PERSONALS.

From Wednesdays Daily.

Mr. F. Hermann was in the metropolis today.

J. P. Becker, of Union, is in the city today.

L. E. Skinner is with the hosts at Lincoln today.

Ol Butts, of Nebraska City came up last evening.

Dr. N. R. Habbs, of Elmwood is in the city today.

S. W. Orton of Weeping Water is in the city today.

Mrs. Arizona Rader, cousin of Mrs. J. L. Farthing went out to Lincoln today.

Mrs. W. G. Higgins departed this morning to visit friends for several days in Omaha.

Mrs. Sam'l Hinkle, Mrs. Walt Holmes and Miss Anna Livingston went up to Omaha this morning.

Masters Charley and Rea Patterson went up to South Bend last evening to visit their cousins for a few days.

Major J. D. Kluetsch, of the Lincoln Free Press, who was the guest of F. R. Guthman, returned to the capital city this morning.

C. W. Sherman went to Lincoln today to witness the nomination of the next governor of Nebraska, and his name went to Morton or McShane.

Rock Bluff.

John Churchill has moved from Plattsmouth into W. H. Smith's house one mile northwest of Rock Bluff.

Fred Patterson started last Friday with a team for Valparaiso, in Saunders county. He goes out in the interest of George Hendrickson's herd for a time.

Wm. McCarthy, the Irish orator, lectured here last Sunday night in favor of the prohibitory amendment. He is a full hand at the business and is to be here again on Saturday night, the 26th. He has been in the county for some time and his present appointments are Nehawka the 22nd and 23rd, Weeping Water the 24th and Cottage Grove the 25th. And he is to be in Plattsmouth on Sunday the 27th at Rockwood Hall at three o'clock in the afternoon.

We will venture the remark that the laziest mule in all Nebraska has turned up in Rock Bluff. No one knows whose it is or where it came from, but it is of sorrel color, a mare mule, and has on a halter. Several boys have tried their hand at riding this mule and if they have ever succeeded in getting it to move faster than a slow walk we have never heard of it. This mule is living off of the fat of the land in corn fields and gardens. But it is too lazy for any one to think of working it to pay for its keeping. If the owner will come and get it we will not ask him to prove property or pay any bills, but we will feel very thankful.

TIM SHAYER—

I. O. O. F.

The arrangements for the odd fellows conclave and interstate reunion to be held here on August 12 and 13 is about completed and the program will be published in a few days. The committee of arrangements have the assurance of a thousand visitors from abroad.

We have secured the Fitzgerald grove for the reunion and the same will be decorated in proper style.

The business men will please keep in mind that last year the reunion at Malvern, Iowa brought together over five thousand odd fellows and their friends. The best orators in the state will be present both days during the reunion.

Married.

Child-Deitrich.—At the court house, July 23rd, 1890, at 10 o'clock a. m., Mr. Michael P. Child and Mrs. Hellen Deitrich were joined in matrimony. Judge Ramsey officiating.

Rev. H. L. Chapman, pastor of the M. E. church, Johnstown, Pa., says: "Soon after the great flood, at a time when diarrhoea was quite prevalent, I received a box of six dozen Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. As soon as it became known that I had the medicine for free distribution, there began a great run on it, which continued until it was about all gone. Every one, so far as I heard from them, testified to its virtues, declaring it the best medicine for the purpose they had ever used. Those who got it shared it around with their neighbors, so that I am confident it was productive of great good. We used some of it ourselves and found it not only an excellent medicine for diarrhoea, but for all kinds of pain and uneasiness in the stomach and bowels. It has been regarded as the best medicine known here for the diseases it is recommended. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Bank Robbery at Weeping Water.

The Commercial Bank of Weeping Water was entered last night by robbers and the vault bored into and opened, and $1,000 in stamps taken, and $100 in currency. County Clerk Critchfield received the news by telephone. It was also stated that Dave Woodard, the street marshal was gagged. There were three wheel-of-fortune men doing the town yesterday and suspicion points to them as being the robbers. S. W. Orton, of Weeping Water, is in the city, and says he left that city at 4 o'clock this morning and had heard nothing of the robbery. He also states that when he entered the Mo. Pac. train at Weeping Water there were three men aboard that answer the description of the robbers, and that they went to Omaha after which he again saw one of the three on the K. C. and made inquiries of the conductor how long he would have to stop over at St. Joe, and also as to the connection of trains at Kansas City to some town north-east of Kansas City, the name of which Mr. Orton could not catch. Mr. Critchfield was not informed how the entrance was made into the building, but it must have been through the front door or windows.

