Slightly Hurt.

A little son of Robert Sherwood fell upon a wheelbarrow yesterday and cut his forehead quite severely. Dr. Cummins was called and dressed the wound.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Mrs. Fannie Keller took place at the Episcopal church at 3 o'clock yesterday. Rev. Burgess officiating. It was evident that the aged father and mother of the departed one had the sympathy of all present.

A Sudden Death.

Pearl, daughter of R. Peterson, died yesterday at 11:30 a. m. Age, seven years, one month. Last Wednesday the departed was apparently enjoying perfect health and little was it thought that she would be taken away so soon. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of all in this hour of sadness.

The funeral will be held at the M. E. church, Tuesday, Oct. 13, at 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the friends to be present.

Came to Blows

John Reed, a well-to-do farmer living across the river, and J. E. Foster, a switchman at the yards, after becoming well filled with liquor proceeded to engage in a general row. Reed abused Foster unmercifully, continuing to kick and strike after having been placed under arrest, though he asserts that the provocation fully warranted it. It appears evident that each of the parties were under the influence of liquor, which, doubtless had a tendency to assist in the trouble.

Foster filed a complaint in the police court to-day charging Reed with assault with intent to do great bodily injury. The trial has been set for next Saturday.

Slightly Injured.

Wes Grassman finds it necessary to walk with the aid of a cane, owing to a slight injury received as he was walking up Main street. It appears that a nail was protruding from the walk and as Mr. Grassman stepped upon it the nail penetrated his foot causing a painful injury. Too much care cannot well be exercised in keeping the walks in repair.

Railroad Sacket.

W. J. Williams, after a week's rest, has returned to his work as switchman.

W. D. Boyd of Lincoln has been transferred to the yards at this place.

C. S. Johnson has temporarily been transferred to the night list.

An unusual amount of freight is being handled for this season of the year.

From Tuesday Daily.
J. B. Tipton, of Cedar Creek, is in town to-day.

O. B. Polk, of Greenwood, is in the city to-day.

Fred Gorder, of Weeping Water, is in the city to-day.

A. C. Loder came in from Greenwood this morning.

Hon. H. D. Travis is attending court in the city to-day.

J. B. Billings, of Denver, is visiting relatives in the city.

J. H. Haldeman of Weeping Water is in the city to-day on business.

J. W. Berge, editor of the New Era at South Bend is in town to-day.

A. E. Todd left this morning for Maywood on a short pleasure trip.

Laura Twiss left this morning for Maywood for a brief visit to friends.

Henry Slintz and Jacob Tritsch of Cedar Creek came in on the Schuyler this morning.

Mrs. Meek Davis, of Murray, accompanied by her daughter, Cora, spent the day in the city.

District court is in session to-day. The day has been consumed considering a case State vs. Parker, a case of rape. A decision in the case will probably not be given to-day.

The funeral, of Pearl Peterson, was held at the M. E. church at 2:30 this afternoon. Rev. Alexander, of University Place, officiating. A large concourse of friends gathered to participate in the sad rite and manifestations of sympathy for the bereaved parents were shown on every hand.

Rail Road Sacket.
John Monroe begins work as switchman to-day.

Owing to an increase in business on the B. & M. line it has been found necessary to add two extra engines. They arrived this morning from the Q. line and extra trains were made up.

Carpenters are at work repairing the telegraph office and rendering it in better condition for the winter.

Laid to Rest.
The funeral of John Pflughaup took place this afternoon, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. lodge of which the departed was an honored member. A large delegation of the immediate friends of the deceased followed the remains to Oak Hill cemetery, where the interment took place.

County Court.
In the matter of the last will and testament of Sarah Maston deceased. Proof of execution of same taken and same admitted to probate.

In the matter of the guardianship of Martin Mahoney and Ann Mahoney, feeble-minded. Hearing on petition for appointment of Aaron C. Loder guardian. Prayer of petition granted and bond fixed at $3000.

In the matter of the estate of Simpson C. Bethel deceased. Petition of N. H. Meeker, executor for order to sell personal property. Prayer of petition granted and order accordingly issued.

Paulina Luschnski vs. Carl Anton, defendant, and C. B. & Q. R. R., garnishee. Answer of garnishee taken showing no money due defendant from said garnishee.

In the matter of the guardianship of Arnold S. Keller minor child of Fannie deceased, Frances M. McCrean appointed guardian over person and estate.

