CHILDREN

Are always liable to sudden and severe colds, to croup, sore throat, lung fever, etc. Remedies, to be effective, must be administered without delay. Nothing is better adapted for such emergencies than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes the inflamed membrane, promotes expectoration, relieves coughing, and induces sleep. The prompt use of this medicine has saved innumerable lives, both of young and old,

"One of my children had croup. The case was attended by our physician, and was supposed to be well under control. One night I was startled by the child's hard breathing, and on going to it found it

Strangling.

It had nearly ceased to breathe. Realizing that the child's alarming condition had become possible in spite of the medicine it had taken, I reasoned that such remedies would be of no avail. Having a part of a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three doses, at short intervals, and anxiously waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given, the child's breathing grew easier, and in a short time it was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The child is alive and well to-day, and I do not hesitate to say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral sayed its life."-C. J. Wooldridge, Wortham, For colds, coughs, bronchitis, asthma, seping Water Republican Last Friday was the date of a very designat gathering at the home of Mr. ond Mrs. Wm, Coon. The occasion was the gel bration of the 15th anniversary of their wedded life. Hilarity reigned but, appreciated by all. Numerous arions were presented Mr. and Mrs. Coon which will help to remind them of the went. Mr. and Mrs. David Vincelard of Mr. and Mrs. D. M., Johnson work ar sent from this city.

Crystal Wedding

A Pleasant Party. Lust evening Mrs. Newell to properly commemorate the 22nd birthday of her on Jason, unbeknown to the young man to vited in a company of his friends. Loson was quite upset over his unexpeeted guests, but entertained the boys at high five and in social conversation untill supper was announced when all repaired to the dinning room and thoroughly enjoyed a sumptous repast. Er c the close of the evenings festivities Jason was presented by his guests with a handsome meerschaum pipe which hap pened to be just the thing he wanted. Those present were Chas Miller, Lew Reinhackle, Chas Grassman, Ted Clifford, Henry Tartsch, Otto Kos, Rudolph Rauen, W. C. Tippin, W. Wilson, H. C. Se.dle, and Frank Ballance.

A Close Call.

John Murray is in the city today from the town of Murray, bundled up about the neck on a count of the serious accident which befel him last Tuesday. Mr. Marray was getting a mule shod at Wm. Loughridge's blacksmith shop; one shorpened shoe had just been nailed on and Murray went to pick up the animal's foot when his muleship kicked, striking Murray on the throat, cutting a gash that I did bare the jugular vein and windpipe. The wound was dressed by Dr. Brendle and Mr. Murray is getting along first rate, but it certainly was as near a summons from the angel of death as one would care to experience.

The Wallash News has the fairness to print the commissioners' statement this week in full, which is more than the Weeping Water papers or Elmwood Eche would do.
