FRED HERRMANN, - - - One Door East First National Bank.

Table with columns L, B, Tax and various numerical entries for different items.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the delinquent real estate tax list of Cass county, Nebraska, for the year 1889. Wm. H. CUSHING, County Treasurer.

THE PLAIN TRUTH. "Wool and Textile Fabrics, a London trade journal, of the 14th instant, quotes the last wool sales at from 15 cents to 23 cents per pound for English wools. At the same time Ohio wools were averaging 35c and Texas clips were ranging from 15 to 56c per pound in New York. At a fair estimate prices were about one third higher here than there.

THE OMAHA WORLD-HERALD has gone daft on the prohibition question and comes out today with its head lines dated Oct. 1, 1893. If its prognostications on the dire results of prohibition are as wide of the mark as its political prophesies no harm need be feared from that source. The idea that Boyd could be elected governor at the same time prohibition carried, when his sole aim is to ride into office on the antiprohibition wave is ridiculous. Mr. Richards says truthfully that the republican party is not committed either for or against the amendment, that it is a question for the people to decide for themselves at the polls, and is not nor can it be at this time a party issue, the World-Herald to the contrary notwithstanding. Go dry your tears Mr. Hitchcock, Nebraska is all right, the republican party will control its destinies in the future as it so prosperously and successfully has done in the past.
