The statutes of the state of Nebraska provides that the county superintendent of each county shall hold a public examination of teachers at the county seat on the third Saturday of each month.

The third Saturday of July fell on the 19th, but no examination was held in this city, and there were applicants disappointed on account thereof. If there were any valid excuse for Supt. Noble's not holding the examination as provided by law, and he wished the teachers of the county to know of it we would gladly have given such notice space in this paper. The superintendent is required to give a bond in the sum of $3,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties prescribed by law.

The new silver certificates will soon be in circulation, and the people will thus have the practical evidence before them that the republican party has increased the currency in spite of a solid democratic vote in Congress against it.

Mr. SAMUEL H. THOMAS has lived in this community thirty odd years; was one of the boys who crossed the Missouri river and settled in Cass county among the Indians in the early fifties. He has lived here all these years a sober, honest, hard working farmer, respected by everybody, and no played out republican carpet bagger, like the Journal man, can injure him.

WYOMING makes her formal bow today as a state and takes her place along side of the other 43 states.

THE man who objects to forty-four stars on the flag because the blue field will be overcrowded, and wants to go back to thirteen, is not likely to find his motion seconded. Thirteen stripes are all right, but every star is entitled to its star and will have it, even if the number ultimately rises to fifty—or know the reason.

GALL.

Bro. Sherman hastens to get into the soup by fiercely attacking Mr. Thomas the republican nominee for the state senate. He brazenly charges that Mr. Thomas is dishonest and rides on a railroad pass. The charge is a lie to start with and the liar who utters it is fully as soft as he is dishonest. He is urging Hon. F. E. White, a pronounced B. & M. man who always rides on a pass, for the same legislature that he denounces Mr. Thomas unfit for, when he knows White is a thorough railroad man. This democratic advocate will have to support either F. E. White or Billy Neville before this campaign is over for the legislature, both of whom are pronounced railroad men and he will be asking the alliance to support them. He has always howled for C. H. VanWyck for public office knowing the old general was yapping around our county fairs denouncing railroads, with his pockets stuffed full of railroad transportation and bragging that it was honorable to "forge off the enemy." Mr. Thomas is not a railroad man, does not ride on a railroad pass and is a farmer and an honest man, and the flutent editor of the Journal will oppose him and support a traitor out railroad during this campaign. Alliance men mark this prediction.

To hear the average democrat howl about the Lodge Election Bill puts one in mind of the ravings of democratic statesmen over the Reconstruction Measures as they came up when adopted and acquiesced by the American people as wise and just laws. Any measure that will prevent fraud and violence at the polls in the south will be denounced as unconstitutional by every dough-face in the democratic camp. It is the old copper-head argument "Unconstitutional." If the democratic party of the south don't want a Federal Election Measure enacted let that party stop its election frauds. The law applies north as well as south. Who is afraid of such a measure encroaching upon any one's rights in the free north? It is the ballot box stuffers of the south and the dough-faces of the north who are afraid of this measure.

A FARMER TESTIFIES.
Inten Ocean.
The New York World is acquiring the merit of candor, free trade organ though it be. It has permitted a fellow named Willson, with two l's, to write column after column of falsehoods as to the prices of American-made farm implements at home and abroad, in which the American farmer is assured that he pays more for his implements than is charged by the same makers for the same articles when shipped to foreign countries, pretended home and foreign rates being quoted. The Inter Ocean long exposed the falsity of the figures, but the World kept on printing Mr. Willson's stuff.

The farmers, however, are beginning to write to the World, one of them in words and figures as follows, to-wit:
68 Bridge Street, Amsterdam.—War on the farmer. Just bought a hay tender the past week for $25 which you represent as selling to farmers at $45, while the foreigner could buy it for $30.

Now, if all the reading matter in the World is as correct as about the hay tender, the less we farmers have to do with your paper the better it will be for us. Yours respectfully,
JOSHUA WARETH.

We just reprint the letter in full assurance that no western democratic paper which has been copying Mr. Willson's falsehoods from the World will copy this correction which the World itself is forced to make.

THE FIRST BATTLE.

War Declared in Central America and the First Battle Fought.

