 42; West Ends, 39. It soon became evident that the race was between the Gaudaur and Hanlan crews for first and second place, and the Eries and Ross for third money. Toward the first quarter the leaders spun, reaching together in 4:37, Hanlan's crew slightly ahead at the turn in 8:55. The 3-4 stake in 13:14 was made by Gaudaur's four, and Hanlan's was slightly in the rear. The finish was: Gaudaur's crew 18:06: Hanlan's, 18:08; Eries, 18:31; Ross about 18:39; the West Ends being distanced. If the water had been smoother after the turn, all world's record would have been beaten. Prominent oarsmen say the race was the most exciting ever rowed, the differences between the leaders at the finish being about three-fourths of a length.

A SAVAGE FIGHT.

Buffalo's Billy Baker Badly Beaten by Bruiser McCarthy.

BUFFALO, July 23 .- The Arlington club's amphitheatre was crowded to see the twenty-four-round glove contest between Billy Baker of Buffalo and Thos. McCarthy of Olean, for a $1,500 purse. McCarthy won in six rounds, after a savage fight, in which the Buffalo man mittee of three. Amended by J. M. was clearly outclassed. The betting was $25 to $15 on McCarthy. The latter weighed 163 pounds, and was seconded by P. J. Griffin of Philadelphia and Paddy Gorham of Australia. Baker weighed 165 pounds, and had Tom Manning of California and Jim Wilson of Buffalo behind him. Dave Campbell, of the Dempsey combination, was referee. Baker was badly punished. His face was swollen beyond recognition, and five of his teeth were missing. Jack Dempsey and Buck Ewing were among the spectators.
