

A Red-hot Debate.

From Thursday's Daily.
Reverend N. M. Allen, the Baptist minister at Union, has tackled Mormonism, and will have a debate with Rev. Bronson, of Council Bluffs, an apostle of the latter day saints. The leading proposition to be discussed, is Resolved, That Joseph Smith is the true prophet of God. Reverend Bronson of course takes the affirmative, but if he can pump any of that my-tionous finding of the "book" into his Cass county audience, as an inspiration, and show that the whole thing was not a ridiculous cock and bull story, calculated to deceive the people; he will surprise us very much. His mythical stories may be swallowed at Council Bluffs, but they will not go over here. The discussion is to take place in three weeks at Union.

Wedded in New York.

Lincoln Call.
It has been an open secret among his friends that Mr. Charles Mayer, of the clothing firm of Mayer Bros., was contemplating matrimony, hence it occasioned no surprise last evening when his brothers received a telegram announcing his marriage.

The young lady whom Mr. Mayer led to the altar was Miss Estelle Negbauer, a handsome and cultured young lady of New York City. The ceremony was performed in Vienna hall in that city in the presence of a large assembly of invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayer departed from New York today for Philadelphia, Washington and a tour of the south, where they will spend a month in sight-seeing and return to New York, thence to their future home in Lincoln about April 1st.

In honor of the marriage of one of the firm Mayer Bros. last evening tendered the employees a banquet at Brown's, and a feast especially prepared greeted their arrival and it was discussed with a relish.

A Pleasant Surprise

The meetings of the convention of the W. R. C. are many times attended by the most pleasant happenings.

At the eighth annual convention of the W. R. C. Mrs. Manchester, the past national senior vice president was the recipient Wednesday afternoon of a beautiful present from McConihie corps No. 50 and same was presented to her in appropriate words by Sister McKinzy of corps No. 50 in the banquet room of the adjoining department convention hall. The present described will here be not amiss.

It is the photograph of members of the corps most artistically grouped by artist W. J. Koen of our city, and same is very handsomely framed. This will be prized by the recipient, and given a prominent place among the many souvenirs that grace the walls of old corner niche in her pleasant home at Lincoln.

War on the Missouri.

The members of the Women's Relief Corps have been having a stormy session today at Rockwood Hall. It seems that two years ago the corps at Junia accepted for membership a lady who was neither daughter, wife or widow of a soldier, contrary to the provisions of the statutes in such cases made and provided and that the charter of that corps was taken from it. Another administration came in and the charter was returned, which action seems to have been upheld by the present state administration. Now comes Mrs. McHenry, president of the National W. R. C., and in the name of the constitution of the order demands the state charter, which she holds has been forfeited by the action of our Nebraska members. "Does the fur fly?" I guess yes. The Nebraska ladies who are loyal to the present management of affairs, denounce the usurpations of the National president in vigorous terms, while Mrs. McHenry and her friends talk constitution and endeavor to make out that they are working solely for the good of the order. No one can tell yet what the outcome will be, but bad feelings are being engendered which does not bode any good for the order.

License to wed issued to Mr. Stephen A. Wiles and Miss Anna Spangler, both of Plattsmouth.
License to wed issued to Mr. Henry Letton and Miss Nancy Stephens.
Petition filed for appointment of Samuel McClintic guardian of Mrs. Mary Holton, insane.
Last will and testament of Bernard J. Ruhge filed for probate.
Christ Wohlfarth vs C. H. Smith. Settled and dismissed.
Mayer Bros Drug Co. vs Plattsmouth Lamp Manufacturing Co. Continued by consent.
Miss Nettie Ballance was engaged yesterday as short hand reporter in county court.

The county treasurer today received letter from Yokohama, Japan, in which gentleman enquires about the amount of his taxes on some property which he owns in this city. His name is Wm. J. Tetam.

Sulphureous.

Colonel Mayfield Jr., is a son of the old man but he seems to have a worse attack of county seat rabies, than his father. We hope the young man will recover from the malady though his symptoms are sufficient to alarm his friends. Here is a sample of his poetry which has a sort of brimstone odor that is easily detected between the lines:
Yes, by — there's a B. Todd
Who'd vote for the tea and bread for bill.
An' never raise no row.
An' A. C. Ledyer thes big exploder.
The Es. of am. in. in. in.
Who'd vote for the tea and bread for bill.
To keep am. in. in. in. in. in.
An' Jas. H. Tietch, he foreign breach
Who'd vote for the tea and bread for bill.
An' a sains do right but tea's some night
He'd decorate a tree.

