

Baby Gone
On Wednesday, February 10, little Lester, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Sanders, died of lung fever and pneumonia.
Little Lester's voice is hushed and still, He is no longer here;
Their home is desolate indeed Without that one so dear.
With him the birds of earth no'er: His work forever done.
But yet we know the bliss I heaven With him has just begun.
His losses we deeply feel Our hearts are sad and dreary.
But when we ween the bitter tear, Ma, the Holy Comforter be near.
Rest, little 'est' - in happiness rest. I know thou art happy In the realms of the blessed.
MRS. FISHER.

From Thursday's Daily
Councilman W. L. Brown is in Cedar Creek to-day on business.
Fred Schroeder, the Cedar Creek miller, is in the city to-day on business.

Councilman M. B. Murphy is confined to his room on account of sickness.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Sander occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Fred Patterson, mayor, of Rock Bluff, is in the city to-day transacting business with the county clerk.

Ernest Pfeiffer passed a first-class examination before the state board of pharmacy, and last evening his certificate arrived by mail, which is the cause of him looking so happy.

Architect W. M. Gray, of Lincoln was in the city over night, conferring with a committee from the Leidekrantz relative to their proposed new building. Mr. Gray returned home this morning.

T. E. Williams received the sad intelligence yesterday that his father living at Dawson this state, was lying at death's door and summoning him to his bedside. He accordingly left on No. 5 this morning.

H. N. Dovey is busy to-day moving his family into the Guthman property on Fourth Street. Dr. Dearing will move his family from Wabash the first of the week and will occupy the house vacated by H. N. Dovey.

The meeting of the Improved Stock Breeders' association to be held at Beatrice, Nebraska, February 16, 17 and 18, have secured one and one-third fares for the round trip on all roads. When you buy a ticket or your local agent, take a receipt from him, and that receipt will be honored as two-thirds of purchase price of your fare home.

RUSSIAN RELIEF TRAINS.

Banners That the Cars Starting From Omaha Will Fly.

The Union Pacific has consented to allow its cars that are loaded with grain and flour for the Russians to go through to the east without transferring the loads at Omaha. There are seven of these cars off the Union Pacific lines in Nebraska.

About six cars will be brought in by the Elkhorn road, and all of them will go east over the North-western.

The train from the South Platte country will be made up at Lincoln and will cross the river at Plattsmouth and go over the Burlington.

Before the train that is to be made up at Omaha leaves the city it will go through a course of trimming at the hands of the board of trade, and as it files eastward, will have on its sides such language as this: "Nebraska, the Home of King Corn."

"Nebraska can feed the World, 1891 Menu. 165,000,000 Bushels of Corn."

"Nebraska to Russia, Live and Help Live."

"Western Progress, Eastern Polish."

The cars will all be at Omaha in a few days.

The Girls' Choice.

A pleasant evening was spent last night at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Hilton in South Park. The young ladies gave a leap year party and high five held sway until 12 o'clock, when refreshments of a high order was served. Miss Rose Hyers and Tom Miller won the king prize and Miss Clara Green and Wendall Foster the booby prize. Following is a list of those present: Edith Patterson, Bert Holmes, Bessie Walker, Tom Miller, Gertrude Hilton, Frank Ballance, Lucile Simpson, Glen Carruth, Clara Green, Wendall Foster, Anna Sullivan, Chas. Sullivan, T. Vallery, Louis Vallery, Rose Hyers, Hal Johnson, Mollie Ballance, Gus Hyers, Mattie Smith, Will Cooledge.

J. A. Lantz is the name of a man who thought he had a corner on the whisky market, but officer McGuire gathered him under his protecting wings and landed him in the city bastle. This morning he was brought before Judge Archer who administered to him a severe reprimand and then it was thought necessary to assess him $5.00 and costs amounting in all to $11.80.

A GOOD PROSPECT.

Plattsmouth has a Good Show for a League Team—Let us "Get Together."

Is Plattsmouth to be one of the eight live cities of Nebraska this coming year, or not? That is the question that is irritating the minds of our base ball enthusiasts just at present. A city is not a real live, progressive energetic city unless it is afflicted with a large, full-grown, well developed ball club and we are going to be a live city or know the reason why. We will have a club and, if our wealth will only hold out, it will be a state league club. After much figuring and many sleepless nights our mathematical editor has arrived at the conclusion that about six or eight hundred dollars is all that is necessary to give us a first grade team. He has further arrived at conclusion that we are enthusiastic enough to cough up this amount this year and go in and knock the spots out of Kearney or Beatrice or any other thriving and progressive village that may bob up against us. For the nucleus of a club we have Miller, Perrine, the Pattersons and John Schulhoff. If that isn't nucleus enough we have never seen one. With six hundred dollars to start with, with a ball park already in good trim and with a reasonable amount of confidence there is no reason why we can't be in it. The next step on the program is for the president of the association to call a meeting of the stockholders and set the ball rolling. We can "get together" and start Plattsmouth out this year at the head of the procession where it belongs.

