WOUNDED THE CZAROVITCH.

A Crazy Chinese Policeman Assaults Him With a Sword.

LONDON, May 12.—A dispatch from Shanghai says the czarovitch had gone to a picturesque resort known as Ot Su on Lake Biawaitumi, six miles from Kioto. There a native policeman struck the czarovitch on the head with a sword with intent to murder him, but owing to the toughness and thickness of the czarovitch's sun helmet the wound inflicted by the sword was not serious. The injury is described as a sword cut on the side of the forehead. The czarovitch and party immediately returned to Kioto, and there obtained skillful surgery assistance. It is believed that the culprit is insane, or that brooding over fancied wrongs he was tempted to commit the deed by the presence of the royal guests. The emperor and ministers hurried to Kioto to express their concern and sympathy. The whole court feels the outrage acutely.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The Russian legation here has received no information whatever regarding the attack upon the life of the czarovitch.

LONDON, May 12.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg confirms the dispatch from Shanghai about the attack on the czarovitch, and adds that as the assailant raised his weapon for a second blow Prince George of Greece felled him with his walking stick. The czarovitch himself telegraphed his father that his injury was not serious enough to change his programme.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To Dr. J. C. Ayers, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood-purifiers—Ayers' Sarsaparilla.

Omaha will ignore the silly resolution of Moriarity which was passed by the council to ignore Governor Thayer, by having Governor Thayer and James E. Boyd ride together in the presidential carriage with Harrison to-day in the Omaha parade.

DEATH'S LATEST MARK.

The Silent Messenger Visits the Home of F. E. Calvert and Robs Him of His Beloved Helpmate.

At 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon occurred the death of Mrs. Eva C. Calvert, wife of the general superintendent of the B. & M., at the family home, 1335 H street. She had long been ailing, but with indomitable perseverance, had gone about her daily work, domestic and benevolent, until she had found it impossible to further contend against the decree of nature and the Maker. For a few weeks she has been afflicted with an illness, the increasing severity of which culminated yesterday.

To hundreds of sympathetic hearts in Lincoln and Nebraska the knowledge of the demise of this kind Christian woman and exemplary wife will come with a shock of pain. Mrs. Calvert was one of the foremost ladies of the city in all works of charity and Christian piety. At the time of her demise she was treasurer of the Women's Christian association, to the varied work of which she devoted much of her failing energies, and to whose members she was as dear as a beloved sister. The association will meet this afternoon to take such action in relation to their bereavement as the kindly feelings they have entertained for the departed may move them to. For the bereaved husband thousands of neighbors in Lincoln and friends through the state will entertain the utmost sympathy.

The funeral will occur from the family residence at 2:30 p. m. to-morrow.—Lincoln Journal.

The doctor has built himself a nice residence at 906 Pearl street, where he and his bride will make their future home after June 5th.

To Those Who Wish to Build.

As well as to those who do not, consider yourselves invited to inspect the elegant line of builders' hardware just received at Breckenfeld & Weidmann's. In their show windows may be seen as fine a line of oxidized silver, copper, brass, bronze and nickel door trimmings as could be found in Chicago. Call in and see what they have and get prices.

Colonel Joseph A. Connor and his estimable wife will remove to Omaha this week, where they expect to permanently reside. Mrs. Connor will be greatly missed in social circles in this city, where she was always admired for her genial manners, and kindly graces. The familiar face of the colonel has been noted in our midst for twenty years, and THE HERALD with hosts of the friends in this city, deeply regrets his final resolution of removal. Mr. Connor was without a doubt the wealthiest man in the city, and the fact of his leaving will be keenly felt in financial circles; but since it is their desire to go, THE HERALD most heartily wishes them a continuance of the good fortune which seems to have always hovered about them during their residence here.

Mamma (to her little boy). "Now, Bennie, if you'll be good and go to sleep, mamma'll give you one of Dr. Ayer's nice sugar-coated Cathartic Pills, next time you need medicine." Bennie, smiling sweetly, dropped off to sleep at once.

Council Proceedings.

The report of the city marshal was referred back to him for fuller information.

The matter of fixing a lock on the gates at the cemetery and cleaning out and fixing the well was referred to the cemetery committee with power to act.

M. B. Murphy moved that the marshal be ordered to notify the property owners on lower Main street to build new side walks at once. The motion prevailed, and it was so ordered.

The motion to reconsider the action of the council in regard to vacating Valley place came up and was finally laid over to the next meeting.

Gering's claim for $200 attorney's fee in bond case provoked much discussion, and seemed to indicate a desire on the part of a majority to pay him about $100. Browne appeared as the special champion of Gering, giving him the chief credit for its satisfactory denouncement. The claim was finally sent to the committee on claims.

The fixing of the bridge on 12th street, between Locust and Elm, was referred to committee on streets, alleys and bridges.

On motion of W. L. Browne, Frank Carruth, M. D. Polk and C. W. Sherman were appointed as delegates from this city to the trans-Mississippi congress which meets in Denver May 19th. After which the council adjourned.

The First Game.

The first game of base ball by the new nine will be played on the new grounds tomorrow and Friday afternoons when they will meet the Falcons of Omaha. The boys are on their mettle and will play a good game. The public should give them a liberal send off to begin with, that the young men may not become discouraged. General admission has been fixed at 25 cents and as the grounds are only five minutes walk from Main street no one need stay away.

AMERICANS MUST BE CAREFUL.

Standish—What's that? You say you were attacked by highwaymen on the way here?

Winthrop—Yes, and robbed of every cent after being beaten insensible.

Standish—Honest citizens ought to go armed.

Winthrop—I was armed.

Standish—Then why didn't you shoot?

Winthrop—I was afraid some of the highwaymen might be un-naturalized residents, and I did not want to risk plunging my beloved country into a foreign war.—New York Weekly.
