

Amendment Notes. Personal Liberty.

REV. J. D. M. BUCKNER. In the name of liberty and with the highest professions of devotion to the cause of freedom, the battle was fought by the South in the interest of, and for the purpose of making permanent the institution of human slavery.

So in the name of personal liberty an effort is now making to impose upon the people of this state a crime more terrible, a blight more damning, a bondage more ruinous than was ever human slavery in this or any other country.

Let me ask you, kind reader, why the whiskey associations, the saloon clubs are not called by their right names? They are organized only to protect the saloon and perpetuate the sale of liquors. Why call them "Personal Liberty" clubs, and the "Bankers and Business Men's Associations?" Why not call them by a name relevant to the cause they espouse? Why call them by names foreign to the purposes of the organization? First, to give respectability to the organizations by concealing the "black infamy" around which they rally.

Second, to misguide the attentions of the people and thus enlist their efforts in a bad cause.

Thirdly, to arouse patriotism and to alarm people about future prosperity. These last two interests mentioned lie very near the heart of every American citizen; and the whiskey men are trying to make people believe that they are working to protect and to perpetuate these two interests which are so near to all our hearts.

They would make it appear that the "Prohibition Club" the "Good Templar" and the W. C. T. U. are trying to rob men of their liberty and strip them of their wealth. So they organize a "Personal Liberty" club to thwart us in our design; to keep us from sinking this state into the valley of poverty and the abyss of bondage.

I want to enter a solemn protest against those insinuations. I love my country, my flag, my liberty as dearly and prize them as highly as any saloon keeper in Plattsmouth.

Our forefathers, of Revolutionary fame, fought, and bled and died that they might bequeath to their posterity the heritage of civil liberty and personal liberty.

Palsied be the hand and forever silent the tongue that would attempt to destroy, or even impair the boon of human freedom, purchased at such a cost of treasure and of blood.

In the name of human rights and under the emblazoned motto of human freedom, we defiantly unfurl our prohibition banner and declare it in harmony with American institutions.

The whiskey men do not think we are traitors to our country or blind to our best interests, and therefore we must be opposed and thwarted in our purposes. They know better than that.

But they must have a rallying standard; and the saloon, the mother of oppression, the father of tyranny, the absorber of wealth, the source of crime, the fountain of iniquity, the stream of sorrow and woe, yea, the embodiment of sin, will not do.

You can't awaken the sympathy and stir the hearts of the people to protect and foster such an institution.

Trade Judgments of Literature.

The truth is, our ideas of literature are steeped in the colors of our trades. Our interpretations of Shakespeare reflect our daily lives and callings. The merchant measures him as his cotton. The judge tries him in his courts of law. The orator of Mark Antony, for example, is to the clergyman only a funeral discourse over a departed member of his flock; the politician views it merely as a fine example of political artifice; the rhetorician delights in the richness of its figures; the logician scans its conclusion in the light of its premises; the historian notes it as marking an epoch in the annals of Rome, and the actor, not to say it profanely, beholds it as a rack on which to hang his effects of attitude and gesture. We thus read Shakespeare in the light of our vocations. We cannot get away from the mental habits of our trade or our profession. Much harder still is it to break away from the spirit of the age in which we live. Involuntarily we invest other ages with the customs of our own.—James E. Murdoch in Forum.

In our time the third finger is usually the one on which the engagement ring is placed, also the wedding ring, some belief possibly existing in the old superstition that a vein ran directly from this part of the left hand to the heart.

All the year round, you may rely upon Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify the blood and invigorate the system. It's not like the sarsaparillas, that are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May. The "Golden Medical Discovery" works equally well at all times, and in all cases of blood-taints, or humors, no matter what their name or nature.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, because you only pay for the good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you. Can you ask more?

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion.

It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

The "Discovery" cures all Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, as Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, White Swellings, Hip-joint disease and kindred ailments.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her Druggist suggested Dr. King's new discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this great discovery at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s Drug Store, large bottles 50c, and $1.

Happy Heesters. Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, harness merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who falls run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only one bottle at F. G. Fricke & Co's Drug Store.