GAUTEMALAN FORCES DEFEATED

San Salvador's Troops Repulsed the Invaders and Forty People Killed—Honduras and Mexico Take a Hand.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Private dispatches received here yesterday, according to the Herald, announces that war between Guatemala and San Salvador was precipitated by the final refusal of the latter to consent to the union of the five states, long talked of. A reply to this effect was the signal for Guatemala to invade San Salvador with armed troops. The provisional president of San Salvador, General Ezeta, took command of his troops and routed the invaders. So far as known only forty were killed.

Prompted by this defeat, 2,000 Guatemalans are advancing to reinforce the routed ranks. Honduras, as the ally of Guatemala, is hurrying troops forward. Nicaragua and Costa Rica, for prudential reasons, have allied themselves with San Salvador.

Mexico, although repeatedly appealed to by San Salvador, both for recognition and assistance, has not until now shown her hand. She has concentrated troops on the Guatemalan frontier in the state of Chiapas. Orders have been issued by the Mexican minister of war to these troops to invade Guatemalan territory in case Guatemala should invade that of Salvador. Guatemala will appeal to the United States for the latter's protection against Mexican interference.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 22.—A special from Guatemala says the ministers of Costa Rica and Nicaragua yesterday signed with Guatemala a treaty of alliance. They demand of General Ezeta in the name of the United Central alliance:

1. That he leave the supreme command in San Salvador.
2. That the legal regime be established in accordance with the San Salvador constitution as before June 22, the date of the assassination of President Menéndez.
3. That a general amnesty be granted to all those who participated in the revolutionary movement in San Salvador. Honduras has bound herself to this alliance by a previous treaty with Guatemala.

Guatemala is daily increasing her forces on the San Salvador frontier. The commanders are commanded to remain on the defensive. One general disobeyed this order and has been subjected to a court martial. The report of the defeat of the Guatemalans by the San Salvadorians is declared untrue. It is said that it was only a defeat of Salvadorian insurgents. A special from Chiapas, near the Guatemalan frontier, says the revolutionary movement against President Barrillas has obtained considerable headway and Barrillas is preparing for it.

A representative of San Salvador here has shown to the Associated Press correspondent telegrams from General Ezeta claiming that the report of the battle sent on Saturday was accurate.

CRIMINAL RECORD

The World Seems to No Better Grow.

FOR MAN IS OFTEN MAN'S OWN FOE

Corporation Magnates Held for Capital Crime—Fireman Roadhouse Makes Confession—A Politician's Fall—Banker Aronson Murdered.

CHICAGO, July 22.—The coroner's jury, investigating the Tioga explosion, rendered a verdict recommending that J. C. Bright of Buffalo, president of the Genesee Oil company; W. H. Bright of Philadelphia, vice president, and Alonzo F. Belford of this city, secretary and treasurer of the company, be held for the murder of the twenty-four victims of the Tioga, on the ground that they will fully violated the law, and in so doing caused the death of the men. The jury further censured the Union Steamboat company, to which the Tioga belonged, for carelessness in receiving freight that might well be dangerous, without first inspecting the case. They also recommended that the city oil inspector of this city have his duties enlarged so as to enable him to apprehend persons shipping explosive oils against the laws of the United States. The coroner will at once notify the state attorney of the finding of the jury, and a special grand jury will be asked to return indictments against the parties. Then requisitions will be made upon the governors of Pennsylvania and New York for the arrest and delivery of the men to the state of Illinois for trial.

Driven Mad by Suffering.

PARKEERSBURG, W. Va., July 21.—The grand jury found indictments against William and Henry Clegg, Lafayette Baldwin, and Samuel Deem, all well-known merchants and farmers, charged with white-capping four months ago. It is alleged that Lafayette Baldwin visited the house of James Anderson, a neighbor, in his absence, and made a desperate criminal assault on his wife, Mrs. Anderson was seriously hurt. When Anderson returned he swore vengeance. That night before he could take action a dozen masked men visited his house, took him and his wife out and beat them senseless. The house was fired and a notice left warning Anderson to leave the state and never accuse Baldwin under pain of death. The men indicted were those recognized by Anderson. Mrs. Anderson is said to have been driven insane by her suffering.

Fireman Roadhouse Confesses.

