Can supply every demand of the Call and get terms. Fourth street In Rear of Opera House.

From Friday's Daily.

The new one hundred horse power engine will probably be put in place tonight at the power house so that the street cars can run again. The engine is a beauty and will do the work that two smaller ones have heretofore done imperfectly.

No. 40 is out from the shops today after a thorough overhauling; and one of the best boys on the road, Mr. Frank Palmer, will hold the throttle on her after a day or two of breaking in; too much rest makes an engine coltish and they have to be broke to ride before they will trust them out on the road hitched up to a load.

Nearly every day, notes large shipments of electric lamps from the new factory to all parts of the United States, but the beauty of it is, the lamp is not only giving excellent satisfaction but it delights the beholder. The Schaffer or Plattsmouth lamp is a winner, it is much better than those heretofore used by the light company here and nought but good words are heard for it.

THE HERALD is glad to know that Mrs. Stephen Buzzell is convalescent after several days sickness.

Badly Mixed. The HERALD item last night about the Frahm was inexcusably mixed. We got our information from a reliable source except that it was hearsay. The two Frahm boys have been getting their mail out of the same box at the Post Office, and the lack that the mail was not returned to the office is ill advised; as it was wholly a private matter between the two boys. The HERALD learns today that no attempt was made or thought of for negotiating the draft, but that it was turned over to the Bar for the right Hans Frahm whenever he should call for it and thus endeth what might have been an exciting episode if the truth had not spoiled it.

Burglary. From Saturday's Daily.

A neat opening was cut in the rear door of Breckenfeldt & Weidman's hardware store some time during the night and three revolvers, six pocket knives, one large bowie knife and two razors were stolen of the value of $36. Two shot guns were taken down and carried to the back of the store but they were left standing. The money drawer was broken out and turned over on the counter, it contained $2.10 but it was left untouched.

The burglars seem to have had a scare, for it looks very strange where there was so much that they could have taken that they took so little. Several suspicious parties were followed up but the right man could not be found. A search warrant was issued for the search of John Brown's famous ranch in Patterson row, and while everything could be found from an opera house to a gimlet the especially desired property did not show up. A stranger sold a revolver to the second hand man at the foot of the street and he was collared but on investigation Mr. Breckenfeldt said it was not his property and the stranger went his way. The job gives evidence of a mechanic having it in charge. The opening was made by boring a line of holes above and below about two feet apart and then splitting out the wood between.

The Ogden short line building from Sioux City through northern Nebraska has puzzled the wise acres for months to know who was furnishing the money and what road was behind it, it now turns out that the Manhattan Trust Co. of New York is the money power and that no road is behind it though traffic agreements have been made with the C. M. & St. Paul.

The Concert.

The entertainment at the Methodist church last night was well attended and seemed to heartily please all present. The programme was well arranged and the little folks showed evidence of careful training and did so exceedingly well that particular mention can hardly be made, though the singing of Miss Lulu Leese was far above what is generally heard at home entertainments. Mrs. Niles and her assistants deserve great credit for the patience and good judgment shown in every part of the entertainment. Over $24 was cleared, which will be applied on the minister's salary.

J. J. Lockridge the striking fireman will be remembered had some trouble with his wife about two years ago when they resided in this city and that they separated, she removed to Sabetha, Kansas. She afterwards removed to the Indian Territory and with her son Fred took up a homestead. Word was received today, however that she had come back to Sabetha, had been adjudged insane and was sent to the Kansas State asylum.

Petition of Harriet Bringham for the appointment of Jno. M. Jekman guardian of John Bringham insane; Hearing September 8, 1890 at 10 o'clock a. m. was filed with county judge yesterday.

Arthur Robinson came home yesterday with 200 bushels of potatoes, he says the finest in the market.

J. P. Antill and a crowd of frisky nimrods went out hunting yesterday but they brought home more experience than they did game.

Several teams have forded the treacherous Platte at Louisville lately and the HERALD predicts that a team and life or two will be lost if it is continued.

J. I. Unruh's man had a smash up the other evening breaking the tongue out of his delivery wagon; which was caused by driving over a pile of dirt in the alley upsetting the wagon.

C. S. Dawson, Esq., has finished up the examination of McKibben, the defaulting Union Pacific purchasing agent, and has gone into the employ of his first love, the B. & M.

Messrs. Boyd & Hinshaw have recently closed the contract with Roe Craig whereby they are to build quite a fine residence for Mr. Craig on Pearl street on the lots just south of Capt. Palmer's residence.