A Ripe Old Age. J. H. Holcomb and wife, of Belcher-ville, Texas, have celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary, and are still hale and hearty. The secret of their long life and good health is they correct any slight ailment promptly, and in that way avoid serious sickness. Like most every one else, they are more frequently troubled with constipation than any other physical order. To correct this they take St. Patrick's Pills in preference to any other, because, as Mr. Holcomb says, "They are a mild pill and besides, keep the whole system in good order. We prize them very highly." For sale by F. G. Fricke.

Sheriff Sale. By virtue of an order of sale issued by W. C. Showalter, clerk of the district court within and for Cass county, Nebraska, and to me directed I will on the 13th day of October A. D. 1890 at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day at the south door of the court house in the city of Plattsmouth, Neb., sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following real estate to-wit: Lots two (2) three (3) and forty (40) in section thirteen (13) township twelve (12) north of range thirteen (13) east of the 6th principal meridian in Cass county, Nebraska, together with the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining. The same being levied upon and taken as the property of Caroline M. Dodge, Moses Dodge and C. H. Farnese, defendants; to satisfy a judgment of said court recovered by Assolimo B. Smith plaintiff, against said defendants. Plattsmouth, Neb., September 10, A. D. 1890. Beson & Root, Sheriff Cass Co., Neb Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Chattel Mortgage Sale. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a chattel mortgage dated on the 24th day of December 1889, and duly filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of Cass county, Nebraska on the 5th day of December, 1889, and executed by Skinner & Ritchie to the Citizens Bank, and by said bank assigned to W. H. Shafer, on the 11th day of December, 1889, and upon which there is now due the sum of $131.42, default having been made in the payment of said sum, therefore I will sell the property therein described, to-wit: All the furniture, books, papers and each and every thing owned by said Skinner & Ritchie and held in their possession in their office, at public auction in front of the post office in Plattsmouth, in Cass county, Nebraska, on the 11th day of October 1890 at one o'clock p. m. of said day. Dated September 10th 1890. W. H. SHAFER, assignee of mortgage. Beson & Root attorneys for Shafer.

You are required to answer said petition on or before October 20 1890. ELECTA DECKER. By Matthew Gering, Attorney.

READ And Then Buy A Home in South Park.

Do not be caught in the delusion of many thousands in postponing a home until they can have an expensive one. This idea is the devil's trap that catches men and women innumerable, who will never have any at all. The laborer may have, at the close of the day, to walk or ride farther than is desirable to reach it but when he gets to his destination in the eventide he will find something worthy of being called by that glorious and impassioned, and heaven descended word, "Home."

Young married man, as soon as you can buy such a place, even if you have to put on it a mortgage reaching from base to capstone. The much abused mortgage which is ruin to the reckless man, to one prudent and provident is the beginning of a competency and a fortune, for the reason he will not be satisfied until he has paid it off, and all the household are put on strictest economy until then. Deny yourself all superfluities and all luxuries until you can say: "Everything in this house is mine thank God!—every timber, every brick every foot of plumbing, every doorsill." Do not have children born in a bearding house, and do not yourself be buried from one. Have a place where your children can shout and sing and romp and not be overhauled for the racket. Have a kitchen where you can do something toward the reformation of evil cookery and the lessening of this nation of despectics. As Napoleon lost one of his great battles by an attacked of indigestion, so many men have such a daily wrestle with the food swallowed that they have no strength left for the battle of life; and though your wife may know how to play all musical instruments and rival a prima dona, she is not well educated unless she can boil an Irish potatoe and broil a mutton chop, since the die sometimes decides the fate of families and nations.

Have a setting room with at least one easy chair, even though you have to take turns at sitting in it, and books out of the public library, or of your own purchase for the making of your family intelligent, and checker boards and guessing matches, with an occasional blind man's bluff, which is of all games my favorite. Rouse up your homes with all styles of innocent amusement, and gather up in your children's lives a reservoir of exuberance that will pour down refreshing streams when life gets parched and the dark days come and the lights go out and the laughter is smothered into a sob.—T. De Witt Talmage.