VAN WERT, O., July 22.—Fireman Roadhouse confessed to murdering Engineer Vanderverter. He said that Vanderverter had been quarreling with him all along the trip, and among other things, accused him of reporting him for drunkenness. When the train neared Van Wert the engineer rushed at Roadhouse with a curse, saying that he would fix him. With that he dealt him a blow in the face, knocking him down and cutting his head. When Roadhouse recovered he picked up the hammer and rained several blows on Vanderverter's head, knocking him insensible. Roadhouse controlled the engine, so that he could have checked it at the railway crossing had any trains been in the way. Just before running into the switch engine, Roadhouse said Vanderverter raised up and dealt him another blow which killed him. Roadhouse was placed in the jail and it is feared he will be lynched.

A Husband's Vengeance.

FRESNO, Cal., July 22.—The wife of farmer Samuel Hocking, living near Selma Cal., was criminally assaulted by a stranger on Saturday last. Mrs. Hocking afterwards gave a description of her assailant which answered that of Clarence Remsburg a traveling salesman. Her husband started in pursuit and Monday evening Remsburg's team arrived at Hazelton, where his wife is stopping. Remsburg's dead body was in the buggy. Hocking denies that he committed the murder but has surrendered himself to the authorities.

A Brutal Assassination.

PARIS, France, July 22.—A party of six or seven whites went to the house of Andy Young, a hard-working negro, and called him to the door. When he made his appearance a volley from Winchester and pistols was poured into him. He was shot in a dozen places, one ball cutting his tongue in two. He is still alive, but it is not believed that he can possibly live. No reason is known for the shooting except that he committed the murder but has surrendered himself to the authorities.

The $79,000 Reserve Disappeared.

BALTIMORE, July 22.—The International Fraternal Alliance was defendant in an action in court, charging the misappropriation of $79,000. The association was supposed to have a life insurance reserve, which has disappeared. The business is mainly managed and directed by Charles Unverzagt, who, it is charged, had threatened to move the headquarters of the association to New York. An injunction was granted and a hearing set for July 28 next.

A Lazy Enumerator Arrested.

BALTIMORE, July 22.—W. K. Whiting, one of the census enumerators, was arrested, charged with making false returns. Supervisor Rose alleges that Whiting did about half of his work and then made his returns, which contained far less than the number of persons in the district. Whiting was bailed.

Banker Aronson Held for Trial.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Bernard Aronson, the banker, who is charged with having defrauded many poor people who had placed funds with him wherewith to purchase tickets whereon their relatives and friends in Europe might come to this country, was held in $3,000 bail for trial.

Minneapolis' Census Frauds.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 22.—Ed Stevens, a well-known citizen, and F. S. Dickey, were arrested on charge of complicity in the census frauds. Stevens is the man who had charge of the alleged name manufactory in the city. Both were arraigned and promptly gave bail.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 22.—Lizzie S. Pendleton, wife of ex-Mayor Pendleton, filed a suit for divorce. Miss Addie Cullen is named as co-respondent.

An Insane Murderer Captured.

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—A. T. Reeves, who escaped from the Nashville insane asylum some time ago, was arrested here on a telegram from the chief of police of Memphis. Reeves murdered Father Ashfield, of St. Peter's Catholic church at Memphis a year ago last February and on being found insane was sent to the Nashville insane asylum from which he escaped six weeks later. He is held to wait requisition papers.

Quarrymen's Strike a Failure.

JOLIET, Ill., July 22.—The quarrymen's strike ended, the men returning to work at their former wages.

THE MINNEAPOLIS CONSPIRACY.

One of the Enumerators Arrested—Other in Canada—A Wife's Disclosures.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 21.—Five warrants were issued yesterday for Minneapolis enumerators for complicity in census frauds. But one man, Louis Haggerman was arrested, as the others could not be found. One warrant was for B. Aronson, and from his wife the whole story came out. She naively remarked that her husband was in Canada, but that unless he received some money very soon he would return. Two weeks ago several members of the Business Men's union quietly put their heads together and as a result the enumerators were each supplied with $25 and a ticket to Canada. As long as the money lasted the enumerators were happy. When funds gave out they telegraphed for more. Notes came and they began to threaten that unless the expense money was kept ready they would return and give up everything. It was decided in Minneapolis to raise the money and for the present, at least, keep them safe in the queen's dominion. The federal prosecutors say the enumerators are wanted on technical charges, but particularly as witnesses in the conspiracy case. "We are ready at hand," said one of the prosecutors, "and we have the most damning evidence in incontrovertible shape. The public knows well enough it is not one or two enumerators who are wanted, but prominent men who were behind the conspiracy and directly responsible for it."

