

"Blud."

The Journal man must have dieted on raw liver yesterday, with a few draughts of fresh blood. He carries the mayor,—jumps onto and condemns the police, making some serious charges against them and then winds up by an appeal to arms and a demand that J. E. Boyd be seated as governor by force, if it is not done peaceably. We trust the Journal man will not deluge the state with gore, especially in the absence of the state militia, as there is no telling where the trouble would end in a sanguinary battle between the alliance, armed with pitchforks and spears, confronted by the sons of democracy, in battle array, armed with plug hats, cigars and a large display of mouth. In the battle it is more than likely that the democracy would be wiped from the face of the earth, we, therefore, in the interests of humanity, beseech and plead with our contemporary not to go upon the war path, but to counsel peace and harmony.

W. R. C. Officers.

Officers of the McConchie W. R. C. No. 50, for the year, installed Saturday evening, Jan. 3rd, at G. A. R. Hall by Judge Chapman:

Mrs. Emily Dickson, Pres.
 Mrs. Artie Morrow, S. V. P.
 Mrs. Maggie Leach, J. V. P.
 Mrs. Sarah McElwain, Sec.
 Mrs. Emma Tiffany, Treas.
 Mrs. Augusta Bates, Chap.
 Mrs. Sarah Corrigan, Con.
 Mrs. Mary Kurtz, Guard.
 Mrs. Eliza McCroskey, A. C.
 Mrs. Maggie Melvin, A. G.

Odd Fellows Installed.

Last night Cass Lodge No. 146, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, installed their officers. The following persons were the lucky ones: T. E. Williams, N. G.; John Cey, V. G.; J. W. Bridge, Sec.; Bird Critchfield, P. Sec.; C. J. Petersen, Treas. L. G. Larson was the installing officer, our Deputy Grand Master.

Murdock

Is another new Cass County town located on the old Mullen ranch section on the Rock Island road six miles from South Bend, seven miles from Elmwood and eight miles from Kenwood. This will be the German town of the county. Many wealthy German farmers have bought lots and are improving them with good residences and store buildings. Murdock will make a live town.

The City

Has been in need of a first class lunch and oyster parlor, which is now supplied by Mr. J. E. Morgan opposite the opera house, where you will find a choice line of confectionery and cigars. d4t

Kenwood

Is the latest addition to Cass county's list of prosperous villages. It is situated on the Rock Island railroad in Greenwood precinct, six miles and a half from Elmwood and five miles from Eagle.

Murphy Brothers are the lumber merchants and do a good business.

J. M. Cashney is the post master for the new town, and is the right man for the place.

Two large grain elevators are being erected; one by Counselman, of Chicago, and the other by Murty Brothers.

A. M. Clemmons is the proprietor of a first class livery barn, and a Mr. Ryan, of Custer county, operates the only eating house in the town.

Five nice new cottages have been erected and several more are to follow in the spring.

The outlook for a prosperous town, having an excellent farming settlement around it, is certainly flattering.

Militia Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Plattsmouth guards at the council chamber, to night. Important matters must be attended to, as it is almost certain the governor will call on us within the next three days to move to the front, unless hostilities cease.

Shooting Match.

Quite a crowd went down to John Holmes this morning to attend the shooting match which takes place there today. George Sayles and Henry Inhelder of Cedar Creek were among the crowd of sports that were in attendance. The shooting will be at black birds, as they are called, which is a sort of clay and pitch saucer shaped article, thrown from a trap. It takes a good shot to hit the birds, but there are plenty of our fellows that are able to make very creditable scores.

The only place in the city where a first class lunch can be obtained at any time, or the best of oysters in any style is at J. E. Morgan's, opposite the opera house at Antill's old stand. d4t

THEY SUE FOR PEACE

The Pine Ridge Band Anxious to Come in, but They Want the Best of the Bargain.

Immediate Surrender the Only Alternative Left Them and Full Compliance Probable.

The War Spirit Takes Flight.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb., Jan. 6.—[Special.]—Yesterday afternoon young Jack Red Cloud, Big Road, High Horse, Little Hawk, Lone Bear and five others came in to treat for peace in behalf of the Pine Ridge Agency Indians. They sought General Miles and held a short council, more brief and emphatic, doubtless, than they had anticipated. General Miles ordered them to come and surrender at once. That he would listen to none of their complaints; that after the affair was arranged here they could go to Washington and make their complaints to the proper authorities. They wished him to withdraw the troops from here and those surrounding them, which the general refused to do.

The red men were of course disappointed that they could not make terms of peace, but General Miles plainly let them understand that he was the person in the position to make the terms of peace. They then asked for the usual delay of time, saying they had twenty-six wounded persons and that they could not be safely moved at present, further asking that the troops be not sent out against them. Miles replied saying they had better come in soon. He would make no promise as to the non movement of the troops.