The two messenger boys in the telegraph office have been supplied with uniform caps.

Amendment Notes.

REV. J. D. M. BECKER.

I wonder why the correspondent from Methodist Ridge don't give his name.

I wonder who is mistaken, Francis Murphy or Edward Rosewater, about Mr. Lincoln. Murphy said he never drank a drop, Rosewater said, "I have drank with him."

Mr. Murphy presented him as a total abstainer and urged those who would be great and good to follow his example. Mr. Rosewater presented him as a "tippler" and would urge those who would be great and good to follow his example.

I wonder if Mr. Rosewater thinks it is better to "tipple" than to abstain.

I wonder if the Bankers' and Business Men's Association believe that a man who drinks will prosper better and will accumulate more wealth than a man who don't.

I wonder if they would seek to perpetuate a business that they don't patronize.

I wonder if they will urge their families and neighbors to patronize the saloons in order to prosper the city and state.

I wonder if they think that sobriety, purity and righteousness are destructive to wealth and prosperity.

I wonder if they think that drunkenness, licentiousness and woe are productive of wealth and prosperity.

I wonder if they think that twenty saloons would help Plattsmouth, and add something to its future glory.

I wonder if by a few more meetings and a little personal work, if those who drink could not be persuaded to drink a little more, and some who do not drink influenced to begin, that we might be able to support twenty saloons instead of ten and by that means grow rich and prosperous.

I wonder if an individual prospers better when he quits drinking if a city would not.

I wonder if it is the real benefits of the saloon or the license money they plead for.

I wonder if the license money helps the poor or the rich.

I wonder if a debased appetite and money don't bias some judgments for the saloon.

I wonder if a love of home, country and God don't bias some against the saloon.

I wonder if it would not be safer for us to stand by the praying mother and Christian wives, the sober men and vir-

LACTATED FOOD

150 Meals for $1.00

It Saved my Child's Life.

"When my child was born, the doctor ordered one of the other Foods. She ate that until she nearly died. I had three doctors, who said the trouble was indigestion, and ordered the food changed to Lactated Food. It saved my child's life, and I owe you many thanks for it. I regard your Food as the most valuable and superior to all other artificial food for babies."

Pronounced Hopeless yet Saved

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D. we quote: "was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated into consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all 8 bottles: it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." B. & M. Shop Notes.

The men in the hammer shop resumed their usual work this morning after repairing their boiler for two days.

Mr. George Thomas says he is well pleased with the manner in which the work on his new residence near the power house is progressing.

Some of the boys have been attending the Salvation Band meetings and commenting freely upon them. Some think it novel, some comic, while some think real good is being done. The reporter hopes that lasting good is being done, and that those who make a profession there may prove as faithful as those making profession elsewhere.

Don't forget the South Park Sunday school picnic tomorrow. Everybody invited who wishes to spend a pleasant day. An extensive rustic table will be spread to satiate the appetite at the dinner hour, and the shop boys who cannot spend the day, are especially invited up to dinner.

A drunk driver and a blind team of horses were not destined to have smooth sailing last evening; for as such an outfit drove in on Third street by the canning factory, the driver sat stock still in his wagon with lines in hand, and three other fellows in about the same maudlin state of drunkenness, and permitted the blind team to walk right over a wall and go lumbering down an embankment of four or five feet striking heads first against Mr. Hubbell's house shattering the window panes, for one of the horses struck center one of the windows with his head. A bystander remarked that it was feeding time and the horses were going in for their oats.

A special in Tuesday evening's Call says, "The Omaha Republican has been sold to a syndicate and will run in the interests of Russell A. Alger, for president. John M. Thurston, Ret. Clarkson and others have the control. Mrs. John A. Logan will soon be here and take editorial control of the paper. Mr. Steadman will be the business manager. The position in the amendment has not yet been determined."

A Bach has opened up his grocery store out on Lincoln avenue, and is beginning to receive a very liberal patronage in his line of trade. He will complete a nice brick residence near
