Mr. Hayes the fireman injured in the wreck Tuesday is not feeling quite so well today.

We asked S. A. Davis what he thought of the election, he said he had absolutely refused to think of it.

M. B. Murphy says the republican party must not try to run the moon and stars and the planets, its too big a job.

Senator elect Thomas can well feel proud of his home vote and especially of his home alliance which voted solidly for him.

Will Cook has sold his barber shop in the Hotel Riley to R. Bilstein who will place it in charge of his son-in-law, Lloyd Wilson. Mr. Cook will still remain in the shop.

The regular meeting of the Do-With-out band will be tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. S. Greene, corner Gold and 9th street. All members are requested to be present, and all interested in home and foreign missionary work are cordially invited to attend.

Master Dick Waugh is quite a lead pencil artist. His picture of Richards enveloped in the soup tureen, with the McKinley bill at one side with the words "the McKinley bill did it," fairly paralyses the democratic crowds with laughter, in front of Dovey's window where it is on exhibition.

Died.

Dr. William Winterstein at 5:50 p. m. Wednesday Nov. 5th 1890, of Malarial fever.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, Friday Nov. 7th at 2 p. m. under the auspices of the masonic fraternity.

Dr. William Winterstein was born in Lexington, Richland county Ohio, January 31, 1824. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Miller, at Lockport Ohio.

Dr. Winterstein opened an office at Lockport where he practiced medicine. In 1858 he removed to Marietta, Iowa, where he established an enviable reputation as a physician. In 1865 he came to Plattsmouth. He purchased property here and up to the time of his death devoted himself to looking after his monetary interests having entirely given up the labors of a practicing physician. Dr. Winterstein was well liked and had a host of friends who mourn his loss which to the public came without a moments warning. He was a good noble hearted man and his genial presence will be greatly missed in this city. A wife and one daughter Mrs Frank Gayles, are the immediate members of the family called upon to mourn the demise of a kind father and devoted husband.

Our Karl.

By laughable fun, lively songs and pretty choruses, "Fatherland" keeps up its fame and high character with the people, and besides filling the theatres everywhere with smiling faces, it fills the treasury of its jolly star, Charles A. Gardner, and able manager, Sidney R. Ellis, with current money.

Karl Gardner will amuse our people at the opera house next Saturday night. Prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Remember you can enjoy both the performance and the new opera chairs all for only 75 cents. This is the first production of Mr. Gardner's new play, "Fatherland," in our city and should be greeted by a full house.

District Court.

Judge Field held court this morning and made two very important decisions on motions for new trial argued last week. He held that a new trial should be had in the case of the State vs. Albert Bauer and also in the case of Baier vs. the M. P. Motions for new trial are being argued this afternoon in Lang vs. Webster, Beeson vs. Omaha Southern and Blake vs. the city of Plattsmouth.

Accidental Shooting.

Hiram Shelton a 17-year old boy residing south of town, while out hunting the fore part of the week, met the two little boys of Godfrey Fickler, and, in fooling some way with the gun it was accidentally discharged, striking Bertie Fickler on the hand, tearing away the thumb. Drs. Abbott and Reynolds dressed the wounded member and the boy is getting along first rate, but it was a close call.

O. A. Hirsch has the reputation of being a hustler and also has the finest barber shop in the city. Go and see his fine line of flowers that he has added to his barber shop.

Election Echos.

A. L. Despain says its glorious.

Fred Gorder says he feels proud of the great victory.

Jim Johns says the election was not any too unanimous for him.

Jim Woodson says it beats h—; he never expected such a victory.

Mathew Gering says, I like it, it makes Cleveland the greatest American.

D. O. Dwyer remarked that in his estimation it was a just prevalence of truth.

Frank Davis says, "Let 'em have it, it will only last two years and we can stand it."

George Weidman complained that his legs were too short, he could not get up in the air where he felt like he ought to be.

Justice Archer is overwhelmed with what he calls good news, he thought he might have to go to Canada to recuperate.

Joe Fairfield, says we ought to have a few more states, so the democrats could carry them and have a victory worth talking about.

Tom Walling, sometimes know as "Dwyer's Mascot," said he had not heard of an election, he thought it was a sort of democratic ratification meeting that was held last Tuesday, as the republicans weren't in it.

Col. Joseph A. Connor studied several minutes at the depot this morning whether he would order out a special or take the regular train for Omaha. He finally concluded at a great sacrifice of personal feelings to ride in a common coach on the regular train.
