Then we went for the best doctor in Eaton Rapids, Mich., and he doctoring him for two weeks, and he got worse all the time. Then I took him to Jackson to a doctor who at once prescribed Cuticura. He said especially to skin diseases, and when he got worse than ever. Then I told my husband we had better try Cuticura. He said, 'I'll try it.' He bought a box of Cuticura. Do "Old Way" Briles de Cook as well as de Steak.

To broil perfectly, over a fire, requires constant watching and an experienced cook. With the UNCLE TOM'S, a child ten years old will equal any expert. Place an ordinary sheet-iron pan, one-quarter full of water, on the fire, and before it reaches the boiling point, place the steaks on a plate to catch the drippings; grease the oven slide or broiling rack; one greasing is all that is required. Place the steaks upon the oven slide, and broil over the fire for five to ten minutes—large steaks require ten to fifteen minutes—and the steaks will be thoroughly cooked on top and bottom at the same time.

IDEAL BROILING.

There is no tint of coal-gas or smoke, and the steaks are more tender and better in flavor than those broiled over the coals. The convenience of broiling in the oven will be appreciated by every housekeeper, and adds another to the many reasons why the Uncle Tom's Range or Stove with the Wire Grate Oven Door should be preferred to all others now in the market.

A DARK CRIME.

Unearthed at Nebraska City last Saturday. Some time last June a corpse was found floating in the Missouri river about two miles above Nebraska City. The only thing upon the person that might lead to its identification at that time was a card upon which was printed the name J. H. Mc Manus. The matter was made known of once but as the unfortunate man appeared to have no friends the body was interred on the river bank. The circumstance had been practically forgotten until last Saturday, when the remains were taken up by Butt & Co. undertaker for interment in the cemetery. In the meantime Oscar Wheelock had mysteriously disappeared, and when the body was exhumed it was identified by Wheelock's widows as her husband; two sons and a daughter also identified the body as that of their father. The further discovery was made that just above the right temple, was a bullet hole showing plainly the cause of his death. Wheelock was at last seen alive in Omaha in company with a well known confidence man and a negro. The confidence man is reported to still be in Omaha, and no pains will be spared to bring the guilty party to justice.

Bearing Fruit.

The agitation of the beet sugar industry recently inaugurated and kept to the front by THE HERALD has attracted the attention of a number of our prominent citizens and the probability is that in the near future the matter will be considered seriously. At this writing Father Hayes appears to be the most enthusiastic supporter of the move we have met. He offers to donate one-half or an entire block if necessary as a site for the location of an industry, if its establishment can be secured. There are doubtless other real estate owners of the city that would be as equally willing to aid if some of our public spirited business men would press the matter.

There is no doubt that the soil of the Missouri and Platte bottoms cannot be excelled in the west for the production of sugar beets, and since there are millions of dollars of capital seeking profitable investment, there is no reason why it may not be employed in this infant yet growing western industry. Father Hayes mentions the fact that a company has recently been organized in Boston with a capital of $1,000,000 for the express purpose of investing in beet sugar industries in and around Omaha.

Now that the attention of the eastern capitalists has been attracted to the west, and since it is a settled fact that these industries can flourish here, there should be a united move on the part of all our citizens to secure the location of such an industry. We suggest again that the board of trade consider the matter at the meeting called for to-morrow evening.

Geo. Dovey is able to attend to business once more after an illness of two weeks.

Social Event.

A pleasant social party gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Smith on Winterstein hill Saturday night, in honor of Miss Otie Roberts, of Prescott, Iowa who is visiting in the city. The company was composed of about thirty of our prominent young people and from the reports it is evident that a highly enjoyable and profitable time was had by all present. Games and music were participated in until quite a late hour when all departed for their respective homes, each feeling it was good to be there.

What is Good Baking Powder?

It is a well known fact that carbonate of ammonia is used by bakers in the preparation of the finest and most wholesome bread and cake, and has been from time immemorial. It is among the oldest and the same time most healthful constituents of baking powders. It is all evolved in gas by the heat of the oven, and leaves no track of itself in the food, and it is this that gives it its great value as a leavening agent in the opinions of the physicians.—New York Journal.

Bates & Co. vs. Rasmus Petersen et al. Suit on attachment in the sum of $98.57. Hearing, Nov. 25, 10 a. m.

Fred Shrader vs. Rasmus Petersen. Suit in attachment for $27. Hearing, Nov. 28, 10 a. m.

The account in Saturday's Evening News of the sociable given at the residence of R. W. Hyers last Friday evening was the subject of considerable speculation on the part of many of our young people. The point in conjecture is as to how the reporter of that paper is justified in commenting very favorably upon "vocal efforts" of six young ladies, which really were not produced at all. The enthusiastic reporter proceeds a little further as follows: "Mr. Chas. Keefer's vocal powers were decidedly good and were thoroughly appreciated." The fact is Mr. Keefer assisted Miss Hattie Sullivan in a piano duet, the rendition of which, however, was "decidedly good and thoroughly appreciated." Evidently THE NEWS man has either gone wrong or is growing careless in his reports.