In other words Mr. Tietch has been intimidated. Oh Albert, soak your careworn brow, you ought to know better. The commissioners having a care for their oath could not have decided that election petition any different from what they did.

Die.

At one o'clock today, Mr. Nelson Pierson, at the age of 61 years. Mr. Pierson was an old citizen of this city. The deceased leaves a widow and four children all grown, three boys Nelson, Henry and Albert, and one daughter, Mrs. C. A. Prutz. The funeral will take place Saturday at two o'clock from the late residence, at the corner of Rock and Tenth streets. Friends of the family are invited.

The G. A. R. Encampment.

The session yesterday afternoon in the opera house was well attended and enthusiastic. The regular election of officers took place, which passed off pleasantly, resulting in the choice of the following gentlemen to act as officers of the department for the ensuing year:
Commander, Colonel Joseph Teeter, of Lincoln.
S. V. Commander, Jesse Thompson, of Fairbury.
J. V. Commander, Joel Hall, of Minden.

Medical Director, W. H. Johnson, of Gering.
Chaplain, P. E. Johnson, of Friend.

The following council of administration was elected:
J. S. Dew, of Tecumseh,
A. D. Davis, of Table Rock,
C. P. Dick, of North Platte,
J. W. Lafferty, of Wisner,
Brad P. Cook, of Lincoln.

Senator J. N. Kantz was elected a delegate at large to the National encampment to be held in Detroit.

The following were also elected from their several districts as delegates:
J. A. Ehart, of Stanton,
O. H. Phillips, of Beatrice,
A. H. Bowen, of Hastings,
H. S. Benson, of Omaha,
Ben Smith, of Juniata,
J. H. Culver, of Milford,
C. E. Burmeister, of Omaha,
W. B. Robey.

Two hundred and thirty-four votes were cast, and on the evening trains over a hundred additional delegates arrived in time to settle the next encampment at Columbus.

The date for holding the next state reunion was fixed for the last day of August and the first four days of September. The place for the reunion (Hastings) having been fixed at a former meeting.

The utmost good feeling prevailed, all the old veterans seeming determined to have an enjoyable time.

TODAY'S SESSION.

The day has been largely spent at the G. A. R. meetings, in listening to addresses and stories of exploits during the war, there being nothing to do until the W. R. C. elects officers.

Tonight a joint installation of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. officers will be held at the opera house, providing the ladies succeed in holding an election today.

FRIDAY.

The G. A. R. Boys.

Had a pleasant time at their installation yesterday afternoon, and took occasion to pass resolutions of thanks to the citizens of Plattsmouth for the complete and satisfactory arrangements which had been made by our people for their convenience and comfort.

The following resolution, offered by J. H. Culver, was also adopted.
Resolved, That the thanks of this encampment are due and are hereby extended to McConihie Post No. 45, for the most appropriate badge ever presented to our department, and to Mrs. E. E. Hilton whose artistic talent is so beautifully portrayed in its embellishment.

The new department commander Joseph Teeter of Lincoln, appointed J. W. Bowen, of Lincoln, assistant adjutant general and H. J. Straight, of Plattsmouth, adjutant quartermaster general.

The campfire in the evening at the opera house was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed until a late hour. Some very able speeches were made and funny stories related.

George Beck's sale of personal property the first of the week was attended by nearly a thousand people, and property to the amount of $3,500 was disposed of at fair prices.

The Latest

"Mary had a little lamb,
His whiskers were snow white,
And if M. r. y. strolled with- at him,
There was sure to be a fight
He followed her to school one day,
Which certainly was rude;
As the j. n. t. o. r. k. e. d. his lambship out,
An' killed a possib' d. u. d. e."

A man by the name of Turner, residing near Elmwood, sold three pursers last week that averaged 595 pounds each. Who can beat it?

Another snowfall today; the agriculturist ought to be happy as no one else appears to be able to extract any comfort from the chilly fall except it be the small boy with the sled.