The reason for delay appears somewhat ludicrous when it is remembered that they are only distant from ten to twelve miles. They were asked to bring in the wounded and they would receive the best of medical attendance.

These Indians will hold another brief talk to lay with General Miles and then return to their friends. They report all Pine Ridge Indians want peace, but it is doubtful if they can persuade the others, as they have always wished for war, and want to fight now. If the Pine Ridge Indians do return this will reduce the hostile force to about 2,000 all told. This force the troops can easily conquer if they persist in their determination for war. The Pine Ridge Agency Indians will doubtless return to this place in a day or two.

Another Engagement.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Jan. 6.—A special from the camp near Wounded Knee creek gives particulars of another engagement which took place at that point yesterday morning. A detachment of thirty men was sent out to meet a wagon train with supplies for the camp and when ten miles out the wagons were found besieged by a band of 100 Indians. The Indians attacked the detachment. A courier was sent back to the camp for reinforcements but in the meantime an incessant fire was kept up on both sides, resulting in the wounding of one soldier and the killing and wounding of several Indians, the exact number could not be ascertained. About three hours after the courier's departure troops came to the rescue and the wagon train was escorted to camp.

Rosebud Strongly Guarded.

ROSEBUD AGENCY, S. D., (via Valentine, Neb.), Jan. 6.—Last night Colonel Poland had the hills strongly guarded. In case any attack should be made he will not be caught napping. Only six companies of infantry remain for the defense of the agency. In case Two Strike moves this way the agency can be held for some time, but nothing further could be done with the force here. Nothing has been heard from the cavalry that left for Pine Ridge Monday night. Charles Tackett, the most intelligent and best informed mixed blood at Rosebud, acted as guide.

All is quiet now. The friendly Indians were slightly excited over the Big Foot fight but are still quiet and orderly. Agent Wright feels confident that no one will leave to join Two Strike. All who wanted to go left long ago.

Gen. Miles' Favorable View.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—General Schofield received the following telegram from General Miles, dated Pine Ridge, S. D., January 5:

In answer to a communication I sent to the hostile camp yesterday saying five men could come in and learn what I expected them to do, the following came in: Big Road, He Dog, Little Hawk, Jack Red Cloud and Big Hawk. The prospects at present are favorable. The whole camp may surrender, but I do not wish to anticipate. There are no changes in the condition of the troops.

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.

The Body of Private Chette, Horribly Mutilated, Brought In.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., (via Rushville, Neb.), Jan. 6.—[Special.]—That the search for the dead was not conclusive was proven today, when an Indian brought into the agency the body of Private Francis Chette, of troop C, Seventy cavalry. The body was found in a ravine six miles from the battlefield to the north. The unfortunate soldier had been mutilated in a horrible manner. Every bone in the body was broken and the scalp removed. Chette was probably killed in one of the skirmishes and overlooked. He was buried today with military honors in the reservation cemetery.

Sixty-five squaws, with about the same number of papooses, came in from the hostile camp, about six miles away, today, and are being taken care of. There is great suffering among the hostiles on account of scarcity of food or shelter. No movement of troops is projected. It is stated that General Forsythe is to be reinstated till the close of the campaign.

Saved by the Ninth.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 6.—[Special to the Bee.]—The Seventh cavalry freely admit that the Ninth cavalry, under Colonel Henry, saved them from heavy losses, if not more, the day they went to the mission. They had been drawn into a trap by the Indians, and on attempting to withdraw the Indians closed around them, and they could not have got out except by heavy losses. The Ninth, though having marched nearly ninety miles, dashed to the front, and occupying the ridges, opened fire with carbine and Hotchkiss and drove the Indians back and out of the ravines in which they were hidden.

Legislative Proceedings.

At 12:07 Secretary of State Cowdry called the house of representatives to order. S. M. Elder of Clay county was nominated by the alliance; F. E. White of Cass was presented by the democrats, and J. O. Cram of Jefferson was named by the republicans for temporary speaker. On a call of the roll the vote stood, Elder, 53; White, 23; Cram, 21; Elder himself voted for Cram. Frank White voted for Wm. A. Gardiner. Cram did not vote. Mr. Elder was declared elected temporary speaker and Messrs. White and Cram were appointed to escort the one armed temporary speaker to the chair.

For chief clerk the independents named Eric Johnson of Phelps. The republicans named John E. Raper of Hall. The democrats made no nomination and sat silent while the vote was being taken which resulted in 55 votes for Johnson and 21 for Raper. A committee was then appointed on credentials, consisting of three independents, one republican and one democrat. Church Howe looked up nervously from his seat behind Watson, who sat in the middle aisle in front of the speaker, as he noticed that the alliance could bounce him on the Nemaha county affidavits that had been filed, if they so desired, but he rested easy when the report a few minutes later, seated every member without a contest.

