OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY AND THE COUNTY

From Wednesdays Daily.

Several loads of Iowa hay were brought in today.

Ben Elson is opening up a car load of fine clothing today which he has just received from Chicago.

The sidewalk on Vine street between Third and Fourth streets ought to be fixed up at once. It is in bad shape.

The cannery factory is overwhelmed with orders for canned goods at good prices, but they haven't got the goods.

A pair of boots were found yesterday near where the box of shoes were found, but no clue to the thieves has been unearthed.

The illustrious John Brown, the man with the surplus of medals, is removing over into the southern part of the city today.

Chairman Jones and his muscular assistant col. Pat O'Leary are fixing up some bad places on the Main street pavement today.

The old corner at 6th and Vine has now been cleaned up and we learn that C. W. Holmes talks of erecting thereon a first class livery stable.

The prohibition state convention meets in Lincoln today. P. P. Gass, Noah Clemons, H. M. Gault and Edwin Davis, of this city, are in attendance as delegates.

Mrs. Despain, whose serious illness we mentioned yesterday, was no better this morning. Her daughter, Mrs. Lew. Myers of Cedar Creek, came in today to be at her bedside.

By all odds the handsomest premium list that has reached this office is the one for the Seward Agricultural Society and reflects great credit on the office of the Seward Reporter, where it was printed.

After a four hours soaking rain and a sun bath of a few hours the other day Fred Stadlerman got his furniture into the dry. It did not look as though the rain had improved it very much.

Miss Verna Leonard fell from a saddle horse last evening which she was riding, owing to the breaking of the girth and was shook up pretty badly but did not appear to be much the worse for the fall.

Down at Auburn they are trying to disbar their County Attorney Cornell, for extorting money from a prosecuting witness while serving the county in an official capacity, and for other conduct unbecoming an attorney.

Our neighbor will probably blow himself in today on the iron ore business at Mt. Pleasant. We will wait to see if it proves to be of any value before we give it too much space, as its existence has been known since 1856. The incorporators of the town of Mt. Pleasant made much capital out of their ore beds but they failed to make any iron.

For the benefit of the ladies the Herald will herewith give a receipt for jelly that is new and is splendid. Crab apples are cheap and make a beautiful jelly but the flavor is poor, this is the way to improve it as we are informed by one of the nicest ladies in the city: Take six cups of crab apple juice, four cups of granulated sugar and six cups of juice made from stewing nice fresh cherry leaves and boiled until done. You will be delighted with the result.

The Electric Lamp Company have been shipping to the Southern Electric Supply Company St. Louis quite a quantity lamps ever since they began operation. Yesterday they received a telegram from this house saying: "Express us 500 sixteen candle power lamps and 100 ten volt lamps. Must have them at once. Rush them." That's the kind of a report that comes from using the new lamp. They are now making 300 per day, but will have to increase their force very soon again.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Morris started for her home at San Antonio, Texas, today. Her sister, Mrs. Elson, accompanied her as far as Omaha.

George Edson and J. C. Smith of Rock Bluffs precinct went to Omaha this morning. Mr. Edson has a vast body of iron ore on his place which he is going to have investigated to learn as to its value.

Luther Hanson delivered an elegant lecture at Rockwood Hall to an appreciative audience Monday night. He went to Lincoln yesterday where he will join his wife and little ones, and rest up for a week.

The county fair promises to be much better this year than ever before. One thing is certain, nothing will be spared by the management to make it a grand success. The premiums are liberal and ought to excite some rivalry that would bring out a fine show.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union meets at the home of Mrs. S. A. Davis, on Pearl street, Thursday, Aug. 28th at 8 o'clock. All members are earnestly requested to be present. By order of the President.

Notice.

Members of the Presbyterian church and congregation will please remember the adjourned business meeting to be held at the church this evening at 8 o'clock. Those present on Monday evening will understand that a full attendance is necessary.

The Festive Roberts.

Andrew Fise and wife, residing near Papillion, are in the city today looking for J. G. Roberts. The old lady said Roberts had been coming to see their Tillie for some time and that they were to be married after a while, that she kept putting Roberts off on account of Tillie's being too young. That Roberts was very familiar and called them pa and ma; one day he was out at the barn with the old gentleman when he said, "pa, if I had about $300 more than what I have I could buy the lot next to mine at Lincoln and it would make us a fine building site." The old man reckoned he could get it down at Omaha. And to make a long story short Roberts got the money of him, giving him a mortgage on his household goods and horse and buggy. He claimed a copy of the mortgage was filed at Plattsmouth so that the security was good. On examination today the old gentleman finds that there has been no copy filed but on the contrary another mortgage reposes quietly on the property for all that it is worth, and what is still worse the old lady finds that he is engaged to other ladies and that her poor Tillie would have stood a poor show any how. The old gentleman grew quite confidential with the county clerk and said that his wife had always watched Roberts a little too close, but that now he was awful glad of it. What the outcome will be can only be surmised.

Married.