In the matter of the estate of Simpson C. Bethel, deceased. Hearing on application for final settlement continued generally.

L. C. EICKHOFF.
Louis C. Eickhoff, a veritable farmer by vocation, and a success at financing, has been nominated by the republicans for county treasurer, and the only objection offered by his adversaries is that he is a farmer, and we are pleased that this objection has been sprung for it shows the people how ardent these brass collared city cusses labor to retain the government of all affairs within their grasp. The Plattsmouth Journal has accused Mr. Eickhoff of this "awful crime of being a farmer," and thinks for that reason he had no business aspiring for the office. We thank fortune that Mr. Eickhoff is a farmer, and a progressive one. The very fact that he will receive the almost unanimous support and vote of his home precinct—which is democratic—is evidence alone of his good standing and reposed ability. One needs but look back over the records of the ex-treasurers of Cass county to see how important it is to choose an honest man and a good calculator. In Mr. Eickhoff we find these qualities. Vote for him, friends, and rest assured your vote will be honorably and unregretfully cast. —Elmwood Echo.

AN ODD CORPORATION.

WHAT MRS. MARY TYLER DID TO SAVE HER HEIRS TROUBLE.

She Transferred Nearly All Her Property to an Incorporated Organization Called "The Tyler Estate"—Real Estate in Several Cities.

Among the property items which the city is trying to acquire title to for the proposed Ninth regiment armory in Fourteenth street is a lot belonging to the Tyler estate. The Tyler estate is a novelty among the corporations of the country. It is not the estate of a deceased person, as one would naturally infer from the title, but is the estate of a wealthy western widow, who has had her real estate holdings capitalized and a stock company formed to take and hold the titles to it. Her object is said to be to so arrange the titles to her property that when she comes to dispose of it by her will there will be the least possible opportunity left to disappointed relatives to contest her will and drag her name and private history into the courts and before the public.

The certificate of incorporation of the estate recites that it was organized under the laws of Missouri as a corporation for manufacturing and business purposes, and is called "The Tyler Estate." It was organized under the legal advice and direction of Henry Hitchcock, of the St. Louis bar, a lawyer of that western city, who is said to have assured his client that the laws of Missouri authorized the organization and formal incorporation of real estate corporations.

The founder and principal proprietor of the Tyler estate is Mrs. Mary Lawrence Tyler, widow of Robert Tyler, of Louisville. She is said to be worth several millions, principally in lands and property in this city, Philadelphia, Louisville, St. Louis and other places, all of which, however, she has conveyed to the Tyler estate, taking the stock of the peculiar corporation in payment. The estate is capitalized at $500,000, but that does not begin to represent the actual value of the property it owns.

THE LAW IN SEVERAL STATES.

The real estate records of this county show the transfer of two pieces of property to the estate by Mrs. Tyler in February, 1888, the time when the corporation was formed. One of the items is the lot in Fourteenth street, which is wanted by the city for armory purposes, and the other is a business building and lot in Crosby street, between Broome and Spring streets. The city authorities and the representatives of the estate could not agree upon the price to be paid by the city for the Fourteenth street lot and condemnation proceedings have therefore been begun, wherein the price will be fixed by a commission.

But the principal interest in the affair attaches to the corporation itself. Many devices have been resorted to in times past by wealthy people who had large estates to dispose of by will to prevent the quarreling of heirs over the manner in which the property has been distributed by the owner in his or her will, but this is the first instance ever heard of in which a private person, having no desire or intention of going into business, where some occasion for forming a limited liability corporation might exist, has voluntarily had her property capitalized and represented in stocks and bonds.

In some of the states corporations for the purpose of holding titles to real estate are prohibited by law. New York is said to be one of these states and Illinois another. But they are apparently sanctioned by the laws of Missouri, and the laws of this state permit the holding of title to real estate by any corporation organized under the laws of any other state, the laws of which authorize the existence of a corporation for the purpose stated.

HOW THE SCHEME MAY WORK.

Who the present officers of the Tyler estate are could not be ascertained, nor any statement regarding the details of the organization—whether the corporation has more than one executive officer, how the property is managed by the officers, or in what manner transfers of real estate belonging to such a corporation could be made so as not to affect the value of its shares or to impair the security of the bonds. How long a life such a corporation could have is a question, furthermore, which no lawyer could answer offhand.