Attorney E. H. Wooley, of Lincoln, is in the city on business to-day.

W. H. Cushing and Fred Herrman were passengers for Omaha this morning.

O. H. Snyder, THE HERALD is pleased to note, is able to attend to business, after a siege with the gripe.

County Attorney Travis has rented the Dawson property on Winterstein hill and will move his family here.

Mrs. Harriet Critchfield, mother of Bird Critchfield and Mrs. S. Buzzell, left this morning on No. 4 for a visit with relatives in Shreve, Ohio.

W. A. Swearingen filed his bond in the sum of $10,000 to-day as deputy county clerk. The bond was signed by W. A. Swearingen, C. D. Clapp and Edwin Jeary.

Marriage licenses were issued last week in Chicago to John Zadajczkowski, Hankzek Kacnick, Tang Yong, Peoto Kanganski, Rozalia Manalyutz and Pawel Kyzetwrazk.

Mrs. Pool, living near Wabash, has been very sick with a gripe. She is the mother of W. H. Pool and quite elderly, so the disease went very hard with her.—Weeping Water Republican.

Mrs. H. D. Travis accompanied her husband to Plattsmouth last Thursday for the purpose of selecting a suitable dwelling in which to reside when they move down in the spring.—Weeping Water Republican.

A constable from Council Bluffs came down this morning and got a watch that a man had stolen and sold Frank Carruth & Son last December. The fellow also stole an overcoat. He was caught in Texas and is now in jail in Council Bluffs.

Among the many causes given for the Weeping Water church burning Monday the Republican gives the following: One is that the doctrines conflicted by the ministers exchanging pulpits on Sunday causing spontaneous combustion. During the fire some one accused Mr. Hindley of being the cause. He said he warmed things up but did not acknowledge doing the deed.

The report was circulated in our city that some parties in other places were making arrangements to move the sewing machine factory to Kearney, for the purpose of securing a big bonus. The truth of the matter is hard to learn, but should such be the case the parties undertaking the scheme will have some costly suits on their hands that will deter them for a time at least, as well as the righteous indignation of all our citizens. When J. Chase returns from Lincoln we will hear more about what will be done.—Weeping Water Republican

State Superintendent Goudy yesterday issued a circular to county superintendents asking for statistics in regard to private schools. Nothing of the kind has ever been compiled and the report will include all institutions of learning except the state university and state normal schools which are a part of the public school system. The superintendent has also sent out circulars urging school teachers to observe in some fitting manner the twenty-fifth anniversary of the state on March 1.

FREAK OF LOVERS.

They run Away From Weeping Papa and Mamma and get Married.

How the Course of True Love Leads Over Great Mountains of Difficulties.

Reports reaches this city yesterday of a social event at Union which is shaking that quiet village to its center. It is the elopement of two cousins named John W. A. Bird of Indiana, and Miss Osta Bird of that place, before the very eyes of the girl's parents.

Young Bird has been on a visit with his uncle. For some time the young people have showed a marked attachment for one another. Yet this occasioned little comment, for both are of highly respected parents, their fathers being brothers. Time has gone on and the mutual love of the two young people has grown apace. The girl, Miss Bird, however, was still young, and the idea that any serious intentions of marriage were entertained by young Bird, never entered the minds of her parents.

Yesterday the accumulating avalanche of love bore away the two fond lovers with it. They could not resist. They must become one just at the soonest possible moment. They asked Papa and Mamma Bird, but they refused, since they were not of sufficient age. The disappointed lovers put their heads together, and upon mature consideration jointly and severally, decided to elope like people did in books and newspapers. They started for the depot. They had plenty of time to catch the train and when they arrived there they sat down to chuckle over the great "shake" they were giving the old people. But while they were sitting there in serene bliss, who should appear but the ferocious parents. They had got wind somehow—through a jealous rival of Miss Bird it is thought—and hastened at once to the depot to head off the forward children. There worst fears were realized. There sat the conscientious ones, smirking sweetly, but with two tickets stamped for Nebraska City. It shocked the good old people; but their courage returned as soon as they recollect that these refractory ones were the same creatures whom they had spanked in former days for lesser offences. They girded themselves for the strife and set about to persuade by threats, then by tears and supplications their children from their mad course. But it availed not. The train came, and from under the very tearful noses of the parents they stepped upon the train platform and were spirited away in a trice.

They arrived at Nebraska City yesterday and proceeded to get the necessary license, and go through the perfunctory ceremony. It was a lot of fun although; and they enjoyed themselves hugely all afternoon. But it was ticklish business getting the license. Yet that was finally procured from Judge Easton, and they were married at the Central House by Justice White. The couple then took the train for Delaware county Indiana where the groom lives. There John has a farm and they will live as happy Hoosiers.—Nebraska City Press.

Skipped by the Light of the Moon. J. W. Bowman, who has been an employe of the B. & M. shops and also landlord of a boarding house in this city for some time, skipped out yesterday morning on the flyer, leaving several of our merchants with unpaid bills.

