PLATTSMOUTH, CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4 1891.

$1.50 A YEAR

PERSONAL

M. O'Rourke was a passenger for Omaha to-day.
 F. E. White was a passenger on No. 7 this morning.
 D. S. Guild is transacting business in Omaha to-day.
 M. D. Polk was a passenger this morning for Grand Island.
 Billy Neville was a passenger this morning for Lincoln.
 G. W. Griffith departed for South Omaha this morning for a few days.
 Miss Jamison, who is to be an instructor in the city schools, arrived this morning.

W. C. Harlan came in on No. 5 and will be in the city a few days canvassing for noted books.

Miss Gillits, who has been visiting with her friend, Miss McClelland, left this morning for Lincoln.

Capt. Palmer of Omaha passed through the city last evening on the flyer, enroute for points in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thorpe left for Des Moines, Iowa, on No. 4 this morning for a few weeks' visit to friends at their old home.

A Robber Lynched

A lynching took place near Kansas City, Mo., Monday afternoon. The victim had robbed a bank, thus fleeing the citizens out of their money, and they resort to the strangulation process in order to get revenge.

I have been troubled with chronic catarrh for years. Ely's Cream Balm is the only remedy among the many that I have used that affords me relief.—E. W. Willard, Druggist, Joliet, Ill.
 My son has been afflicted with nasal catarrh since quite young I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm, and before he had used one bottle that disagreeable catarrhal smell had all left him. He appears as well as anyone. It is the best catarrh remedy in the market.—J. C. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

Police Court.

In the police court Samuel Clark was fined $10 and costs, on a charge of disorderly conduct. In default of payment he was lodged in jail.

Two suspicious characters were arrested but for lack of warrantable charges they were dismissed, and the marshal instructed to escort them safely out of the city.

JOE, the Leading Clothier, will have his grand fall opening in day time so his former friends and patrons can attend.

WANTED—Two apprentice girls to learn dress-making at Mrs. L. A. Owens, second door west of Hotel Riley.

Owing to some break in the machinery at the brick and terra cotta works there was a slight interruption yesterday but everything is moving along as usual to-day.

Mrs. R. B. Windham departed this morning for Lincoln, to visit a few days with the family of D. A. Campbell, whom many will remember as a former resident of our city.

WANTED—A desirable tenant for the Dovey homestead, corner of Seventh and Oak streets.
 E. G. DOVEY & SON.

Mrs. S. C. Wheeler and Mrs. Fannie McDougal were passengers this morning for Nebraska City. They will take in sights about the exposition and visit friends before returning.

A DARING ROBBERY.

The Express Messenger Offers Resistance But is Finally Overpowered.

A special from Texas Creek, Colo., conveys the intelligence that an express train four miles west of that place was held up by seven masked men and robbed of $3,000. Express Messenger Angel made a determined resistance, and used a revolver to good advantage, but whether anyone was killed is not definitely known.

Citizens are in pursuit who have telegraphed for hounds that have been used in the penitentiary. No efforts will be spared to find the fiends.

Warning!

THE HERALD takes occasion to inform those parties who make a practice of sneaking the papers belonging to regular subscribers, whether for the purpose of reading them or because they are naturally onerous and do it for sheer meanness, that if they do not want to be exposed we should like to have them leave the papers alone that belong to other people. Now if you want the paper for news, for which it is well equipped, we will make a special reduction and deliver it to you for 30 cents per month.

A Card.

We desire to extend to our friends our heartfelt thanks for deeds of kindness and words of consolation offered during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. FRED GORDER AND FAMILY.

A Pleasant Event

A pleasant event occurred at South Park last evening, and doubtless its memory will be cherished by all present. The neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rankin planned a surprise party, in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of their married life. The ladies with well filled baskets, gave evidence that all would be supplied with a bountiful supper and in this, none were disappointed. All voted that it was good to be there and wishes that Mr. and Mrs. Rankin may live a longer and more prosperous life than ever before. Among those present were the following:

Grandma Taylor, Mesdames Jake Coffman, Green Coffman, Arnold; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kasmusser, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Royce, Mr. Will Tucker, Misses Mollie and Agatha Tucker, Ruth Churchhill.

State Fair Attractions.

The arrangements are about completed for the state fair. The managers have endeavored to make the fair particularly interesting to the farming industry. Aside from the usual stock exhibit, which promises to be unusually good, and the usual exhibitions of farm products and machinery, the Grand Island and Norfolk beet sugar industries will make an exhibit; Dr. Billings will be present and teach farmers how to guard against hog cholera by inoculation. Many have an idea that inoculation is a difficult operation, but Dr. Billings says that it is not expensive and that every farmer can easily guard against the swine plague, by which Nebraska farmers lose millions of dollars every year. On the whole, the outlook is very promising and with favorable weather the managers assure all that a fair in keeping with the demands will be provided. The B. & M. offers reduced rates.

Mr. Robt. Walker leaves this evening for Nebraska City, where he has secured employment for a short time.

Jay W. Kennedy is in the city representing Chamberlain & Co., pharmacists, Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. K. will likely establish pleasant business relations with our citizens.

A large force of Dagos were marched down this morning to be paid off, to which they had no objection, as might be seen by the way in which they chuckled over their treasure.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kroehler, on Locust street and Washington avenue.

SECRETARY.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Wood returned this morning from Hastings, Iowa, accompanied by Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. Henderson. They will leave to-morrow for Factoryville, where Mr. Wood will "rule the youngsters."

Miss Graves, who has been visiting with the family of Capt. L. D. Bennett, departed this morning for her home at Ackley, Iowa, where she holds a position as principal of the schools. Miss Alice Wilson, Miss Gass and Madge Wilson accompanied her to Omaha.

We are pleased to note that the council has taken steps to have the weeds cut about the streets of the city, this making a more creditable showing for our city. Visitors on arriving are at once impressed with surroundings, and such steps as these cannot but make a good showing.

We have received an announcement of the College of Law recently established in connection with the State University. The board of regents has spared no pains to provide every essential for a first class law school, and the chancellor assures all that they will be furnished every accommodation necessary for thorough and rapid preparation for the practice of law.

Mr. B. E. Hendricks, principal of schools at Beloit, Iowa, is in the county visiting friends in the city and vicinity. This is Mr. H's first trip to Nebraska, and after having visited at different portions of the county he expresses himself as very favorably impressed with our thriving little city. Mr. H. speaks also of a visit made in company with Miss Fischer, with their old school mates, Miss Cora and Troy Davis, daughter and son of Meek Davis. They conclude that if the welcome extended to them by the Davis family is a sample of Nebraska's hospitality that her people are truly hospitable.

Almost every evening a casual observer will notice actions on the part of a few toughs, that to say the least, are disorderly and punishable offenses. We believe that, without a single exception the participants in these rows have first filled up well with liquor and then proceed to indulge in unbecoming language and even come to blows. Last evening an occurrence of this kind happened that was disgraceful in the extreme and the participants should have been marched off to jail to see if THE HERALD can plainly see, however, that as long as we allow intoxicating drinks sold thus encouraging drunkenness, that we must expect to have these occurrences occasionally.
