

Mrs. Janette Despain
From Saturdays Daily.

Departed this life at 5:30 o'clock this morning in the midst of friends and relatives who had been called to her bedside knowing that the sands of life had run their course. Mrs. Despain was born in Woodford county, Kentucky, on the 31st day of October, 1815. She removed to Illinois with her parents in 1830 and in 1835 she was married to W. J. Despain in Cass county, Illinois, where they remained until 1855 when they removed to Iowa. Mr. Despain appeared to like frontier life and in 1867 they moved to Plattsmouth, where Mrs. Despain resided up to the time of her death. Mr. Despain having died in 1877. The deceased was a noble woman of a kindly disposition and believed more in kindly Christian acts than in the modern professions of christianity. She was a devout believer of the bible and was willing when the time came to be judged for the work done in the body.

Grandma Despain was especially remarkable for her kindly heart and christian bearing. She was the mother of ten children, six boys and four girls. Two girls had preceded her to the great beyond, the remaining 8 are all married except the youngest son Albert. The funeral will take place tomorrow at two o'clock from the late residence of the deceased on the corner of 8th and Pearl streets.

A big train of hogs and cattle passed through the city from Iowa this morning bound for South Omaha, the serious competitor of Chicago.

Harvest home sacred concert at the Tabernacle in South Park tomorrow. This will be a fine entertainment and the admission is free.

The hard wind the other day blew down one of Mrs. Livingston's finest shade trees, a large box alder which grew just east of the house.

C. S. Polk feels quite jubilant over winning his first case in the supreme court when he was pitted against so good a lawyer as Allen Beeson. We refer to the case of Frans vs. Young, reported in another column.

The boys say that O. A. Brown, the accommodating clerk for Wildman & Fuller will leave this state very soon and that he will enter a state not down on the maps. The HERALD extends congratulations in advance.

The Greenwood Post Office was robbed on the night of the 18th of all their stamps and small change. No clue has been found that may lead to the capture of the thieves, though fortunately for Mrs. Cutler, the P. M., the loss will not be as heavy as it might have been.

The Echo say, "the Eagle has temporarily sold out to the Alliance, chattels, body and soul." Leave out the word temporarily, Mayfield. We've trained in a $15.00 crowd as you call it, long enough. We prefer to roost in a hay stack hereafter.—Weeping Water Eagle. What has the $ got to do with it? The HERALD is republican from principal and has never yet taken part in a campaign from a standpoint.

Suttons double Uncle Tom's Cabin Company drew a large crowd at the People's. There were the two Toppies, two Marks and four donkeys. This old favorite was well rendered and some excellent songs and specialties were worked in. The specialties alone are worth the price of admission. Little Rosebug as Eva is the most talented child artist on the stage.—Lincoln Journal, Dec. 26th. At Watermans opera house Saturday evening Sept. 27th and matinee at 2:30.

Track Layers.
The B. & M. construction train with a large force of hands is now laying the rails on the completed roadbed from La Platte to South Omaha. The train leaves the depot every morning at six o'clock. As the bridges are all completed the laying of the track will not very long.

A choice lot of Poland China pigs for sale at the farm of Wm. Mertons 5 miles west of Plattsmouth, to be kept on hand till the 15th of October only.

The Concert.
From Monday's Daily.

The sacred concert at the tabernacle last night was a grand success both socially and financially. The song "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung with rare impressiveness and will never be forgotten by those who were so fortunate as to hear it. The concert, in the opinion of many, ought to be repeated, as a crowded house would undoubtedly be present. The singing of the Wood sisters as well as others was very fine indeed.

Miss Mabel Lefford of Harrisburg Pa., entertained quite a company of young people, Saturday evening, at the residence of her uncle, Mr C. F. Fleck.

A series of meetings will begin at the Christian church Thursday night under the auspices of Rev. D. C. Halseman of Ohio. Elder Reid of Omaha will assist. The meetings will continue for about two weeks.

Big Frank Young was in town the other day and was feeling too proud to speak to "ye local of THE HERALD." On enquiry we learned a fine girl had but recently arrived at the Young household, which was probably the cause of Frank's elevation.

Mrs. Wining's little girl, about ten years old, was frightfully burned today noon while frying some meat; the grease caught fire and splattered up into her face. The doctor was promptly called and she was made as comfortable as possible.

L. Pearlman is kicking himself a little for thoughtlessly neglecting to enter his exhibit for a premium at the fair. Mr. Pearlman has carried off the first premium on the finest display of furniture for two years in succession and his exhibit this year was an improvement on the others.

Death Of Landon White.
Mr. Landon White died at his residence in South Park yesterday morning at 12:30 o'clock after an illness of nine weeks, with a disease that baffled the skill of five or six of our best physicians.

