Dr. A. Shipman has moved his family and office to the Wettenkamp block on Main street.

You will find the largest stock of stoves in the city to select from at Boeck & Walker's.

The wife of Prof. Halsey arrived last evening from Geneseo, Ill., and has taken a position in our schools.

Mrs. Kate Oliver purchased a steel range of Boeck & Walker and pronounces it the finest baker she ever saw.

Mrs. Kate Simpson, teacher of piano, organ, and primary harmony; address 209 corner of Washington Ave. & 7th Street. tf.

A large number of new stalls have been erected for the accommodation of stock at the county fair, to be held here Sept. 15, 16, 17 and 18.

The new pile bridge for the Rock Island road at South Bend is being rapidly completed. It is nearly a mile below the wagon bridge and but a few rods above Fountain Creek.

Henry Isaacs, residing near the city, was married at the Catholic church this morning at 7:30 by the Rev. Father Carney, to Miss Mary Catharine Jacobs, of this city. The Herald extends its best wishes for prosperity and happiness.

Dr. C. A. Marshall received a telegram yesterday from his brother John residing at Livingston, Montana, announcing the death of his wife, Mrs. Dora Marshall, she being well known in this city. The funeral will probably take place at Burlington, where the relatives of deceased reside.

Sol. V. Pitcher, formerly of this city but now county clerk of Sheridan county, and Frank W. Sprague of Sheridan county, candidate for secretary of state on the democratic ticket, arrived in the city last evening and have been doing the handsome thing with the democrats today.

We have been requested to call the attention of the business men to the fact that they should apply immediately for space for their display at the coming fair as most of the desirable booths have already been spoken for, and our citizens should make a good display so that the farmers can see what kind of goods our merchants carry.

THE GREAT UNWASHED

They Assemble in Solemn Conclave and Nominate a Ticket at Wabash.

[Special to the Herald.]

Your correspondent in company with Guy Livingston and Col. Joseph A. Connor went to Greenwood last evening and after a night in the nicest village in Cass county Col. Connor furnished us the nicest rig in the village and away we went to Wabash to mingle with the democratic hosts. The ride of sixteen miles to Wabash was without incident, yet the corn crop must be mentioned as being very good indeed. If fifty bushels of corn per acre at fifty cents per bushel don't defeat democracy and all its kindred spirits that live on the misfortunes and discontent of the people then we may look out for a hard fight if good times has its customary effect however. The republican ticket will be elected from top to bottom.

We arrived at the seat of war about eleven o'clock and found many anxious statesmen had preceded us. The battle began by the calling of the convention together by the chairman of the county central committee. The organization was completed by electing Dr. Wallace chairman; B. McClintock, for senator; F. E. White and W. B. Shryock, for representatives; Jacob Trisch, will be nominated for commissioner and H. D. Travis for county attorney.

And Then Buy A Home in South Park.

Do not be caught in the delusion of many thousands in postponing a home until they can have an expensive one. This idea is the devil's trap that catches men and women innumerable, who will never have any at all. The laborer may have, at the close of the day, to walk or ride farther than is desirable to reach it but when he gets to his destination in the eventide he will find something worthy of being called by that glorious and impassioned, and heaven descended word, "Home."

Young married man, as soon as you can buy such a place, even if you have to put on it a mortgage reaching from base to capstone. The much abused mortgage which is ruin to the reckless man to one prudent and provident is the beginning of a competency and a fortune, for the reason he will not be satisfied until he has paid it off, and all the household are put on strictest economy until then. Deny yourself all superfluities and all luxuries until you can say: "Everything in this house is mine thank God!—every timber, every brick every foot of plumbing, every doorsill." Do not have children born in a boarding house, and do not yourself be buried from one. Have a place where your children can shout and sing and romp and not be overhauled for the racket.

Have a kitchen where you can do something toward the reformation of evil cookery and the lessening of this nation of despectics. As Napoleon lost one of his great battles by an attacked of indigestion, so many men have such a daily wrestle with the food swallowed that they have no strength left for the battle of life; and though your wife may know how to play all musical instruments and rival a prima dona, she is not well educated unless she can boil an Irish potatoe and broil a mutton chop, since the die sometimes decides the fate of families and nations.

Have a setting room with at least one easy chair, even though you have to take turns at sitting in it, and books out of the public library, or of your own purchase for the making of your family intelligent, and checker boards and guessing matches, with an occasional blind man's bluff, which is of all games my favorite. Rouse up your homes with all styles of innocent amusement, and gather up in your children's lives a reservoir of exuberance that will pour down refreshing streams when life gets parched and the dark days come and the lights go out and the laughter is smothered into a sob.—T. De Witt Talmage.
