

A TRAMP'S SONG.

Wanderin' in the June time, down around the river, Outen hearin' o' the world, a-dozin' under kiver...

Wanderin' in the flower time, up 'long the valley, Watchin' little grasses grow, an' Nater's gorgeous rally...

The Earliest Child's Book.

As might be supposed, the earliest book that is assigned to the child is the Latin grammar. Boys' Latin grammar for several centuries were mere text books compiled from the larger works of Donatus and Priscian...

The earliest book in existence written expressly for boys is here stated to be Aldhelm's "De Septenario, de Metris, Enigmatibus, ac Pedum Regulis," which probably appeared about the end of the Seventh century.

Grandma's Cure for Dandruff.

"We often scoff at the ancient grand-mother remedies," said an up town physician the other day in conversation with a patient, "but our forefathers used to get a power of comfort from them, nevertheless, and cheaply too. Science has progressed wonderfully, of course, and we are much better off on the whole now than were our sires, but we forget a great many of the little things. Now I notice that you are troubled with dandruff, and I'll wager that you have spent many dollars on different alleged cures, and you are worse off now than when you commenced. Let me give you a 'grandmother' prescription that never fails. Go to a drug store and buy five cents' worth of salts of tartar. Dissolve half of it in warm water and wash the head thoroughly. Repeat this at intervals of three months for a year, and you won't be annoyed with dandruff any more."—New York Recorder.

Humidity Runs in Streaks.

Peculiar humanity runs in streaks. On certain days you will notice a surprising number of tall people. Sometimes it's crossed eyed people. On other occasions the noticeably short persons have their innings. Then one day somebody equally observant will say, "What a remarkable array of the crippled, the lame, the maimed, the dwarfed, the generally deformed there are out today?" And while you are commenting on it another comes along and then another and another until the idea makes you thirsty.—New York Herald.

Dislikes Elevators.

It is a peculiarity of Mr. Clarence A. Seward, president of the Union club, that he will never ride on the elevated road. He prefers the conservative street car, and when the street cars are not running he walks. Mr. Seward also has an aversion to passenger elevators in tall buildings. It is said by some of his closest friends that the only elevator that he will trust himself in is the one in the Union club. His office in Nassau street is on the third floor, and there he walks up and down stairs.—New York Times.

A new method of annealing steel.

A new method of annealing steel is to heat them as slowly as possible, and when at a red heat put them between two pieces of dry board and screw them up in a vise. The steel burns into the boards, which, coming together, form an air tight charcoal bed. When cool the steel is found to be thoroughly annealed.

Cautious, but Reasonable.

Mrs. Primus—I saw you riding in the park with Willie Ross and Jack Bolton. I didn't know your papa would let you ride alone with gentlemen.

Miss Secunda—He doesn't object if the gentlemen are rival lovers.—Munsey's Weekly.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd of Croton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at F. G. Fricke & Co's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Attorney, Washington, D. C. For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; I have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

TORTURING EXZEMA,

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty years old. In August 1889 was troubled with a peculiar skin disease to which people of my age are subject, known among medical men as exzema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of my arms. My legs and arms had swollen with an itching burning pain without cessation. A though the best medical advice a humane physician employed no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease though apparently checked would recur in a few days as bad as ever. During the progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began to use CUTICURA followed the simple and plain instructions given with the Remedies and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color the itching and pain entirely gone. W. R. MEAD, Editor Iowa Plain Dealer, Cresco, Iowa.