Death had been expected for some time. Consequently no great surprise was occasioned.

Mr. White was a well known B. & M. engineer, a good citizen and a kind husband.

Deceased was born in Sangamon Co., Ill., Sept. 16, 1854 and was married to Anna White in DesMoines Ia., Oct. 12, 1879. The wife and five small children survive him.

He came to Plattsmouth in March 1888 and for two years has been running engine 97, used on the bridge transfer. He was always at his post and ready for work.

He leaves a nice house in South Park, clear of all incumbrances, and a policy of $1250 in the Burlington Relief company, payable to his widow.

The sympathy of the many friends of the deceased is kindly extended to the widow whose duties as the mother of her fatherless children seem very hard.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock today at the Tabernacle. Rev. Wood officiating.

A FRIEND.
Stephen Cole, an old Cass county boy now residing in Chase county, is visiting his many friends and relatives south of town.

The Omaha Mandolin and Guitar club which delighted the audience at the Derrick concert last Friday evening by its remarkable skill exhibited in manipulating those novel instruments, was so favorably impressed by the entertainment tendered that evening at the spacious residence of Mr. Wm. Neville, who opened his doors to the whole company which took a part in the concert that evening, and entertained it in such a right royal style, that the club was unanimous in deciding to remain over Saturday in the city. In the afternoon the club, accompanied by Mr. Derrick and Mr. Arthur Cutler, an old time friend of the White family, wended their way to the home of the Hon. F. E. White, where, it is needless to say, they were entertained in a creditable style. A very pleasing program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered by the club and Mr. Derrick, after which they were invited to adjourn to the dining room where a tempting luncheon awaited them. There were present Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. White, Mrs. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. S. Waugh, Mr. and Mrs. Drummond, Miss Amelia Vallery and Lydia Patterson.

The Opera.

The subscription for seats to the opera is progressing finely and the probability is that the engagement will be made. The list will be at Mr. Young's store today and tomorrow, and if by Thursday morning the list is large enough to warrant it, the sale, for subscribers only, will be opened that morning at 9 o'clock. The sale for the general public will be opened Friday morning.

The Hess Company is recognized as the leading company on the road, and it will be a most notable engagement. The Council Bluffs Globe says: The Hess Grand Opera company close their engagement at Dohany's tonight with that excellent production, Il Travatore. The company is first-class in every particular, and well deserves a crowded house.

C. W. Sherman (of Lincoln) is on trial before Judge Field on the charge of stealing a horse. The defense was that Sherman was out of work and only borrowed the pony to hunt up a job as it made him tired to walk. His getting tired so easy and desire for work reminds us of a man by the name of Sherman in this city.

Skins on Fire.

With Itching, Burning, Bleeding
Eczemas Instantly Relieved
by Cuticura Remedies.

Our little son will be four years old on the 25th inst. In May, 1886, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives, in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him CUTICURA Remedies internally, and the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the RESOLVENT. About every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrid malady. In all we used less than one half of a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a little less than one box of CUTICURA and only one cake of CUTICURA SOAP.

H. E. RYAN,
Cayuga, Livingston Co., Ill.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 4th day of January, 1887. C. N. COE, J. P.

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

Parents do you realize how your little ones suffer, when their tender skins are literally on fire with itching, burning, scaly, and blotched skin and scalp diseases? To know that a simple application of the CUTICURA Remedies will often afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a permanent and economical (because so speedy) cure, and not to use them, without a moment's delay, is to be guilty of positive inhumanity. No greater legacy can be bestowed upon a child than a clear skin and pure blood. CUTICURA Remedies are absolutely pure, and may be used from infancy to age, from pimples to scurfia.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c. SOAP 25c. RESOLVENT, $1. Prepared by the FOSTER-PENNY AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston, Mass.

THE FIGURE "9."
The figure 9 in our dates will make a long step to man or woman now living will ever date a document without using the figure 9. It stands in the third place in 1890, where it will remain ten years and then move up to second place in 1900, where it will rest for one hundred years. There is another "9" which has also come to stay. It is unlike the figure 9 in our dates in the respect that it has already moved up to first place, where it will permanently remain. It is called the "No. 9" High Arm Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. The "No. 9" was endorsed for first place by the experts of Europe at the Paris Exposition of 1889, where, after a severe contest with the leading machines of the world, it was awarded the only Grand Prize given to family sewing machines, all others on exhibit having received lower awards of gold medals, etc. The French Government also recognized its superiority by the decoration of Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the company, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor. The "No. 9" is not an old machine improved upon, but is an entirely new machine, and the Grand Prize at Paris was awarded it as the grandest advance in sewing machine mechanism of the age. Those who buy it can rest assured, therefore, of having the very latest and best.