Attorney J. B. Haldeman of Weeping Water came in to-day to attend to legal matters at court.

Francis McCarty jumped from the Brooklyn bridge yesterday and was swallowed up by the waters. He leaves a wife and three children.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Brid Critchfield went to Lincoln this morning.

F. S. White went to Ashland on a business trip this morning.

Dr. E. E. Reynolds, of Rock Bluffs, was a pleasant caller at THE HERALD office this morning.

Mrs. M. J. Lambson went to Macedonia this morning to visit with friends over Thanksgiving.

Dr. Deering returned to his home at Wabash last evening after a short visit to a sick sister at Hastings, Iowa.

S. C. Patterson, of South Bend, came in this morning intending to look after the affairs of his farm south of the city.

T. Clark and wife visited with their daughter, Mrs. Woods, in Weeping Water Sunday, returning Monday evening.

W. J. Hesser, florist, went to Omaha last evening to be gone a few days to attend to matters pertaining to his trade.

Judge Chapman received a letter from H. D. Travis, county attorney, stating that he was confined to his bed and would be unable to attend court for the present.

John Steene, postoffice inspector, is on a tour of inspection through the county and having thoroughly examined the records and finances of this postoffice, states that the affairs of the office rank well among the best of the many he has examined through the state.

The county records disclose the fact that the railroad company has made amicable adjustment with Mrs. John Hardruba for the loss of her husband, who was killed on July 2nd by the explosion of engine No. 12 in the roundhouse. The company has been prompt in adjusting this affair to the entire satisfaction of Mrs. Hardruba and her friends without causing her unnecessary expense.

Cases Before the District Court.

Among the cases continued for hearing in the district court are: C. P. Gilbert vs. Weeping Water bank. B. A. Gibson, trustee vs. E. L. Reed et al. These cases have been consolidated and sent to Frank Ireland at Nebraska City as referee before whom they took testimony for fifty-eight days. The referee found Reed indebted to the bank upward of $20,000 and the case is now pending on motion to confirm the report of referee and comes up for hearing before Chapman to-day.

Western Engineering Co. vs. Plattsmouth Street Railway Co. et al. Action was brought by the plaintiff and the Sprague Manufacturing Co to foreclose material lien, amounting to about $10,000 and it is now pending on motion by Street Railway to file an amended answer asking for $17,000 damages from Sprague for furnishing defective machinery and motors. It will probably be heard during the term.

Fred Bellows vs. Wm. Tighe as sheriff. This is an injunction restraining the sheriff from levying an execution on a judgment in one of the western counties where the plaintiff claimed that the service of summons was defective and judgment invalid. Judge Chapman dismissed the injunction holding that the service of summons was good and fixed the supersedeas bond for the supreme court at $1,400. This case has been of special interest to the bar on account of the technical points involved.

Frank Deitrich et al vs. Ellen Child et al. brought by plaintiff against their mother claiming eighty acres of land at Louisville which their father entered as a homestead and died before proving up. Their mother made final proof and got the patent issued in her own name which patent they seek to set aside and have her declared trustee in the hands of the court on advisement.

Wm. J. Quinn vs. Ellen Quinn a case brought by plaintiff to compel his mother, the defendant to deed him eighty acres of land near Elmwood claiming that he had remained at home and donated his service towards the payment of said place on condition that he should have it. He waited until his mother moved to Iowa before commencing suit and then got service of summons on her by publication in a news paper and got a decree for the land of which she was ignorant until a year after the decree had been rendered at which time she got the decree set aside and a new trial granted which was had at the last term of court and is now under advisement before getting the decree set aside, her son had traded the land to a man by the name of Forsythe for eighty acres of land in Otoe county and Forsythe now claims to be an innocent purchaser. The court has found that the plaintiff was not entitled to the land but has it under advisement as to whether title given while the decree was in force would be good.

Our Public Schools.

Thinking it would interest a large part of your readers to know what is being done in the schools of the city, I have been led to make this communication. An excellent faculty is employed, and kept busy taking care of the students in attendance. In the high school a large range of subjects are taught by experienced and thoroughly practical teachers. A student may pursue the Latin-scientific course, preparing him for the state university, or he may pursue the business course, preparing him for the actual business transactions to be found in real life. A school of shorthand and typewriting is also maintained in connection with the business course. The course in elocution and diction includes physical training, voice culture, reading and dramatic expression.

The tuition for the Latin-scientific, English, business and elocutionary courses for non-resident pupils is but $1.50 per month. For shorthand, $3 per month. Typewriting, fifty cents per month. It is the aim of the faculty to make the schools second to none in the state. It is hoped that all those directly interested will co-operate with the faculty in their efforts to keep the interest unflagging and the attendance regular.

Eight new pupils the past week and still they come.