Kearney and Phelps are the names of two western Nebraska counties that have had the honor to say they do not want any assistance and are amply able to care for their own poor. Crops have been as short in these two counties as in many that are asking for a $200,000 appropriation. They are made of different metal out in Kearney and Phelps counties.

A Neat Address.

From Friday's Daily.
The following address was presented by a committee of the Women's Relief Corps and read to the department by Mrs. Holmes: "To the fourteenth annual encampment of the Nebraska Grand Army of the Republic—The eighth annual convention of the Women's Relief Corps of Nebraska, representing 118 corps with a membership of 3,078, send greetings to this encampment and renew their allegiance to the Grand Army of the Republic. For the year ending October 1, 1890, they have expended $2,688.47 in local charity; estimated value of relief other than money, $1,264.62. They have visited the sick, cared for the destitute, provided homes for the widows and orphans of the Union's defenders and extended medical assistance whenever called upon. The Women's Relief Corps asks that the Grand Army encampment communicate to them their requests in whatever department of work, in which loyal hearts and willing hands may be needed, and assure them that the work will be promptly and cheerfully done. Respectfully submitted.

JENNIE T. HOLMES,

"SUSIE P. COLE,
"AMANDA B. TISDEL, Committee."

The W. R. C. Encampment.
The ladies in attendance at the W. R. C. Encampment got their difficulties, which we mentioned yesterday, amicably settled during the afternoon and proceeded to the election of officers, which resulted in the promotion of the following members:

President, Mrs. Amanda Tisdal, of Kearney; senior vice president, Mrs. Kate McMaken, of Plattsmouth; junior vice president, Mrs. Isabella Fuller, of Pawnee City. Mrs. Gertrude H. Connell, of Grand Island, was re-elected treasurer. Chaplain, Mrs. Billings, of Geneva. Delegates to the national convention: Ellen G. Barber of Fullerton, Mary L. Carter of Madison, Julia S. Bowen of Hastings, Anna Hunter of Nebraska City, Helen A. Appleget of Tecumseh. Alternates: Mrs. Laura N. Bates of Aurora, Mrs. D. Woodard of Weeping Water, Anna Ashbrook of Geneva, Alice Dilworth of Hastings, and Mrs. M. E. West of Omaha. Executive committee: Mrs. E. Pillsbury, chairman; and Mrs. N. Kate Brown of Tecumseh, Mrs. Cooper of Omaha, Mrs. Allen of Madison, and Mrs. Benshaw of Lincoln were members.

The installations took place yesterday afternoon separately and were only attended by the members of each department.

A grand campfire was held at the opera house last night to which the doors were thrown open to the public, but owing to officious smartness of local members the newspapers were led to believe that the meeting was to have been a secret one. Most of the delegates left for home, a few however remaining to finish up the business of the session, which is said to have been a very satisfactory one.

A new departure for Cass county publications is the employment of a circulation liar by THE PLATTSMOUTH HERALD. Mr. Knotts can not pass your competitors by lying any more than you can St. Peter later on. The Republican has for six years had the largest circulation of any paper printed in the county but we have made no blow about it. Now we are willing to count subscribers with the windy organ on the corner, at any time. We will allow them to use both their daily and weekly lists, but will draw the line when they attempt to use the register of a county seat election. THE HERALD has one subscriber in Center precinct, we have him counted.—W. W. Republican.

Send you man over Mr. Keithly, if we haven't got double your circulation in the state of Nebraska we will pay all expenses. We don't mean sample copies, we mean paid up subscribers. Windy bluffs don't go. Send over your expert or acknowledge the corn.

Quartermaster General Straight should be saluted before you ask for your mail hereafter.

Charles P. King of Fillmore County, a member of Judge Chapman's company of Iowa soldiers, was a guest of the Judge last night.

Col. John A. MacMurphy of Omaha, having been an attendant at the encampment, gave the HERALD a pleasant call this morning.

The petitions that are now in circulation for the county seat removal are being signed in ink and every column is written out in full—no dittos this time—and persons circulating the petition swear to all names that are put down.—W. W. Republican.

The rabbit crop has been almost ruined by the ruthless cotton tail slayer, Deacon Tom Mages. He deserted his post in the HERALD composing rooms today and has been slaughtering in every direction. Anybody wanting a rabbit foot for luck can be accommodated by calling on the venerable deacon after today.
