

I. O. O. F. From Thursday's Daily.

The committee on behalf of the Odd Fellows Conclave the 12th and 13th of next month are succeeding in their efforts to secure aid from the citizens of Plattsmouth which goes to show that every body is interested in the welfare and prosperity of our town.

The following gentlemen returned this morning from the state convention: A. N. Sullivan, John A. Davies, E. S. Greusel and Sam'l Barker.

Our friend the Journal declares that we wouldn't know confusion if we were to see it. Ah, that may be, but we know truth from falsehood.

Judge Ramsey granted a marriage license today to Peter Troutman and Miss Ula Feik. Mr. Troutman is of this city, Miss Feik is from Illinois.

Mrs. Etta J. McRae made application this morning to be appointed administratrix of the estate of Henry C. McRae, who died on the 7th of this month after an illness of only ten days.

What is it that so exercised our contemporary yesterday? Was it the truth we told on them, or was it the falsehoods they published about the convention?

Our esteemed contemporary has ventured to prophesy that we will say in today's issue, "The winners nominated."

"With Chairman Cavey hammering a table with a three foot board and yelling, 'the chair is out, etc.'—Plattsmouth Journal. If the 'board' should prove to be two feet long, brother Journal how near the truth would you be?

His R. B. indham, our candidate for lieutenant governor, returned from Lincoln this morning and says he has no grievance with the state convention for selecting Col. Majors, of Nemaha, instead of himself.

The figure 9 in our dates will make a long story. So many of our new living will ever date a document without using the figure 9. It stands in the third place in 1890, where it will remain ten years and then move up to second place in 1900, where it will rest for one hundred years.
