From Wednesday's Daily.

Miss Stella Steinkler is visiting friends in Omaha today.

There were 65 state fair tickets sold by agent Latham this morning.

BORN.—Sept. 10th 1890. To Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wertemberger on 6th and Gold street a daughter.

Mrs. A. P. Campbell departed this morning for a month's visit with friends and relatives in Burlington.

Mr. J. H. Burnett a former resident of this county, but now of Frontier county this state was with the rush this morning for the state fair.

J. S. Gopen residing south west of the city departed this morning for Clarks, Merrick county, this state for a visit with friends, and to look over the country.

Miss Emma Warner, of Ipsvia, Ill., arrived this morning and will remain in the city for several months the guest of her sister Mrs. Walter Holmes.

B. Windham Esq., father of R. B. Windham of this city, came over yesterday from Glenwood to attend the county fair not having missed a Cass county fair for over ten years.

The beat of the "big drum" at the central building seems to quicken the footsteps of our youths to reach their places in the march, and for the day's labors in the school rooms.

The HERALD is represented at the state fair today by Col. M. D. Polk and "Cap" Rhode. There will be but few things transpire there that we are not informed of on the morrow.

Mesdames Dawson & Pearce have arranged with Miss Una Freer to take charge of the Misses and children's department of their business. All orders in these lines will have prompt attention. Ladies plain dresses and wrappers made to order.

Holy Writ says men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil; but the south part of the city were kept in darkness till a late hour last night because of a failure of the electrical current to reach the lamps.

A lot of youngsters were having a great deal of merriment out on Lincoln avenue last night with a bonfire and policeman Jack Denson's "trick mule" which we are informed Denson is grooming for the races at the fair.

Among the many visitors to the state fair this morning might have been seen one of our prominent liverymen—whose name we withhold by request—with a roll of documents under his arm for distribution. Upon inquiring we were informed by Commissioner Todd and Host Vanaram that the said documents were temperance tracts.

Do Not Miss It.

Do not miss hearing the Mandolin and Guitar club at the Derrick concert on Friday evening, Sept. 19. H. P. Sutorius, the instructor of the club, for a number of years traveled with the Spanish Students, and is known as the Mandolin King. Seats go on sale Monday, at Youngs. Prices 50, 35 and 25 cents.

W. A. Derrick's Concert. We are informed that W. A. Derrick, who was a resident of this city for some time and a member of the old Plattsmouth glee club; but who for the past year or more has taken up his abode in Omaha, during which time he has been a student under the well known vocal instructor, B. B. Young, intends giving his old friends of this city a rich musical treat on the evening of Friday, Sept. 19 at the Waterman opera house. He has secured the best talent of Omaha to assist him, among which is the Sutorius Mandolin and Guitar club, which alone will afford a new and novel musical feast. The Orphans quartette, consisting of Messrs. Wherry, Treat, Butler and Derrick will take a prominent part. Aside from this, the names of Mrs. Moeller, the contralto soloist of Trinity cathedral quartette; and Mr. Lew Dale, a popular humorist, will appear on the programme.

As this is Mr. Derrick's farewell concert, previous to his departure for the east where he will continue his musical studies, his last grand efforts to furnish his old friends a musical treat should be greeted by a crowded house.

Y. W. C. T. U.

There will be a meeting of the Y's at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Thursday, Sept. 11, at 4 p. m. Arrangements will be made for the social and all members are desired to be present.

We were able to obtain but a partial list of the many visitors to the state fair from this city today, among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. Vanaram of the Hotel Riley. A. B. Todd, R. W. Hyers, E. S. Summer Complaint.—A druggist at Britt, Hancock county, Ia., relates his experience with this disease as follows: During the summer of 1882, my little girl, two years of age, was taken seriously ill with summer complaint, so common to children of that age, and after being treated by a physician and getting no better, I took from my shelves a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She felt relieved after the first dose, and in three days was entirely well.—ALEX. MOIR.

KILLED AT THE CROSSING

FRANK SWINDELL MEETS AN UN-TIMELY DEATH

He Steps in Front of an Approaching Train at the Eleventh Street Crossing and is Instantly Killed

A Distressing Accident

A distressing and fatal accident occurred at the B. & M. crossing on North Eleventh street a few minutes before 5 o'clock last evening. The victim of the accident was Frank Swindell, a young farmer who resides near Phelps, Kas. Swindell was attending the fair and was on his way to the city when the accident occurred. He was walking along the south track when an approaching train warned him off. He stepped off the track onto the main track and was struck by a train returning from the fair grounds. The unfortunate man's head was crushed in and his legs were mangled terribly. A telephone message was sent to the police station and the patrol wagon sent down. The body was taken to Heston's undertaking establishment to be prepared for burial.

Swindell formerly lived at South Bend, Neb., but has resided on a farm near Phelps, Kas., for the past seven years. He is married and is the father of five children. A message was sent to his wife last night apprising her of her husband's terrible death. The body will be kept at Heston's until word is received from the unfortunate man's family.—State Journal.

Mr. Swindell was an old resident of Cass county, having resided here for several years near South Bend where he was married previous to taking up his residence in Kansas. And we are informed that he was a distant relative of the Polk Bros. of this city. It is a sad message to be borne to the bereaved wife and children at home.

