The Mugwump Tariff Girl. I talked of things of interest, The facts of every day--Of fashian, church, the newest song, The opera, the pluy.

With languid interest she heard-I marvelled much until She stopped me in my talk to ask. "Had I read the Tariff bill?"

I said that Cermencita danced Like aspen on the wind ; She asked me what the duty was On plush-cloaks, satin-lined.

I spoke thea of MacQueary's book, And was he orthodox? She said it was a shame to charge Such tax on wooten socks.

I praised the coloring she had made, The cichings the had drawn. She urged the tax on frames, and sighed Beneath her bosom's lawa.

I eyed the swaying chandellers, She caught my roving eye, And whispered, "Were the tariff low The glass combine would die."

The floor of marble she explained. Sweetly, as was her wont, Was, axed to ald a man who owned A quarry in Vermont.

In leaving, s mething on the stoop Impeded my descent ; She said it was an English rvg. Taxed eighty-five per cent. -(J. D. Miller in Boston Transcript.

The Two Johns.

The success of J. C. Stewart's productions, and especially the "Two Johns," is evidence of the fact that the people who go to theatres go there to laugh and be made happy. They want things that will please them and not send them home feeling sad, ""The Two Johns" being a roaring musical farce comedy, it causes hearty, innocent laughter from begin the said 19th day of September, 189

County Court. The case of Anna E. White vs. the Builington Voluntary Relief Department, ecently decided by Judge Ramsey, is one of more than ordinary interest. Matthew Gering appeared for the plaintiff and Byron Clark Esq. for defendant, This was an action to recover of defendant $1,000 for insurance on the life of Langdon P. White, husband of plaintiff, who died September 20th, 1890. D ceased was a locomotive engineer in the employ of the C. B & Q R. R. Company, and on July 21, 1890, gave an application for life insurance and insurance against death by accident in the sum of $1,000, to one S. A. Redway, who was general solicitor of defendant for insurance risks. The name, age, occupation, place of residence and class as graded by monthly wages received, were taken of deceased on said day by said Redway, and duly carried on the books of the defendant. On payment for the month of July, 1890, $4.10 was deducted from the pay roll of deceased as and for premium to apply on the insurance of $1,000. This $4.10 was deducted from deceased's monthly wages for July, 1890, about the 8th of August, 1890. Rule 49, of defendants' rules of regulations requires all applicants for life insurance other than death by accident to undergo a satisfactory medical examination.

Deceased was taken sick on July 22, 1890-was able to be around for a few days thereafter, but finally was confined to his bed and died on September, 20th, 1890, of typhoid pneumonia.

On August 7, 1890, Mr. J. E. Barwick, an officer of defendant, notified Mr. J. C. Bartlett, of Chicago, general superintendent of defendant that deceased, at that time was sick. On September 19, 1890, forty three days after date of the notice from Mr. Burwick notified Mr. D. Hawksworth, superintendent of motive power at Plattsmouth, that deceased was not a member of relief fund, never having been examined by defendant's medical examiner, and therefore not entitled to the sick benefit under a policy of insurance. And e ning to end. There is so much rollick- about forty-two days after the $4.10 w deducted from discased's pay for Ju-1890, as for premium on the $1,000. i surance, Mr. Bartlett, general superis tendent of defendent, by letter of th late to Mr. Hawkesworth, directed t return of said money to deceased. Th raturn of the $4.10 was made on Septer ber 20, 1890, in the form of a check f that sum, which plaintiff and her hu band refused to accept. This check w undered a few hours before the death plaintiff's husband. The court fin from all evidence: 1. Timt entering the name of plai tiff's husband on the books of defer dant, pursuant to the application take with perfect safety. Try the remedy, by S. A. Robert Shubert, the man who burglarized Herman Kleutrch's saloon some · time ago and whom Kleutsch failed to appear against, is again in trouble. Last night he entered the residence of Herman Findar and made away with his pocket book, containing $15 in gold and a small amount of silver. Shubert was arrested and locked up, but this afternoon confessed, and the money was found in s jug, and he had thrown the pocket book away. Judge Archer sentenced | millinery a specialty. The readers of the HERALD will remember of reading an account not long an exchange:

"Ernest Rottmann of Palmyra seems to be in trouble all the time. A few months ago he was arrested at Palmyra, charged with committing rape upon a farmer's daughter living near Palmyra. He was acquitted, and the girl committed suicide. It was made so warm for | in the absence of any fraud on the pa him that he left Palmyrs, returning in a of deceased or his beneficiaries, without few weeks, only to be arrested charged the medical examination required by ru with selling liquor without a license. 49 of defendants rules of regulation He got out of this scrape and found a dozen or more similar charges against him. Then he went to Cortland. As soon as he got to the town he was slapped into the county jail on the charge of cohabiting with a certain widow of that place. He was fined and went back to Palmyrs. In a day or two an officer from Cortland arrived and took Rottmas back on the charge of carrying con-for the next engagement." A new idea embraced in Ely's Creara insurance.

Balm. Catarrh is cured by cleansing and healing, not by drying up. It is not a liquid or snuff, but is easily applied into the nostrils. Its effect is magical and a thorough treatment will cure the worst cases. Price 50c.