Johnson, the chief clerk, is one of the rankest prohibitionists to be found anywhere, and will be looked upon by the Omaha contingent as a villain, that "darkest Africa" could not match. At three o'clock the above temporary organization was made permanent. Justice Maxwell administered the oath to both the senate and house. The independents elected every officer as follows: First assistant clerk, W. C. Holden, of Kearney, second assistant clerk, A. H. Bigelow, for sergeant at arms, Noah Misler, of Hitchcock county; Geo. W. Burke, of Red Willow county, was made doorkeeper; J. E. Hoover, of York, was made enrolling clerk, and Mrs. Jennie Holland, of Adams county, was elected to the position of chief engrossing clerk.

In the senate everything passed off smoothly and quietly. Senator Stevens of Lincoln county was the alliance bell weather; he made all the motions and seemed to run the machine. They elected alliance men clear through, the same as in the house. W. A. Poynter, of Boone, is president pro tempore, of the senate. C. H. Pirtle is chief clerk, H. A. Edwards, first assistant, E. E. Carter, second assistant, and E. M. McCall, clerk of committee of the whole.

Mr. C. K. Derley was elected sergeant at arms.

Eugene Ludden was elected first assistant and Swigart second assistant.

For chaplain Rev. A. O. Gearhart and Rev. Boale were nominated and Mr. Gearhart elected.

J. C. Stanley was elected doorkeeper Daniel Sethon was elected enrolling clerk.

Isaac Enthorn was elected postmaster C. S. Brainard was elected engrossing clerk.

H. E. Drake custodian of the cloak room.

Senator Stevens moved that the president pro tem appoint the balance of the officers. Senator Switzer raised the point of order that the statutes provided that the officers should be elected by the senate and the point was sustained.

The senate reconvened at 5 p. m. with all present except Schram of Butler, and Seward.

Stevens, of Lincoln, introduced a resolution, asking that the secretary of state administer the oath of office to the officers elect. Keifer, of Pierce, moved to amend by striking out the second assistant sergeant at arms. He called attention to the demand for retrenchment made by the independents, and said that the last session, which was noted for extravagance, had no second assistant sergeant at arms. A spirited debate followed, the independents opposing the amendment on the ground that it was better to give a western sufferer a situation and let him earn his living, than it was to make an appropriation for him. The amendment was not agreed to.

Stevens of Lincoln moved that a committee of seven be selected to name standing committees, and gave a list of seven independents to constitute the committee. Keifer of Pierce moved to amend by adding the names of three of other political faith, and the amended motion was carried.

A committee of five to make senate rules will be appointed by the president.

The secretary of state here appeared and administered the oath of office.

Stevens named five independents and moved they constitute a committee to decide the number of employes of the senate.

Switzer of Douglas moved to amend by adding the names of two democrats and the amendment was accepted by Stevens.

Moore of Lancaster moved to amend by adding names of two republicans, but the independents voted the amendment down. The original motion was then adopted.

Skipped.

Frank Raymond, who has been in the employ of R. O. Atherton, of the Singer sewing machine agency, started out a few days ago with four machines, a chest of tools and quite a quantity of attachments. It seems he disposed of the machines and at Union took the train for the east, leaving the team at the livery stable. Mr. Atherton received his first notice of the agents dishonesty today, when the livery man from Union brought home the team.

Mortuary.

James Grace received sad news today by telegraph announcing the sudden death at Adair, Iowa, of his brother, Michael Grace. No particulars were given. The deceased was sixty years of age and leaves a widow and eight children. James Grace left this evening on the flyer to attend the funeral.

Melvin Lamphear today received a permit to wed Miss Lottie Osborne of this city.

The P. E. O. society will meet at their rooms over Weckbach's store Friday afternoon at half past two.

By order of the President.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its first meeting of the new year at Mrs. B. Spurlock's on the corner of Eighth and Pearl streets, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Let all members be in attendance.

D. McHugh, one of the B. & M. blacksmiths, has quit the company and will erect a shop somewhere in town. Mr. McHugh is a good smith and a genial fellow, whose desire to locate permanently among us, we note with pleasure.

Mr. Boyd showed a superlative degree of freshness when he registered at the hotel in Lincoln yesterday as being a resident of Lincoln. Bluffs don't go, and it will be time enough to move to Lincoln after he becomes governor.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil has been sold. It will be reduced to a four page paper, and weakened in every department in proportion. It is hard to tell what is the matter with Council Bluffs. When a town stops supporting its own newspaper it might as well go into liquidation. No wonder the Iowa roads want to move their western terminals out of the town.—State Journal.
