

rom Thursdays Daily.
Mrs. Junius Black is an Omaha visitor today.
Perry Walker is in Omaha today on business.
T. W. Faught accompanied his brother John to Omaha this morning.
Billy Woodard and sister, of the Hotel Riley, visited Omaha today.
Major Cole, of Pacific Junction, was transacting business in the city today.
J. B. Holmes went up to the Omaha market with a car load of hogs this morning.
Mrs. Mollie Lockhart departed last evening to visit her daughter in Cleveland, Ohio.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McMaken, accompanied by Mrs. Reese, departed last evening to attend the reunion at Superior.
Gran Fleming, a well known citizen of the county, is reported to have died suddenly at his home at Weeping Water, Sunday.
Wm. Crabill departed with others of this city last evening to attend the soldiers' reunion now in progress at Superior.
Mr. Monroe departed last evening for a two weeks' visit and to accompany Mrs. Monroe from Boston, where she has been visiting several weeks.
Mrs. Nellie Morris, with her son, arrived last evening from San Antonio, Tex., for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. B. Elson.
Charley Ellington, who has been a member of the Omaha Fire Department for two years, was granted a few days leave of absence, and after a visit to his parents at Rock Bluffs returned to his post of duty last evening.
Thomas Rhoden, fireman for Engineer S. C. Wheeler on No. 77 and 78 between Omaha and Hastings, returned to his post of duty this morning after a week's leave of absence on account of the illness of his wife on Gold street and Chicago avenue.
C. E. Arnold, cousin of Mrs. Henry Eikenberry, came in last evening and returned to his home in Webster county today, where he is engaged in farming and stock raising. Mr. Arnold reports crops greatly injured on account of the drought.
The pay car will arrive here Friday, the 8th.
W. Eichelberger, of Chicago, manufacturer of decorative goods arrived in the city last evening and will canvass the city in the interest of his business. He departed this morning for Malvern, Ia., and will return to this city this evening.
Tomnie Woodson's physicians report that he is as well today as could be expected under the circumstances, and that there are now no appearances of any serious internal injuries. The chances are favorable to his recovery we are pleased to be able to inform our readers.
Uncle Thomas Holmes returned last evening from Jewell county, Kans, where he has been viewing some land with the intention of investing in the same; but he says the entire county will not produce as much vegetation as a forty acre piece he owns in Cass county, and he doesn't want any of it.
Secretary L. E. Karnes is in receipt of numerous applications for privileges to run the various kinds of catch-penny concerns on the reunion grounds. Mr. Karnes answers such applications with an emphatic no, so that class will be barred from filching the unwary out of their loose change, and very likely they will not be very largely represented here during the convalescence.
The Odd Fellows, one hundred strong, from South Omaha will come down in a special car to attend the reunion.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cushing at 10:30 a. m. Thursday, August 7, 1890, a boy baby, Dr. Livingston officiating. Mr. Cushing may engage him to be his deputy state treasurer.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Byron Clark at 2:30 p. m., August 7, 1890, a girl baby of regulation weight, Dr. Livingston officiating. Byron telephoned Tom Walling to close the office for a week.
Our "Old Hutch" of the west, ventured the prediction this morning that by reason of the hot sun and wind of today that corn would advance one and a half if not two cents before night.
We learn today that Frank Scott, who was reported to have lost a limb by being run over Thursday night in the B. & M. yards, was not hurt as badly as was reported, and the injured limb has not been amputated.
W. E. Bruner is exhibiting on 4th street an improved patent farm gate, with a view to selling territory to agents. H. H. Philips is the patentee, and J. S. Smith general agent. The main feature to recommend it seems to be that the driver can open and close it without alighting from his wagon.

South Park News.
W. N. McLannan's beautiful residence on Patterson avenue is about ready for the plasterers.
There is talk that the Baptists will move for a new church building soon.
E. E. Wescott is constructing another $1,000 cottage in the south part of the Park.
Surveyor Hilton's residence in West South Park recently finished is one of the neatest in the city.
The water mains are being laid on Patterson avenue. So the Park will soon have fire protection.
Another new building is projected for Clinton avenue.
Oliver's brick mansion is about ready for occupancy.
Mr. Bach's new store is doing a thriving business.
The sale of a number of lots during the past week indicates more improvements for South Park.
Dr. McCrea is ornamenting his grounds with a new painted fence and otherwise improving them.
The city council is invited to visit South Park and plan some improvements in the streets.
The Eagle Demurs.
Among other things the Weeping Water Eagle has the following to say about the democratic congressional convention:
The Plattsmouth Journal says that Harry G. Race was assistant secretary of the convention. The only way the Eagle can account for this hallucination of Sherman on the subject, is this, he must have imbibed too freely of "Tom Noonan's Schnaps" for several days' sickness followed him on his return from the convention. The writer objects however to be credited with the honor that belongs to others.
J. C. Faught, who is managing the Richey Bros. lumber yard at Philipps, Hamilton county, this state, came in last evening returning today. Mr. Faught reports the corn crop a failure out there, and says the farmers are compelled to dispose of their hogs at a great sacrifice, as they cannot obtain corn to keep them on.
C. W. Sherman, that pink of purity who presides over the Journal, cast a mean insinuation at us, and with a great deal of self-laudation assumes to be of a very high moral tone. Yet he can stoop to publish an anonymous letter about a young lady of one of the best families in the community, and with no little annoyance to that family at that. Will the great journalist have the manhood to apologize for that sort of business? The head of the family said Sherman should have had better sense than to have published such stuff.

