

Friday's Daily.
Hon. John C. Watson will orate at the opening of the bridge at Louisville.

Plattsmouth schools opened up with 9 pupils enrolled and in attendance, while Nebraska City could only muster 3. Why is this thus?

Sailor Ben, the Finlander, and Johnny Stevens have banded together and are making a hard fight for prohibition. They are both in town today.

An 18 year old boy in the employ of Julius Pepperberg receives $21 a week for his services in making cigars, and he only works eight hours per day.

Well, Sarah, what have you been doing to make you look so young? Oh, nothing much, only been using Hall's Hair Renewer to restore the color of my hair.

Wendell Foster has resigned his position as messenger boy at the telegraph office to work for Julius Pepperberg. Jimmie Newell succeeds him as messenger.

A beautiful drove of pelicans attracted considerable attention on the street this morning as they circled around quite low enough to give a good view of the queer birds.

Charley Grimes was circulating a petition yesterday among the attorneys asking to have the county commissioners appoint Dennis Dwyer as a substitute for Judge Ramsey, while Ramsey takes a six weeks' tour for his health and gets rested up.

If you could see your own scalp through an ordinary magnifying glass, you would be amazed at the amount of dust, dandruff, and dead skin thereon accumulated. The best and most popular preparation for cleansing the scalp is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Roe Craig's little boy is still quite fretful and poorly from the effects of his buras. Mr. Craig tells us that the skin on its little fingers slipped off like thumb stalls, leaving those members perfectly raw. It was an unfortunate affair but the little fellow seems to have plenty of vitality and will pull through.

A delegate from Union to the Wabash convention got so full that he refused to give up his ticket and paid his fare to Nehawka but finally traded his ticket to the conductor in lieu of cash for the balance of the way. The Con said he was bright enough probably to come in out of the rain.

Sallow and leaden hued complexions soon give place to the loveliest pink and white, when the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is persisted in, and cosmetics entirely abandoned. Nothing can counterfeit the rosy glow of perfect health, which blesses those who use this medicine.

Louie Eickhoff purchased the northwest quarter of section 15, town 11, range 10 in Elmwood precinct, of O. S. Cole for the neat sum of $8,000. This is the land on which the new Rock Island station near Wabash is to be located. We trust Mr. Eickhoff will receive handsome returns from his investment.

Mike Shirk is a good natured boy but he is very unfortunate away from home. He got sunstruck in Omaha, had cholera morbus at Grand Island, was sick on the Kearney trip, and on his last venture out of town he fell in the lake at Wabash. He will probably take out some good life insurance before he starts on another trip, for he knows something will happen.

Probably the largest blast ever put off in the Black Hills was recently discharged on the B. & M. grade near the northern limits of Custer City by Contractors Cable & Chute. Forty-five kegs of black powder and 150 pounds of giant powder were used, producing an explosion which fairly made the mountains tremble, and displaced many thousand tons of rock. The residence of Peter McKinney, located near by, was literally buried under the debris, and would have been utterly demolished had he not taken the precaution to protect it with heavy timbers.—Ex.

The "Jolly Six" were celebrating Miss Janet Livingston's birthday yesterday and last evening in an appropriate manner. Miss Edith White, Dora Fricke, Ella Clark, Vera Leonard and Miss Bessie Fletcher, (the latter taking the place of Barbara Gering who is absent in Germany) were most delightfully entertained at a five o'clock tea at the Livingston mansion on Sixth street. Miss Janet, the fair hostess, spared no pains to make everybody have a jolly time, and they had it. The table was beautifully decorated and the souvenirs were tea cups tied with pink ribbon. In the evening they were joined by Kittie Cummins and Clara Palmer and Messrs. Will Clement, Tom Parmele, John Donelan, Will Stadelman, Bert Holmes, Frank Cummins, Carrol Leonard and Stuart and Guy Livingston. The evening was spent at progressive high five to which all heartily took part and resulted in the king prizes going to Carrol Leonard and Dora Fricke and the booby prizes to Frank and Kittie Cummins. Refreshments were served and all went home at a late hour wishing Miss Janet many happy returns of so pleasant a birthday party.