J. E. Leesley, proprietor of the popular home nurseries says he has an immense crop of grapes, but that apples are not so plentiful as last year. Mr. Leesley starts over in Iowa after potatoes in a day or two.

One of the graders at a camp south of town, lost a $15 suit of clothes Thursday. The thief is thought to be a tramp though there is no proof to that effect. A $15 suit of clothes on a tramp certainly wouldn't fit him very well.

The boys were bothering a drunken man on the street yesterday when he suddenly roused up and the way he made the boys fly with a blacksnake whip which he pulled vigorously was anything but funny for the mischievous kids.

Fred Koehler says that even when he is comfortably fixed on the second floor of a two story brick house, he feels a ternal sight safer if he knows there is a good fire escape to get down on from the window. Fred's great fellow to play safe.

W. J. Besser, the pioneer florist of Nebraska, has one of the most beautiful places to be found in the state. His large orchard of well selected varieties of apples will apparently yield him several thousand bushels of apples, while his extensive greenhouses are full of choice exotics from every clime.

The HERALD probably was unjust in its remarks about the horse belonging to the sheriff. Mr. Tighe assures us that the horse in question is as true as steel, and if she refused to pull at the time as stated it was because the intelligent animal was ashamed of the load, B. J. Jones and Reub Hyers being the fellows that were trying to drive her.

There will be a special train run on the old main line to Lincoln to the state fair on September 9th. The train will leave Plattsmouth at 8 a. m. passing through Louisville at 8.40 and arriving at the fair grounds at 10:20 a. m. and returning the same day, leaving Lincoln at 7 p. m. One fare will be charged for the round trip with 50 cents added for admission to the fair grounds.

Senator Van Wyck, nominated by the alliance in the 1st district, was not a democrat, neither was O. M. Kem, nominated in the third district, a democrat, so in both these districts the democrats had no use for them. In the second district, however, McKisigan the alliance nominee is a democrat and that party proposes to endorse him with a whoop and a hurrah. This is the extent of the use the democrats would make of the alliance and republican alliance men should think of it several times before election. Lincoln Call.

An elderly gentleman by the name of Dick Loomis has been stopping for several days at the Pacific House. He has been working in the B. & M. shops and had been on a strike, it was reported to his employer by a friend, where he was to remain until the settlement of the B. & M. He came to town at midnight and about eleven o'clock he jumped from a third story window and landed on the sidewalk below. He was picked up by a policeman and taken to the hospital. Dr. Cook was called for and the old man was treated up but he never spoke. He will probably pull through all right.

Miss Lulu Leese was the victim of a robbery last night. Her money bag containing the sum of twenty five or thirty dollars got together at the home of Miss C. G. Goss and at a late hour they marched in a body to Mr. Fred Leese's where a very pleasant evening was passed. Miss Leese was then escorted at the hands of her friends to a very pretty gold necklace which she will cherish many years as the remembrance of a pleasant occasion. Refreshments were served which, with high fire and plenty of music, hastened the moments until a late hour when the party dispersed.

Wm. Holly split his foot with an ax several days ago, but he came out today for the first time with his shoes on and feeling as good as new.

W. J. Bryan, the democratic candidate for congress is cultivating the acquaintance of the rank and file in this city today. He orates tonight at the opera house.

Colonel Arthur Robinson and Captain Philitt raised the compliments of the day in a rather vigorous English last night. No bones broken and no one missing this morning.

Dovey's carpet window is a beauty. Take a look at it.

Poor old Nebraska City that voted $60,000 bridge bonds, with so much noise the other day has been enjoined from issuing them.

Some much needed work has been begun on North Sixth street, beginning at Main. The highway was badly passable in places since the last year track was put in.

The great big gun game at the Opera House last night drew a large crowd. The Q. J. made an especial hit and the prizes ran very conveniently for the people to go over.

Men unaccustomed to cuspidors will please spit in their hats as this is no swine roost" is the familiar greeting displayed on cards at the office of the Elmwood Echo.

The great strike on the New York canal has not been declared off and it is a serious question if the whole country may not be affected soon by a general strike on the entire Vanderbilt system.

Wm. Tighe had a drive out through the county to Weeping Water, Eagle and Louisville. He reports the corn crop as about as good as common, but his favorite fruit, the Irish potato, is a flat failure.

You will find the largest line of miscellaneous books at J. P. Youngs, ever brought to Plattsmouth, and at the price no one need be without reading matter. Call and look over them and make a selection.

The earnest revivals held on our street corners today by these celebrated fair trade and free trade democrats, could be Congressman Bryan and Cols. Sherman, Ruffner and Koehler is as refreshing as a summer shower to the parched fields.