About the Greasers.
From Fridays Daily.
Through the courtesy of our old friend, A. M. Story, a former resident of Cass county but now of Hillsboro, New Mexico, we are in receipt of "The Silver City Enterprise," an 8 column folio published weekly at Silver City, Grant county, New Mexico. It appears that that territory is rapidly developing and the people are pushing for statehood. The immigration there is heavy despite the unsettled condition of land titles. The assessment for 1889 placed her property at $50,909,000, and the tax for that year was $420,000, the extremely low rate of 82-5 mills on the dollar.
The records for last year show that over 280,000 acres of land was filed on. She had planted in corn 57,000 acres, yielding about 1,200,000 bushels valued at $650,000. Within the last five years her output of gold and silver amounts to $23,000,000. And within the last two years she has yielded $10,000,000 worth of copper. One writer says of her newspapers and climate: As to newspapers I must say they are far in advance of those of other territories and I have an opportunity to judge of them. The editors and managers of them are gentlemen of brains and erudition, in high standing and of incalculable benefit to the territory. I regard New Mexico as an earthly paradise. There nature has provided a cure for the many diseases that human flesh is heir to.
"The climate of New Mexico is, in my opinion, the very best in the world. Crops never fail there, and there we have no cyclones, hurricanes, blizzards or cholera, there nature's climatic revolutions move with undisturbed exactness and charming equability." The dryness and salubrity of climate make New Mexico almost a heaven for consumptives. The winters there are very mild, and the summers are not hot like they are in the east. Each night through the summer one rests nicely under a blanket."

The Cass County Teachers Institute will convene at Weeping Water August 18th.
Supreme Court Clerk D. A. Campbell came home last evening and returned this morning to his post of duty.
The Epworth League will hold its monthly meeting this evening at the residence of Rev. J. D. M. Buckner.
D. E. Barr carries a sprained wrist by reason of a defective sidewalk. The street commissioner might profitably nail down some boards in different places where they are torn up, and rotted out.
The premium list for the twenty fourth annual fair of Cass county is now in the hands of the secretary. It is but little more than a month now till the fair will begin. It is time to begin to look about to see what each one will place on exhibition.
Tis said, "he laughs best who laughs last." The "rummies" have had their laugh at the Republicans' failure, but it now transpires that it will be resurrected under a new name and with Messrs. W. Morton Smith and J. M. Gillan late managing and city editor respectively as proprietors, and that it will espouse the prohibition cause.
Messrs. Guy Livingston, Geo. Palmer Stewart Livingston, Chas. Murphy and Ed Straight bade friends adieu and departed a month ago for a western tour for recreation and pleasure. They visited many of the popular summer resorts, among which were Colorado Springs and Manitou and thence to Salt Lake City. They returned last evening, looking "brown as a berry" and report an enjoyable time. They were blest with good health all the time out, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasures of the trip, and in the language of one of the party they hadn't time for anything else but to enjoy themselves. The HERALD is pleased to note their safe return.
Three or four weeks ago Police Judge Archer, upon complaint filed, found Charley Paling guilty of being drunk and disorderly, and imposed a fine of $5 and costs of prosecution amounting to $3.75. The mayor remitted the fine, and Paling was given until next day to pay the costs; but instead of paying as he agreed, he skipped out, and remained away till a day or two since.
Today the police judge applied to Paling for a liquidation of the costs; but young Paling demurred to payment, when the judge issued a mittimus and put it in the hands of the marshal who committed him to jail this afternoon.
Doubtless a habes corpus case will follow.
Attention Pioneers.
The annual reunion of the Pioneer Association of Cass county will be held in the grove by the old fair grounds south of the power house on Saturday September 6th. Basket picnic, speeches by old settlers and others, and such other exercises as may yet be arranged. A general invitation is extended to all to be present. By order of the President.

