

Two Cass County Boys.

From Saturday's Daily. We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting...

About ten years ago Mr. Story and his young friend, Walston Sanders, nephew of James Walston...

They both left their homes in Cass county with no one but themselves to share their joys and sorrows...

Look out for Your Boys.

Parents you can't be too careful with your boys. It is claimed on good authority that a case of boy larceny is on the tapis in our city...

E. W. Potter, the post master at Elm Creek, Neb., says he has personal knowledge of several cases of rheumatism in that vicinity...

Some of the boys in the coach shop have been talking lately about a Sunday school picnic to be held in South Park square.

There seems to be plenty of work in the shops, but no extra men are being taken on.

Mr. Bajik's dance platform burned the other night. Cause of fire unknown. There is one gang of seven men in the yards, only five of whom are eligible voters...

Anyone in the yards having an item of interest, it would be gladly received, if made a note of and addressed to A 333, storehouse, Plattsmouth.

Jesse Dovey, who worked in the paint shop here about a year ago, came over from Chicago the other day to spend a week or ten days here visiting.

Eupepsy. This is what you ought to have, in fact you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon...

The all absorbing question has been today, "who will they nominate today?" Mrs. Morton returned this morning from Canton, Missouri...

Miss Anna Breed, who has been visiting Miss Kate Hemple for the past week left this morning for Hastings.

Fred Lougenhagen, who has been under the weather for the past two weeks, is reported much better today.

On account of the rain the circus did not leave the city until after eight o'clock this morning, part crossing on the railroad and part on the ferry.

Mrs. Dal Jones died at her home this morning in Omaha at 11 o'clock. The funeral will be held at the residence of W. D. Jones, 415 Vine street, this city, tomorrow, July 20th, at 10 a. m.

The continued drought in this part of the county has come to an end, for the rain that commenced last night, continued pretty much all day and it is reported to be pretty general, and Nebraska corn crop will be as large as it was predicted to be in the spring.

Tuesday as the bridge men were backing a wagon off the river bridge it accidentally turned the wrong way and fell in the river taking a man with it. The man merely escaped being struck on the head with the wagon.

An ice cream sociable will be given by the ladies of South Park Circle at the tabernacle next Monday eve, July 21, the proceeds of which go to aid Mrs. E. H. Meisner, a faithful member of the society, who has been sick for the past two months.

Articles of incorporation of a new railroad to be known as the Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota railroad, with a capital stock of $4,500,000 have been filed with the secretary of state, and H. H. Dorsey, of Wahoo, named as one of its directors.

Pacific Junction, Iowa, experienced a severe wind storm last night. Mr. Murphy's store was blown down, also conductor Loverin's way car was blown over on its side.

The delegates to the republican county convention, left this morning in carriages for Weeping Water although it had rained the greater part of the night and was still raining hard when they started.

The stranger who visits Plattsmouth, traverses our streets and climbs our hills, is impressed with the amount of building in progress. An old resident remarked in our hearing yesterday that it was surprising the number of fine residences that are springing up as if by magic in all directions.

An Editor's Grandchildren. J. R. Dodd, editor of the daily and weekly Arbor State, of Wymore, Neb., says: "I have seen the magic effect of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in cases of cough and colds among my grandchildren."

Rain!! The stranger rejoiceth and lifteth up his eye glasses and sees corn in the field and grass in the near future and the town sprinkler and the hose fiend retirith to the woodshed to take a rest.
