A Fatal Mistake.

Physicians make no more fatal mistake than when they inform patients that nervous heart troubles come from the stomach and are o little consequence. MINISTER EGAN IS ALL RIGHT.

Some of the papers seem surprised that the United States government will stand by Minister Egan in the present Chillian trouble. Why not? Why should not the governthose ministers have stood by ment? There has been a great deal of denunciation of Minister Egan, but it has not been made clear to unprejudice minds that he has done aught for which he ought to be censured. He has on the other hand done much for which he ought to be given credit. His course has been American and patriotic. He has defended the honor of the government.