Today at the Baptist church in Union, by the Rev. Dillon of Weeping Water, Mr. H. M. Frans to Miss Nelly Jones, both of Union. The groom is the son of Wm. Frans, Union's pioneer merchant, and is highly spoken of as a steady, honest, industrious young man. The bride is the handsome and amiable niece of W. D. Jones of this city. Her father and mother are not living though they were old residents of the county. The happy couple will take a trip to Lincoln this evening and on their return will begin housekeeping. The Herald extends its heartiest and best wishes.

School books at Wildman & Fuller's. d&wtf.

The great barbecue and celebration on the completion of the Louisville wagon bridge at that city, has been fixed for September the 24th, and not the 23rd, as stated in the Journal last night. The good people of that village are making preparations for the biggest time on record. The B & M Band of this city has already been engaged for the occasion.

Fathers and mothers, you should call on Wildman & Fuller before you buy school books. d&wtf.

The W. R. C. picnic at Will Morrow's grove yesterday is said to have been a very pleasant social affair. The occasion was the celebration of the anniversary of the organization of the relief corps, seventy-five or eighty good natured people with baskets replete with the best the land affords helped to, and succeeded in royally entertaining each other. The martial band furnished the music.

Wildman & Fuller are the leaders in school supplies. d&wtf.

August Reinhardt. Mention of whose death was made in yesterday's Herald was born in Saxony and came to this country in 1850, first settling in Albany, New York where he was married in 1854. He and his wife came to Plattsmouth in 1857 making them among the very first settlers of this city that was only laid out the year before. The deceased was 65 years of age and was a steady, industrious citizen, having worked at his trade, that of harness making, all these years until a few months ago. The deceased leaves a wife and eight children, the youngest being about fourteen years of age. The children are Mrs. Ed Stamm, Mrs. S. F. Eaton and Katie of this city and Mrs. W. P. Keeler, of Spokane Falls. The sons are Louis, August, Jr., William and Albert, residents of this city. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

John Brown was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly yesterday.

I have taken up two heifer calves, one a roan and one a jersey. The owner can have the same by calling at my place one and one half miles south of Plattsmouth and paying damages. GEO. LUTZ.

Grandma Weckbach, mother of J. V. and Henry Weckbach, of this city, is lying very low at the home of her son, Gust Weckbach, in Omaha.

Jim Banning, one of Nehawka's most prominent citizens is in the county seat today.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shrou, pastor United Brethren church, Blue Mound, Kas., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased and my parishoners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's, drug store. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.

The B. & M. has $7 miles of railroad in this county, the M. P. has 52 miles which, with the Union line added will make 68 miles for that company; the Rock Island will have 20 miles before snow flies, which would make a total mileage of over 125 miles for Cass county. This is a splendid showing with the Milwaukee & St. Paul yet to hear from.

Cottonwood Clippings.

"For summer complaint," says Ben L. Bear, a prominent druggist of Los Angeles, Cal.: "I know of no remedy so sure and safe to use as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Mr. Bear is not alone in entertaining that opinion, as wherever known, the remedy is praised by all who use it. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Summer Complaint.—A druggist at Britt, Hancock county, Ia., relates his experience with this disease as follows: During the summer of 1882, my little girl, two years of age, was taken seriously ill with summer complaint, so common to children of that age, and after being treated by a physician and getting no better, I took from my shelves a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She felt relieved after the first dose, and in three days was entirely well.—ALEX. MORGAN.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pa., in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be overpraised and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. tf

And Then Buy A Home in South Park.

Do not be caught in the delusion of many thousands in postponing a home until they can have an expensive one. This idea is the devil's trap that catches men and women innumerable, who will never have any at all. The laborer may have, at the close of the day, to walk or ride farther than is desirable to reach it, but when he gets to his destination in the eventide he will find something worthy of being called by that glorious and impassioned, and heaven descended word, "Home."

Young married man, as soon as you can buy such a place, even if you have to put on it a mortgage reaching from base to capstone. The much abused mortgage which is ruin to the reckless man, to one prudent and provident is the beginning of a competency and a fortune, for the reason he will not be satisfied until he has paid it off, and all the household are put on strictest economy until then. Deny yourself all superfluities and all luxuries until you can say: "Everything in this house is mine thank God!—every timber, every brick every foot of plumbing, every doorsill." Do not have children born in a boarding house, and do not yourself be buried from one. Have a place where your children can shout and sing and romp and not be overhauled for the racket.

Have a kitchen where you can do something toward the reformation of evil cookery and the lessening of this nation of despectics. As Napoleon lost one of his great battles by an attacked of indigestion, so many men have such a daily wrestle with the food swallowed that they have no strength left for the battle of life; and though your wife may know how to play all musical instruments and rival a prima dona, she is not well educated unless she can boil an Irish potato and broil a mutton chop, since the die sometimes decides the fate of families and nations.

Have a setting room with at least one easy chair, even though you have to take turns at sitting in it, and books out of the public library, or of your own purchase for the making of your family intelligent, and checker boards and guessing matches, with an occasional blind man's bluff, which is of all games my favorite. Rouse up your homes with all styles of innocent amusement, and gather up in your children's lives a reservoir of exuberance that will pour down refreshing streams when life gets parched and the dark days come and the lights go out and the laughter is smothered into a sob.—T. De Witt Talmage.