From Saturday's Daily.
H. J. Straight, accompanied by his wife and daughter, will go to South Bend this evening to spend Sunday with H. J.'s father.

Dr. Mathews came in from Platte county yesterday evening. He reports prairie chicken and other game as being very plentiful up there.

Hon. James Hall, one of Cass county's best farmers, made the HERALD a pleasant call today. Mr. Hall was on his way home from the reunion which he votes a grand success.

Billy McCarthy of this city, and a nephew of Wm. Neville, was married yesterday in Council Bluffs to Miss Etta Jeffers. Mr. McCarthy and his estimable lady will begin housekeeping in this city within a few days.

Remember "The Fireman's Ward" is not a long five act drama, nor is it a senseless farce comedy, but has sufficient sentiment to make the comedy element all the more acceptable, while the latest songs, dances, etc., are given in each act to give life and action to the performance.

Why don't this town brace up and help Mr. Fred Schroeder of Cedar Creek, a first class, reliable miller to put in large roller mills. Lafe O'Neill offers to do more than his share by donating the ground. Now let business men take an interest and push the enterprise to the front and let the jack knife and oriole watchsharks take a back seat, but let the men of faith in Plattsmouth who have made their money out of the town come up and do something.

The local page of a Nebraska City paper comes to us full of rare and choice matter. We give below the titles of all the articles on that page of yesterday's paper: Startling Discovery; They all failed; Bradford's regulator; Masks and Faces; Consumption; A Lady in Texas Writes; Husband, I Want to try it; You Take no Risk; Happy Meeting of two Friends; A Fortunate Woman; A Mysterious Disappearance, etc. The particular reason we mention the above fact is because the articles are all patent medicine advertisements, which Plattsmouth people do not consider as news. It seems however to work all right in Nebraska City.

Another Railroad.
It is not generally known but it is a fact that a surveying party has for several days been making a careful survey of a line of road from King hill, which is a high point on the river two miles below Rock Bluffs, on west through Oldham's and the old Dimmit Cole section, keeping well up on the divide and making no curve whatever. Lew Cole was in town last night and said it was supposed down there to be the Diagonal people, though nothing definite was known except that some parties were surveying a route for a railroad. He says they cut down timber or corn if it came in the way of their line and that they seemed in a great hurry, but what their destination was no one could tell.

A couple of boys who had been driving their cows to pasture, while returning home were running their horses. Mrs. Will Baumeister was driving along the bottom in her buggy with some grapes she expected to market, when one of the horses struck the hind wheel of the buggy with great force, upsetting the vehicle and throwing Mrs. Baumeister to the ground in such a way as to bruise her up in a very painful manner though fortunately no bones were broken. The buggy was not injured and Mrs. B. was taken home where she will probably remain for a few days.

B. & M. Taxes.
The following facts regarding the taxes paid by the B. & M. railroad we glean from the records. The sum paid is enormous, and notwithstanding the popular cry against corporations we frankly say that no kind of property is taxed higher and no taxes are paid more promptly than those of the B. & M. The following table shows the tax for 1890 as levied for the different funds:

State and county	$9,597 76
Road tax, outside Platts and W W cities	1,201 08
School district tax, same	2,380 90
School bond tax outside Platts city	779 29
Plattsmouth Prec and R B bond tax	416 67
Louisville bridge bonds, Louisville Prec	331 34
South Bend bridge bonds, South Bend precinct	227 87
Plattsmouth city tax	9,214 04
Louisville village tax	64 90
Greenwood village tax	59 00
South Bend village tax	87 32
Shop grounds	3,471 50
Total tax for all purposes, 1890	$21,822 77

Col. Tiebald, of Omaha, Will Cushing's "mascot," was in the city today. After a careful estimate and a personal visit to about fifty counties, he assures us that Cushing's majority will be at little over 10,000 in the state. And that 25,000 will be about the majority against the amendment. Dave McEntee got so enthusiastic when he heard the news about Cushing that he swore off on Cleveland and says Cushing is his choice for president from now on.

Beginning Sept. 1, we commenced cutting prices on our entire stock of dry goods, carpets, etc. and will continue to sell at low prices until all is gone. We must be all closed out by January 1, 1890. tf.

