I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the delinquent real estate tax list of Cass county, Nebraska, for the WM. H. CUSHING. County Treasurer.

THE PLAIN TRUTH.

"Wool and Textile Fabrics, a London trade journal, of the 14th instant, quotes of votes. It was a bad war cry to go the last wool sales at from 15 cents to 23 cents per pound for English wools. At 09 the same time Ohio wools were averaging 09 35c and Texas clips were ranging from 15 to 56c per pound in New York. At 8 fair estimate prices were about one third 09 higher here than there.

Is the lower rate at which the English farmer sells his wool compensated by a correspondingly lower price for the clothing which he buys? He can buy a suit here for $5; can he buy an equally good one in England for $3.99? Certainly not. He can buy a really good not. The plain truth is that England paignn closes. 14 wants cheap goods to make cheap labor. All her financiers insist that it is her cheap labor that gives her the lead in the 14 foreign trade. If the United States let 14 raw wool and iron in duty free it still 14 could not compete with England until American labor were reduced to the English standard of wages. And this is just 04 what the free traders deliberately con-04 template. They know that panic would follow 'radical reduction,' but they argue that it would de brief,, for the workmen would soon have to seek work 4 at any price, and then with cheap labor 14 and cheap raw material they would go in a wild goose chase after those 'markets of the world' of which they now 09 dream. But the home market would be 9 lessened. Retailers would find their best class of custom abridged. Carpets would be fewer, and pictures and piacos 06 unknown in the house of wage earners. 6 The artisan and mechanic would no longer be able to dress themselves and their wives as well as their employers. 03 There would soon be a class wearing a servile garb, and after that a servile habit would come. Free trade is not closely allied to free speech and free government, for it brings that poverty which says independance of character."

THOSE most conversant with the facts, predict an easy victory for Connell in this district. And by the time he is through with Bryan it will be clear even to a democrat, that Mr. Connell will be his own successor.

E. A. STOPHER will make Cass county as clear headed and faithful a representa tive as has ever honored the position.

THE campaign against the "school house" in Wisconsin, that Mr. Peck thought would be so funny, bids fair to smother the old man under an avalanche into the campaign on.

Taddeus S. Clarkson has been ap pointed by the president as post master at Omaha in the place of Con. Gallagher

A Long felt want has just been sup plied by the appearance of Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Volunteer a new paper edited by C. A. Robins and published at Lincoln. PREMIER BLAINE will speak in Mc

Kinley's district and in the two river districts of Iows, that of Gear and suit here for $15; can he buy its equiva- | Honderson. Maybe Nebraska will be lent in England for $10? Most surely | honored by his presence before the sam-

THE Senate adopted the report of the conference committee on the McKinley bill yesterday by a vote of 33 to 27, Messrs. Paddock and Pettigrew of Dakota and Plumb of Kansas being the only republicans opposing the measure.

THE Omaha World-Herald has gone daft on the prohibition question and comes out today with its head lines datad Oct. 1, 1893. If its prognostications on the dire results of prohibition are as wide of the mark as its political prophesies no harm need be feared from that source. The idea that Boyd could be elected governor at the same time prohibition carried, when his sele aim is to ride into office on the antiprohibition wave is ridiculous. Mr. Richards says truthfully that the republican party is not committed either for or against the amendment, that it is a question for the people to decide for themselves at the polls, and is not nor can it be at this time a party issue, the World-Herald to the contrary notwithstanding. Go dry your tears Mr. Hitchcock, Nebraska is all right, the republican party will control its destinies in the future as it so prosperously and successfully has done in the past.

Legal Motice