But it is claimed for it that the property can in this manner be held together for long periods of years, whereas, under ordinary conditions, no sooner is a wealthy person's will filed for probate than a long contest begins in the courts between the various heirs over the manner of its distribution among them.

By incorporating, as Mrs. Tyler has done, it is declared that all trouble of this character is done away with. The testatrix will not her property, but a certain number of shares of her estate to each heir, who is limited by his opportunities to either accept or reject them. Thus, however, still leaves the contesting heirs opportunities to fight over the distribution of the shares.

But Mrs. Tyler expects to get the better of this class of heirs by giving away the shares to the persons she desires to have them before her demise. The corporation, as said, is a novel one, but, like the trust, may prove to be only the forerunner of many which will be organized as soon as the legal status of the Tyler estate shall have been passed upon by some competent legal tribunal.—New York Times.

Muscle From Insects.

The notes of the katydid are perhaps as familiar as any and have a certain fascination, the sounds taking on various inflections and meanings. They are produced by rubbing the inner surface of the hind legs against the outer surface of the front wings—fiddling, in fact. When the male cricket sings in the hearth it raises its fore wings and scrapes them against its hind ones. Even the butterfly makes a sound audible at some distance, certain species having been heard to utter a clicking sound.—St. Paul Dispatch.

Eagle Items.

J. M. Ray took possession of the Eagle post office on the first of October. He appointed Joe Boiser his deputy who will have main charge of the office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams left last Friday morning for a pleasure tour which includes a visit with two or three daughters, and the corn palace at Sioux City.

One of our readers informs us that the soil in and around Eagle is well adapted for raising the beet sugar. He says he speaks from experience, as he lives in the sugar beet district in Germany, and that those raised here are away ahead of those produced in the old country. This being so there is a chance for a new diversity in crop raising in store for this section. Lincoln is after a sugar refinery and if she succeeds may not Eagle become one of the main points to supply the raw material.

The Eagle is in receipt of nine cars of corn raised by Uncle John Summer on soil on McChutich's farm. The corn was planted the 1st of June and shows a remarkable growth. The nine cars weighed ten and half pounds, the longest measuring thirteen inches, the shortest ten inches. They will be sent to Boston on the advertising train.

The democratic papers, evidently, would be pleased to substitute the discussion of the Cleveland baby for that of the tariff and silver questions.

POVERTY vs. PLENTY.

This well-satisfied and thriving country the Corsicana Cobden and the Claimant have undertaken to persuade that it has been ruined and still is being ruined by the protective tariff. These two singular compounds of mountebank and crank want the democratic party to shut its eyes, stand on its head, and say to the farmers, whose barns are bulging with grain, "Your granaries are empty on account of the tariff," to the jobbers and the country storekeepers, whose stocks are being sold as fast as they are ordered, "You are prevented from doing business by the tariff," to the laborers, whose services are in greater demand than ever, "You can find no work, on account of the tariff," to the well dressed, "You are naked on account of the tariff," to the well-to-do, "You are paupers on account of the tariff," to a nation digesting its dinner with enjoyment and peace of mind, "You are starving on account of the tariff."

If the democratic party were sufficiently far gone with paresis to be scared by the croaking of these ridiculous crows, it would be laughed out of sight in 1892. Hired weepers are not in demand at a wedding feast, and crows are hunted with shotguns.—American Economist.

If we mistake not the independent will become disgusted with the calamity shrieking and demagoguery that is being indulged in by their candidate for supreme judge. The Kearney Hub, in commenting upon a harangue recently delivered in that city by the distinguished jurist, has the following:

The man Edgerton who seeks to befool the supreme bench makes up in vituperation what he lacks in common sense. In his Kearney speech the other day he said: "If we are to cling to the old parties we might as well tear down our school houses, burn our churches and write on the vault of heaven: 'Satan has triumphed over God,' and turn all the imps of hell loose on our country." This sentiment is endorsed by the Fremont Herald and given prominence in the Omaha World-Herald, both of which ought to have better sense. The foul mouthed raving of such a demagogue can not certainly have weight with the people of the state, further than to cause them to spew him out.

Mr. C. B. Jones, of Spring Hill Iowa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for severe and painful burns with better effect than anything I have ever tried. It relieves the pain instantly and cures without leaving a scar." Pain Balm is one of the most useful medicines that any families can be provided with, especially for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, bruises, tooth-ache, ear-ache and like ailments. One application will relieve the pain and a fair trial insure a cure. 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. Druggists.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.