A LA SPARTACUS.
Massachusetts Convicts Make a Bold Break for Liberty.
A HUNDRED MEN AT THE WALLS.
Three Hundred Winchester-Armed Officers on the Grounds—The Recalcitrants Locked Up in Strong Cells with Bread and Water as a Future Diet.
BOSTON, Aug. 8.—A serious riot is in progress at the state prison at Charlestown. The police reserves of this city have been sent to Charlestown.
The convicts rebelled against prison rules in the forenoon. After dinner the prisoners marched back to the shops very quietly, but hardly had they entered when a terrific and general yell broke out. Windows and furniture were broken and the men rushed into the yard, and the entire crowd dashed for the various walls. The guards on the fences fired, at first to terrify the men, but as several nearly gained the top of the wall the guns were aimed to kill. It is thought that nobody was seriously wounded. The officers with clubs and pointed revolvers held the prisoners at bay until reinforcements arrived. Every available man on the Boston force is now at the prison and fully 300 officers are massed in the yard and corridors. The guard on the walls has been more than trebled, and all are armed with Winchester rifles and have instructions to kill any man who attempts to scale the walls. No count has as yet been taken of the prisoners, but it is known that many have not been returned to their cells. Some of these are known to be hiding in the yards and workshops, and it is thought that one or two may have succeeded in reaching the outer world. Cordons of police guard the streets leading to the prison and the general public, including reporters, are excluded.
The Warden's Story.
In an interview with Warden Russell he said the fight was the most serious that had taken place at the prison for many years. He expected trouble on Wednesday and had police in readiness should any outbreak occur. Yesterday afternoon he felt morally certain that the crisis was at hand, and the police were in readiness for a summons. At 8 o'clock it came from the harness shop, where 100 men were employed. Warden Russell at once hurried to the shop, which was in great confusion, and called upon those peaceably disposed to retire to their cells. About seventy-five men complied. The others, however, endeavored to reach the walls in an attempt to escape. Capt. Gaskins and forty-five officers now appeared, and after a short struggle the prisoners were gotten Under Lock and Key.
Evans' revolver has not yet been found, but a box of cartridges was discovered in his cell. The warden has seventy men locked in strong cells. They will be kept on bread and water until they express their willingness to obey the rules of the prison. During the confusion in the harness shop a fire was started by some of the prisoners, but was quickly extinguished. It is thought that the plan of the prisoners was to start a fire, and, in the excitement, when the outer gates were opened to admit the fire department, make a break for liberty.
Marshal Stingley Held for Murder.
WATERLOO, Ia., Aug. 8.—The coroner's inquest at Cedar Falls over the body of D. M. Jones resulted in the verdict that he came to his death by a shot feloniously fired by Deputy Marshal Stingley. This verdict was indorsed by the majority of citizens, but quite a number of the friends of Stingley claim that all of the story was not brought out and that the verdict was too severe. Great excitement prevails throughout the town and vicinity of the dead man's home. Threats of lynching are heard on every hand. The excitement is intense.
Mobbed the Circus.
ISHPEMING, Mich., Aug. 8.—Bough's circus was handled roughly here. The advertised free balloon ascension failed to materialize, so a mob of several thousand people tore the tent to pieces, mobbed the circus people and looted everything in sight. A small police force on the ground found it impossible to stop the riot. The circus hands escaped with their lives and the clothes they had on.
Reputed the Bonds.
BELEVILLE, Ills., Aug. 8.—The $25,000 bonds Aug. 6, 1870, in aid of the Illinois and St. Louis Railroad and Coal company became due and the payment of $10,000 of the bonds was demanded by the holders, but the city treasurer refused to pay them because the city council voted to repudiate them, claiming that the bonds had been illegally issued.
Rifted Express Packages.
LOUISVILLE, Aug. 8.—Howard W. Clark and Ed Pulford, employees in the package department of the Adams Express company, were arrested, charged with stealing a watch and three diamond rings, thirteen gold rings and other jewelry to the amount of $300. Their pilferings have been going on for some time.
A Minister Convicted of Bigamy.
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 8.—The Rev. William R. Dale, pastor of the Seventh Baptist church here, was convicted of bigamy and given four years in the penitentiary.
Phelps Ferrin on Trial.
ASHLAND, Wis., Aug. 8.—The motion for a change of venue in the second trial of Phelps Ferrin for the robbery of the Iron Exchange bank of Hurley was denied.
The South Fork Property.
PITTSBURG, Aug. 8.—It has about been decided by the members of the South Fork Fishing and Hunting club to donate the property at the famous South Fork dam to the Pittsburg Fresh Air Fund association.