A Pleasant Time.
The following account of a good time was crowded out of our yesterday's issue: The social given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church, at the home of Mr. Ed Todd, west of the city, Thursday night, was well attended, there being over 100 persons from the city alone, besides the many neighbors of Mr. Todd.

The society tender their many thanks to all those present, for their assistance, and especially to Liverymen Fitzgerald, Holmes and Parmele for conveyance.

The reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Todd can not be fitly described, as they opened up everything that might be desired by a party of this kind to have a pleasant time, and even invited those present to visit the pantry, and partake of the many delicacies, the extent and amount of which are not to be excelled; and the amount it took to satisfy the appetite of those present can only be imagined by considering the capacity of the leaders, Messrs. Mayor Richey, Commissioner Todd, Eiam Parmele and Clerk Critchfield.

Everybody pronounced it a most pleasant time, and will always remember the unlimited efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Todd, to make those present enjoy themselves.

ONE PRESENT.
Ever since the new clerk of the supreme court, took possession of his office there has been a great deal of speculation as to who would be his deputy. There were a number of aspirants for the place, which is embellished with a salary of $1,700 and is not to be sneezed at as a fat situation. Mr. Campbell has had charge of his clerkship for two months now and matters have sailed along so smoothly with Mr. William B. Rose as acting deputy that Mr. Campbell arrived at the conclusion that he was a pretty good man for the place. Just when the clerk reached the conclusion it is difficult to surmise, but yesterday morning Mr. Rose was apprised of his appointment as deputy clerk. No one has been heard taking any exceptions to the appointment, as the gentleman selected has been in the clerk's office for two years and is thoroughly competent. Further than that, he is a genial, mild-mannered, accommodating gentleman who is well liked by those with whom he comes in contact.—Lincoln Journal.

Do not be misled, but call on Boeck & Walker in need of a stove of any kind. Call in any time you are down town and if they can't prove to you they have the best stove in the city you will be much nearer a corpse than you desire.

The Century Plant.
W. J. Hesser came in last evening with a lot of fine plants and among the other things, we noticed the veteran house mover, Walter White, with a big century plant which is more than 15 feet high and is over 50 feet in circumference.

The plant was nicely packed and with the wagon weighed nearly two and a half tons. The plant has been in Mr. Hesser's possession for over 23 years and was not a young plant when he got it, he having purchased it of John Y. Teas, the great hoosier nurseryman and in all probability it is not over 40 years of age, it is expected to bloom this year; it may not do so yet it has that appearance. Mr. Hesser had refused to move the great agave again but when the state fair management offered him $150 to bring it up he could not withstand the tempting offer. It will be one of the greatest attractions on the grounds.

Mart Buttery and Fred Egenberger are sprinters, and when they put $5 00 up to go to the winner, everybody thought they were going to see the record cut way down so low that it would not be reached again during the century; but, alas, Fred flew the track for some trivial reason and the race was declared off, much to the disgust of the crowd.

LATER: About 10 o'clock last night the race was fixed for again and this time it was a go. The boys were in poor condition at this late hour, the track was slow so that Egenberger won on an easy canter, running the 100 yards in four minutes. Buttery clawed the air and tore up the dirt but to no purpose. Fred took the stakes and the crowd adjourned to irrigate at Fred's expense.

Yesterday morning chief of police Wheeling got word from Plattsmouth to look out for a man about 5 feet 7 inches tall and sandy mustache, as he had stolen a horse from Plattsmouth, and rode it to Union and left it. He then stole a suit of clothes at the latter place and left, going down the road. A man answering the description was arrested here yesterday afternoon and now lays in jail. He gave his name as Chas. Mason and said he had just come from Weeping Water. The sheriff of Cass county said that the man he wanted had been working for a man named Johnson just north of Weeping Water. The officers will be here today to identify the man and take him back.

LATER: Deputy Sheriff Tighe came down from Plattsmouth last night on the 11:50 M. P. train and will return home on the 3:34 train this morning in company with his prisoner.—Nebraska City Press.

The Divorce Record.
The following divorce cases have been filed in the district court in the last month.