There are now enrolled in the city schools 1,035 pupils, with an average attendance of about ninety per cent. Many of our rooms have more pupils than seats. For example, room No. 20 has seats for about fifty-six pupils and an enrollment of eighty and the attendance good. High school has enrolled seventy pupils, with sixty-seven seats, and it rarely happens that a seat is unoccupied. Room No. 10 has a large attendance and the teacher has a hard task indeed to take care of sixty-four pupils.

A visit to the rooms will convince anyone that a new six-room building is needed badly and it is to be much regretted that the schools' finances would not justify the board in building during the past summer.

The managers of our night school have labored faithfully the past two months to make it a success, but for some reason our young people have neglected to avail themselves of the opportunity and it is only a matter of a few days when Plattsmouth's night school will be a thing of the past.

Thursday is Thanksgiving and the schools are making great preparations for a grand feast. It is sure to be a success as our superintendent never heard of such a word as fail. He isn't built that way.

The proper ventilation of school rooms is of no small importance to our children. Many of our rooms have but little means to properly ventilate and a visit to them some cold day at about ten o'clock would astonish the visitor. The superintendent does all in his power to attain good ventilation, but a teacher who may feel a little chilly perhaps keeps the window closed and a fastidious person would feel constrained to make his or her visit very short.

There is one fact so plain that no one need be mistaken, and that is no person can have good health where the blood, the very life itself, is in an unhealthy and impure condition. We guarantee Haller's Sarsaparilla and Burdock Compound to remove all humors and impurities from the blood and eradicate every particle of disease from the system.

A. C. Mayes, county surveyor, commenced this morning to survey the public road granted last Friday by the county commissioners, from Plattsmouth extending north through sections six and seven, town twelve, range fourteen and section one, intersecting the telegraph road near Lawrence Stull's residence.

There are many liniments on the market that are good for some purposes, but only one that will heal Barb Wire cuts effectively, and that is Haller's Barb Wire Liniment. If your horse or stock is cut buy a bottle and witness the wonderful results.

While out quail hunting yesterday Frank Morgan accidentally shot Jim Johns' bird dog, so that it had to be killed. It seems another dog had located a quail and when it flew up Johns' dog jumped up from behind a bush, thus bringing him in direct line with Frank's gun, who was in the act of shooting the quail.

Baby had a cold; Mrs. McGinnis said hot whiskey, Aunt Kate said catnip tea, Cousin Em said rhubarb was thing, but Grandpa (heaven bless him) said Haller's Sure Cure Cough Syrup and would take the cake, and it did.

The east end of school district No. 26 just north of town has petitioned Superintendent Noble to be set aside as a separate district and make the novel proposition that they will waive all rights to their apportionment of state and county school funds and the west end object because it will leave their district on the east line with only one child of school age belonging to a permanent resident and about four children belonging to sojourners and tenants. The truth of this apparent independence on the part of petitioners is that they are living in a district where the land is appraised very low but have about eight miles of railroad which would have to pay the bulk of the tax.

Obituary.

DIED—Last evening of typhoid fever, Clara Linquist, at the residence of the late Mrs. Holmberg. It will be remembered that THE HERALD chronicled the death of Mrs. Holmberg, and to-day we are called upon to note the death of Miss Linquist, who had been caring for Mrs. Holmberg.

A Few Facts.

Read this and govern yourself accordingly: We have as pure a stock of drugs as any in Cass county. Our wall paper and paint stock is the largest in the city. We buy wall paper from the eastern factories in car load lots and feel safe in saying we sell more than any other firm in the county. You wonder why? We can answer that by saying that we buy in large quantities and sell for a very low price.

Call and see our line of drugs, paints, oils and wall paper. Yours Respectfully, BROWN & BARNETT.

Stanley as an explorer, Edison as an inventor, Miss Flora A. Jones as the discoverer of the Famous Blush of Rones for the complexion; are names that will be handed down as benefactors of the race, to all recorded time. O. H. Snyder comes in for his share (of the profits) as he always keeps a big supply on hand, and sells it for 75 cts. per bottle.

SHERMAN'S PERFDIY.

The attitude which Sherman has been assuming in the matter of Eickhoff's citizenship is at once laughable and disgusting. It reminds one of the few vagabonds who on a memorable occasion in time of war tried to cut down the enemy on a bridge spanning a narrow but very deep pass at the bottom of which there was a restless and turbulent steam which swept everything into oblivion that fell into its way. These foolish men stood there and brandished their weapons defying the enemy that was calmly looking on, occasionally the van guards would fire into their ranks at first disabling the weakest, but they still kept up the attack until only one big burly fellow remained in the centre of the bridge feebly pushing ahead, his few friends now unable to give assistance begged him to come back but all he would do was to shake his stubborn head. The army from which he had escaped came up and sentinels were sent out to reclaim him. They raised the flag of truce and even before his very feet tore up the plank that might not fall into the hands of the enemy which knowing the circumstances refused to sacrifice him until he had found his own doom. Now it remains to be seen when the legal progress is followed out in instating Mr. Eickhoff in the office of county treasurer whether or not Sherman will fall through the plank which his own party drew from under him that he might not go any further.