Driven Mad by Suffering.

PARKEERSBURG, W. Va., July 21.—The grand jury found indictments against William and Henry Clegg, Lafayette Baldwin, and Samuel Deem, all well-known merchants and farmers, charged with white-capping four months ago. It is alleged that Lafayette Baldwin visited the house of James Anderson, a neighbor, in his absence, and made a desperate criminal assault on his wife, Mrs. Anderson was seriously hurt. When Anderson returned he swore vengeance. That night before he could take action a dozen masked men visited his house, took him and his wife out and beat them senseless. The house was fired and a notice left warning Anderson to leave the state and never accuse Baldwin under pain of death. The men indicted were those recognized by Anderson. Mrs. Anderson is said to have been driven insane by her suffering.

The Tioga's Naphtha Seized.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Deputy United States Marshal Crowley took possession of 235 barrels of alleged oil that formed a part of the ill-fated Tioga's cargo and caused the disastrous explosions. The seizure was made under sections 4,475 and 4,476 of the United States statutes, which provide a penalty of a fine of $2,000, or imprisonment for eighteen months, for shipping naphtha or any other highly combustible material without each package being distinctly marked as to its contents.

A Cyclone at Pacific Junction, Ia.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., July 21.—A cyclone visited Pacific Junction, a small town nineteen miles south of this city, at an early hour Saturday morning, doing considerable damage to property. A grocery store and a feed store were demolished and a passenger coach on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road was blown from the track. A conductor who was sleeping in the coach was fatally injured.

An Attorney Suicides.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 21.—Andrew J. Kirchner, a well-known attorney, living in Allegheny, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. Mr. Kirchner was recovering from an attack of typhoid fever and this it is thought, together with grief over a younger brother's recent death from the same disease, caused him to become temporarily insane. He leaves a widow and two children.

Fireman Roadhouse Held for Murder.

VAN WERT, O., July 21.—Fireman Sam Roadhouse was arrested on suspicion of having murdered Engineer Vanderverter, while both men were running an engine on the Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw railroad. Roadhouse himself, was taken from the cab fatally wounded. The theory of the detectives is that the two men who had been quarreling for several days became engaged in a fight with the result heretofore published. Roadhouse, however, insists that he is innocent and that he and Vanderverter were assaulted by an unknown man. An ex-convict named Blair Meeck who had been sent to the penitentiary on Vanderverter's testimony, and who had sworn to kill the latter, is being searched for. A man answering Meeck's description was on the train at the time of the tragedy.

Held for Ransom and Killed.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 21.—Three weeks ago Mr. B. F. Spinney, a business man of this place, and a large ranch owner in South Park, was kidnapped and taken into the mountains by a Texan named Harris, who claimed that Spinney owed him $2,000 for a bunch of cattle he had purchased of him. Since that time nothing has been heard of Spinney. Mr. Harrington, brother-in-law of Spinney, raised the requisite sum recently and went into the mountains to pay the ransom, but he too has disappeared. The Texan said that he would hold Spinney ten days, and the money not forthcoming in that time, he would kill him. It is feared that he has carried out his threat.

Trouble Caused by a Priest.

NEW YORK, July 21.—John Bauss, formerly of Wood Haven, L. I., has begun suit against the Rev. Aloysius Steffens, rector of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church of Wood Haven, for $5,000 for alienating the affections of his wife. He charges that the priest removed Mrs. Bauss from his company and is now keeping her concealed. The remarkable thing about the case is that most of the members of the Wood Haven church feel that Mr. Bauss has been injured, and openly express the wish that Bishop Laughlin will remove Steffens. Father Steffens will not talk to reporters.

An Overdose of Morphine.

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—Charles A. Taylor, a well-known newspaper man, was found dead in his room. The cause of his death was an overdose of morphine, which Mr. Taylor took to allay bodily pain. Some time ago Mr. Taylor was on the editorial staff of the Globe-Democrat, but later was employed on The Republic. His wife survives him.