Emma Miller vs Isaac Brum Miller, The plaintiff says she was married to the defendant in 1888 at Monticello, Illinois, that she has been a chaste, obedient and faithful wife, etc., and charges that the defendant willfully abandoned her and that he committed adultery at divers times and places fully set out in petition.

Christian Schrupp vs Anne Schrupp. He says he was married to defendant in Plattsmouth on the 8rd day of September 1887, that he has always been a faithful, chaste and indulgent husband, but that Anne has been a holy terror and was guilty of extreme cruelty toward him. On one occasion she smashed a lantern by striking him over the head with it and that finally she deserted his peaceful bed and seeks other fields of labor wherefore he wants a divorce.

Mary J. Hansen vs Andrew Hansen in the title of a case wherein the plaintiff makes the usual claims, and she charges the defendant who was married to plaintiff in Plattsmouth in 1873 with being a bold bad man, that he committed adultery with Eliza Johnson and that he finally deserted her in 1885. She asks custody of their three minor children.

Harry G. Todd vs Lola I. Todd is a case wherein the plaintiff who is a son of L. G. Todd makes no other charge against his wife except that she deserted him two years ago and will not live with him. They were married in Fremont county, Iowa on the 20th day of March 1888.

Minnie May Jones vs James Jones is the title of a case where the plaintiff says she was married to defendant at Plattsmouth in March 1887, and that the defendant is a gambler, a man of vicious habits and has never supported her and that he has flown to other parts.

Frederick G. Miller vs Dinah E. Miller alleges as a cause for his marital troubles that he was married in 1879 in this county and that he has always been a loving, chaste and obedient husband but that his wife willfully deserted him in 1887 and continues absent from his home which he thinks is sufficient reason to ask the courts for a legal separation.

Fred Woodson asks for a divorce from Ophelia Woodson. The plaintiff says he married the defendant at Glenwood, Ia., on the 18th day of January, 1890. His first charge is that the defendant falsely and fraudulently represented to plaintiff that she was a chaste and virtuous woman, but on the contrary she was a common prostitute. He says further that she was guilty of adultery with a party whose name was unknown, on the 20th day of last April and that he was sadly and very completely taken in.

J. C. Miller and Miss Maud M. Brown of Wabash received a permit to wed, yesterday.

Untamed Eloquence.
Mayfield's Courier-Journal. In consequence thereof, and in keeping with the untiring vitality of our citizens, an elaborate and gorgeous preparation is being consummated for the grandest and most complete celebration that will have recorded in the annals of Louisville history. An unsurpassable programme has been perfected for the occasion and the day will be one of gala and satisfactory culminations. Speakers with fluent and eloquent voices will address the course, and visitors from many miles around will be here to participate in the enjoyments that comes to the mass of humanity but once in a lifetime.

Court Notes.
James Ferguson, at the instance of his attorneys, Talbot & Bryan, asks that a receiver be appointed for the Ashland Milling Company, S. S. Brown, Daniel E. Hay and Elmer Brown are made defendants. The suit is brought in the district court here for the reason that part of the property is in this county.

S. D. Eels has filed a petition in foreclosure against F. M. Striplin of Elmwood. Edwin Jeary appears as attorney for plaintiff.

Grey Billy, owned by C. W. Holmes was pitted against Jones & Fitzgerald's Billy the Kid yesterday, Bert Holmes and young Beverage were the jockeys. Grey Billy was an easy winner. This afternoon Grey Billy will be pitted against a roan horse at Jones' stable.

In the justice court Kid Jessor was fined $5 and costs for fast riding through the streets, he secured his liberty by putting up a saddle. Charley Davis was drunk and disorderly and was fined $5 and costs, for want of ready cash he will work his fine out on the streets.

Jack Smith, the Weeping Water tough, was sent to jail by Squire King for being drunk and disorderly and for threatening to kill an officer. The sentence was 30 days in jail and a fine of $10 and costs. This morning Allen Beeson applied for a writ of habeas corpus to Judge Ramsey and after a full hearing Smith was set free on the ground that it was a dual punishment. A case in the 16th Nebraska fills the bill exactly so that the court had no other alternative than to set the prisoner free.
