The business man in this city who goes to Council Bluffs or Omaha for his printing ought to be treated in the same manner. The HERALD has nothing to say against people buying dry goods in Omaha if dry goods merchants begin by going to Omaha themselves.

Robert H. Polk, the grand father of "ye local," made his fourteenth trip between Nebraska and eastern Indiana, on his return home yesterday, this would not be worthy of mention except that the old gentleman is past 90 years of age and travels alone with as much ease and comfort as any man in the state.

V. V. Leonard, the pioneer photographer of this city, has just received the finest line of pictures, in etchings, pastels, water colors, steel engravings, oleographs and oil paintings ever brought to this city. His stock of frames is singularly large and complete. A visit to his artistic rooms would well repay the time spent in looking over his many beautiful pictures and general supplies for the trade.

Robert Stewart came home yesterday morning from his sad trip to Osceola, Ia. He says that his friend W. A. Heron died before he got there and that in accordance with his request made just before he died the remains were sent to his old home in Ohio. Mrs. Heron was very low and but little hopes for her recovery were entertained. Mr. Heron left some real estate in California and about one thousand dollars in the bank there, together with a policy of $2000 on his life, payable to his wife. The lady is with her people near Osceola and will receive all the nursing and kind treatment that could be bestowed upon her, which may possibly result in her ultimate recovery.

The happy couple took the 5:45 train last evening for the west, Mr. Sharp having already prepared a pleasant home, where they will hereafter reside. The bride is a sister of Edward Barstow and carries the best wishes of his many friends to her new home. Mrs. C. A. Barstow mother of the bride accompanied her here from Chicago and was present at the wedding. She left for Topeka Kas., last evening where she stops a few days and then joins her daughter at Portland, Oregon.

Henry Cooper came in a few days ago from a three days' stay with a reunion of his old regiment at Des Moines. He also spent a day at Knoxville, his old home, and he looked five years younger for the trip. "Save who can?" was the frantic cry of Napoleon to his army at Waterloo. Save health and strength while you can, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is advice that applies to all both young and old. Don't wait until disease fastens on you; begin at once.

UNCLE "MCGINTY" of Eagle, we are told, has paid an assessment of $160 into the democratic campaign fund, and will not be shooed off the track. However if Brigadier Lemasters will double it, McGinty may be placated and coaxed off until next year for a county office that has a salary attached to it. Since the HERALD has been telling the public what was going on in the democratic camp, the Journal has the temerity to suggest that Lemasters is a strong man and intimates that if McGinty was out of the way Lemasters might be elected.

THIS is the proper time for the democratic calamitist to howl over the high taxes imposed upon the consumer by the new tariff measure, for after the law goes into effect and the consumer finds the protected article is as cheap as ever, the high tax will for political purposes will be heard in the land no more.

The turning point in woman's life brings peculiar weaknesses and ailments. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription brings relief and cure. It is a powerful, invigorating, restorative tonic and nerve. It imparts strength to the whole system in general, and to the uterine organs and appendages in particular. "Run-down," debilitated and delicate women need it. It's a legitimate medicine — purely vegetable, perfectly harmless. It's guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. Nothing else does as much. You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more? As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."