Everyone that knows the comedian John Dillon knows that he is capable of amusing and keeping his audience in a war of laughter especially in his famous play "States Attorney"—he has a strong supporting company and will appear at the opera house tomorrow night. Prof. Waldemar Beck will furnish the music assisted by Miss Mary Grant at the piano and other competent musicians. Don't fail to go tomorrow night and enjoy a pleasant evening. Secure your tickets now as present indications point to a big house.

The County Fair.—September 15, 16, 17 and 18. dtw.

Hon. Wm. Neville is conceded to be an excellent judge of bridge constructions but from the wild guess he made at the weight of a 39 pound watermelon at Henry Weckbach's store, putting it at 15 pounds one would think he was a novice at passing upon the weight of such objects. Then he was prevailed upon to pass upon the age of a mule and his friend Francis is authority that he called the animal 15 years old when he was exactly 29 years old. As Billy never drove any mules, or foraged any melons in his boyhood days he should not be expected to guess upon either with too great precision.

Having been appointed tax collector for this city. Mr. Guy Livingston for the convenience and accommodation of shop men will be found at the treasurers office every day at the noon hour and of evenings from six to eight.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found before he had used half a bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health. If you have any throat, lung or chest trouble, try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at F. G. Fricke & Co's., drugstore.

Wm. Neville's tent on section five on the Omaha Southern went up in flames yesterday taking fire from a carelessly constructed stove pipe hole.

Jake Reed, of Peru, the young man interested in the new lumber yard arrived last evening, and will lend the boys a helping hand to get things ready for business.

The registrars will sit for the purpose of revising the registers on September 12 and 13, then again Saturday September 20. Let every body register then vote for the bonds.

The social given last night at the residence of Mrs. Laura Peterson, west of the high school building, by the ladies aid society of the M. E. church was very successful and well attended.

The great harvest excursion train passed through this city this forenoon in three divisions of ten coaches to each division, and every coach was filled and many passengers were standing on the platform.

John Leach, the painter received an order which put him to his studios today. It was an inscription for the rostrum in the new German church out in the Lohans neighborhood. John isn't much of a german, and he was a little troubled to decipher some of the letters.

Pat Teevan, the excelsior mortar mixer got "funny" last evening and proceeded to read policeman Johnnie Fitzpatrick a lecture in rather severe terms, when Johnnie ordered the said Pat to desist, and accompany him to the city boarding house, and this morning Judge Archer assessed Pat $2.50 and costs for the fun and lodging.

Policeman Fitzpatrick had his class of incorrigibles on the street for recreation this afternoon. Johnnie says their circulation will be better for a little exercise. Two of them refused to work and Marshall Archer chained them together and let them stand and look on with all the independence they could get out of the situation.

The HERALD finds through an interview with the County Fair management that every thing is encouraging for a good fair but we are requested to urge upon the farmers to fill the agricultural hall and the business men of Plattsmouth to make an elaborate display in the art hall. If this is done Cass county will have the greatest fair ever held on the grounds and something to be proud of. The fair opens next Monday Sept. 15th. Let all the entries be made on or by that day if possible. The book of entries will be closed Tuesday at 12 o'clock.

A Good Sized Runaway.

At the noon hour a team belonging to John Wiles, a farmer west of town, took a scare near the Postoffice and flew up Main street at a lively rate, with L. Mathews the driver in the wagon part of the time and on the wagon tongue the rest of the time, endeavoring most heroically to check the team, which he succeeded in doing at the corner of 6th street. Many wonders were expressed by those who witnessed the run that the driver was not dashed among the wheels and severely injured, but fortunately little injury resulted to either driver or team.

And Then Buy a Home in South Park.

Do not be caught in the delusion of many thousands in postponing a home until they can have an expensive one. This idea is the devil's trap that catches men and women innumerable, who will never have any at all. The laborer may have, at the close of the day, to walk or ride farther than is desirable to reach it but when he gets to his destination in the eventide he will find something worthy of being called by that glorious and impassioned, and heaven descended word, "Home."

Young married man, as soon as you can buy such a place, even if you have to put on it a mortgage reaching from base to capstone. The much abused mortgage which is ruin to the reckless man, to one prudent and provident is the beginning of a competency and a fortune, for the reason he will not be satisfied until he has paid it off, and all the household are put on strictest economy until then. Deny yourself all superfluities and all luxuries until you can say: "Everything in this house is mine thank God!—every timber, every brick every foot of plumbing, every door sill." Do not have children born in a boarding house, and do not yourself be buried from one. Have a place where your children can shout and sing and romp and not be overhauled for the racket. Have a kitchen where you can do something toward the reformation of evil cookery and the lessening of this nation of despectics. As Napoleon lost one of his great battles by an attacked of indigestion, so many men have such a daily wrestle with the food swallowed that they have no strength left for the battle of life; and though your wife may know how to play all musical instruments and rival a prima donna, she is not well educated unless she can boil an Irish potato and broil a mutton chop, since the diet-sometimes, decides the fate of families and nations.

Have a setting room with at least one easy chair, even though you have to take turns at sitting in it, and books out of the public library, or of your own purchase for the making of your family intelligent, and checker boards and guessing matches, with an occasional blind man's bluff, which is of all games my favorite. Rouse up your homes with all styles of innocent amusement, and gather up in your children's lives a reservoir of exuberance that will pour down refreshing streams when life gets parched and the dark days come and the lights go out and the laughter is smothered into a sob.—T. De Witt Talmage.
