World's Fair Notes The "Columbian Catholic Congress" will be held at Chicago at the time of the exposition, beginning, as is now planned, on September 5, and continuing five days. It is expected that fully five thousand delegates from dioceses in the Unted States alone will be present, making a coupling in the B. & M. and that the number from Euroyards at this place, he caught his pean countries will be very large taries of the church. It is hoped the greatest and most representative in the history of the church. The progress and standing of the Catholic church in America and terday dissolved by mutual conthroughout the world, and the social and economic questions embraced in the pope's recent encyclical will be presented and discussed. The ceremonies attending the dedication of the exposition build ings, October 11, 12 and 13, 1892, are to be very elaborate and impressive. The committee having the matter in hand will devote $300,000 to that purpose. It is expected that the Johnny Might Have Had If He Had president of the United States and his cabinet, many of the senators and congressmen and governors of the states, numerous representatives of foreign governments, and 10,000 militia and several thousand regulars will be present. A dedication ode and marches, written for the occasion, will be rendered with full choral and orchestral accompaniment. Patriotic and other music. a dedicatory oration, a pageant of symbolical floats representing the "Procession of the Centuries," and magnificent displays of fireworks will be among the chief features of the program. Work on the Missouri Pacific thought he would take the prisoner bridge over the Platte has been over to the jail and come back and suspended for the present on account of the river having raised so high that the workmen cannot continue their work.

> Freight traffic over the M. P. was never so large as at the present time. The yards are blocked here every day to such an extent that it seems almost impossible for a train to get through them. The absence of the yard engine is felt keenly by the crews of the regular trains. -Weeping Water Eagle.

Train Dispatcher McGill is off duty. A combination of circumstances regarding train orders wherein a wreck was luckily avoided was the direct cause. We trust he will be reinstated. He is an old hand at the business and one of the best on the line .- Weeping Water Republican.

We are not prepared to state just when, but we hear that in the early spring Bird Critchfield will resign his positon as deputy county clerk and engage in the lumber business at some point, and that Brice Swearingen, the Missouri Pacific agent at Elmwood, will be appointed deputy clerk. Brice is quite popular and will make a good one .- Weeping Water Republican.

Why, this is not Elmwood; its Wabash." This was a corker. Words have not been invented sufficiently strong to describe the feelings of the sheriff as he shook the Wabash mud from his goloshes and proceeded on foot and alone, with a tie pass in his pocket, for his destination-Elmwood, which was reached in due time .- Weeping Water Eagle.

WHO WILL BE GOVERNOR?

A Disputed Point, Around Which the Next Great Struggle Promlses to Hinge.

The following is taken from the Lincoln Jouanal: The recent review of the status of the gubernatorial contest, as printed in the Journal of Wednesday morning, attracted considerable attention and has been generally approved by members of the legal fraternity as correct. Three or four lawyers were encountered, however, who expressed the opinion that, while the situation was correctly pictured as far as it went, it did not begin sufficently early in the controversy.

It will be remembered that in the interview referred to it was shown that Governor Thayer began proceedings to oust Governor Boyd on the ground that he was not a citizen; that Governor Boyd filed an answer alleging that his father was naturalized in 1854, and that he himself became a citizen when Nebraska was admitted as a state; that Governor Thayer filed a de-murrer, thereby admitting Boyd's allegation that his father was duly naturalized; when the Nebraska supreme court sustained the demurrer, thereby saying if all Boyd alleged were true it was not a good defense in the action. In this condition the case went to the United States supreme court; that the latter, without deciding that Boyd was a citizen, but instead holding that the records, because Thayer's admissions solely for the purpose of the demurrer, showed him to be a citizen because of his allegation that his father was duly naturalized, held that the demurrer should not have been sustained. The interview demonstrated that the court was evenly divided upon the showed that three of the seven ustic es who concurred in the opinclusively that his father was duly naturalized as stated. Wherefore it after to be appointed to succeed Justice Bradley would cast the deciding vote as to Boyd's citizenship or lack thereof, as it is very probable that Justice Bradley's successor will have been appointed ere the case can again reach the United States supreme court.

Several attorneys have since been encountered who have called at-board of health.

The building and all that was in it was lost, except a few books belonging to the company, which were taken from the building.

Contributions of Corn for Russia. P.

Nebraska's famine donations of corn for the famine stricken districts of Russia will be sent out from Omaha shortly in two special trains.

The portion contributed in the southern part of the state will be decarated by the business men of Lincolu.

Mr. Ludden, manager, and the governor's representatvie in the collection of donations, is desirous that Omaha should have an opportunity to decorate properly the cars donated north of the platte, all of which will be in the yards here in two or three days.

It has been suggested that the merchants will contribute muslins and that the painters of the city would gladly do the sign work. Anyone willing to assist in this matter as above contemplated will kindly notify the secretary of the board of trade at once. Mr. A. P. While this view of the situation commends itself as logical, still a large proportion of local attorneys consulted yesterday deny that it is at all a certainty that it is correct. Among them were some of the best attorneys in the city. The inquiry developed the belief among local attorneys that upon this very phase of the situation will occur the next exciting contest, Governor Boyd's friends will contend that he ought to be put back into the chair, just as he was before the demurrer was sustained by the Nebraska supreme court, ere the case goes any further. It is the belief of Governor Thayer's friends that his attorneys will oppose this. It was the general expression among attorneys consulted, however, that little could be surmised as to the probable settlement of the question until the mandate of the federal supreme court has been received and construed by the supreme court of Nebraska. It is also more or less generally conceded that, less Governor Boyd secures the seat in this manner, he never will be seated by virtue of the election of 1890, as the chances appear to be that, unless he can prove that his father was naturalized as claimed, which is deemed hardly probable, the federal court will not declare hun to have been a citizen.
