The formal opening of the Keeley Institute at Blair, Nebraska will ocour Thursday January 21. THE HERALD has received an invitation to be present at the opening and banquet.

The Nebraska City press says that C. D. Clappe, of Elmwood, who was appointed United States storekeeper at the distillery some time before the fire, arrived in the city Sunday and Monday morning went on duty.

Nebraska City is going to have a new opera house, costing $75,000 At a meeting of the board of trade Monday night $40,000 was subscribed and the remainder of the $75,000 is assured; work will be commenced in the spring.

The Omaha schools were closed Monday on account of the cold, but our schools were in session as usual. One of the teachers remarked that if Barr was of any account they would have had a vacation yesterday, but they were disappointed. The central building ing in pleasant games, and musicwith the exception of one room, was instrumental and vocal. Refreshwell heated, and in that room the pipe surface is not sufficient.

An exchange has this to say about loafers: "In the beginning neccessary to assure a pleasant and God created the heavens and the enjoyable time, and they improved earth, and all things therein. He the opportunity well. It was the then created man and woman and testimony of all that the geniality left the loafers on corners and in due time they multiplied and then Smith is rarely excelled. The spread into the postoffices and company disbanded about 1 o'clock depots and stores. In the latter a. m., each individual feeling that place they sit and explain great the evening had been profitably problems that have vexed great minds, and exist partially by sampling goods. While he is thus engaged his wife is out washing for her neighbors, and the poor helpless children are left at home, taking care of themselves as they can. There is nothing more noticeable than a loafer."

H. J. Streight has succeeded in getting the signal flags displayed where they can be seen. Yesterday afternoon he received permission from the county commissioners to put the flags on top of the court house. Then he found Mayor Richey and received permission from him to make the change. Mayor Richey informed the chief of police of the change and this morning they were swinging in the breeze from the flagpole of the new court house, in plain eight. People who want to know what kind of weather we are going to have can see now without having to run down to Main street.