About one dozen young democrats gathered at the council chamber last evening. C. W. Sherman was made temporary chairman and Henry Herold, secretary. A committee on permanent organization was appointed consisting of Frank Morgan, C. M. Butler, C. C. Parmele, M. Archer and D. C. McEntee, a committee on constitution and one on finance was appointed. Adjournment was then taken until next Friday evening.

New South Wales has asked for 300,000 square feet of space.

County Commissioner Jacob Tritsch was in Omaha to-day on business.

John McCaig, one of Cass county's most prosperous farmers, is in the city to-day.

Superintendent G. W. Noble and wife are in the city to-day looking for a suitable house in which to move.

The watchmakers of Switzerland, at a recent convention in Berne, decided to make an exhibit at Chicago of their finest and costliest watches, but not to attempt any competition with American manufacturers in cheaper grades. They have applied to the Swiss council for financial and other aid to enable them to make a creditable exhibit.

A GALA NIGHT.

A Delightful Hop Given in the Oxford Dancing Club.

The Oxford dancing club gave their regular dancing party last evening at Rockwood. The club will give one more and then take a rest through lent. The music was furnished by the "Dago" orchestra of Omaha. Following is a list of those present: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coursey, Maggie Oliver, Janet Livingston, Verna Leonard, Dora Fricke, Nannie Moore, Maud Moore, Frankie Stiles, Ella Wright, Della Tartsch, Tressa Hempel, Manota Eikenbary, Georgia Oliver, Edith White, May Dutton, Carrie Grensel, Alice Eikenbary, Mary Skiles, Kittie Wharton, Bertha Nitka, A. V. Burke, Frank Johnson, John Schulhoff, Robt. Crozier, Chas. Vallery A. E. Reinhackel, Arch Coleman, Charles Richey, John Langston, Elmer Cole, Fred Fitch, Harry Green, Frank McCoy, Will Clement, Will Stadelman, Charles Murphy and Charles Sherman.

World's Fair Notes.

The North Carolina legislature failed to make an appropriation for a world's fair exhibit. Whereupon the state board of agriculture announced that it would undertake to provide all necessary means and superintend the collection of an exhibit that will be creditable to the state. It is the intention to have the state building at the exposition a reproduction of the state capitol.

The exposition authorities have tendered to the shoe and leather manufacturers a site for their desired building in which to make a united exhibit of the feather industry. A site was selected twice before, but had to be withdrawn owing to changes in construction plans. The site now offered is near the lake shore, not far from the dairy building. There is little doubt that the leather men will accept the site, and, if they do, they will put up a building 150x600 feet, costing $100,000.

A practical, working business college, which is purely an American institution, will be one of the exhibits at the fair.

In Colorado's exhibit will appear a very complete showing of the flora of the state. Miss Alida P. Lansing, who has been in charge of the matter, gathered more than 1,000 varieties last summer, including fifteen or more which had never been classified.

From Saturday's Daily.

Robert Dabb, of Le Mars, Iowa, came in last evening and will remain over Sunday.

R. C. Hines was walking with his head in the air yesterday, all on account of a big, healthy boy arriving at his home yesterday afternoon.

H. C. McMaken left last evening for Milford, Nebraska, where he will ship one hundred carloads of ice to Kansas City, and probably more.

The celebrated cow case will come up for its third hearing Wednesday in Judge Archer's court. By agreement of both parties the change was made.

A. K. Sutherland, living southeast of Elmwood, received a stroke of paralysis Tuesday afternoon in his right arm that has rendered that member useless. The doctors think the effect will go no further than the arm.—Elmwood Echo.

Adjutant-General Vifquain has addressed the following to Col. F. P. Ireland of Nebraska City: "You are hereby instructed to proceed to the capitol of the state of Iowa to escort his excellency, Governor Boies, to the city of Omaha, Nebraska, and to attend him an special aide-de-camp while in this state."

Judge Archer's court was occupied this forenoon with a case between The Continental Insurance Company vs. Rhoda H. Carnes. The suit was brought on a note for $72. The defense was that the note was a forgery and the evidence was such that Judge Archer gave the defendant a verdict. The defendant is from Greenwood.

As it seems to be in order for newspapers to suggest candidates for the various political offices of trust the Echo would suggest the name of Walter Cutforth, of Louisville, as one of the candidates for the legislature. He is a staunch republican, bears a sweeping influence and always uses his talent for the betterment of any and all causes. The republicans of Cass county can well afford a careful consideration of this proposition.—Elmwood Echo.

It is with pleasure we can officially announce the appointment of W. A. Swearingen as deputy county clerk for Frank Dickson. Mr. Dickson exhibited good sound judgment in his choice for we believe Mr. Swearingen is thoroughly competent and equally responsible

The Masquerade Ball.

The masquerade ball given last night by the Plattsmouth Turnerein was the most successful dance ever given by the boys. There were more than the usual quota of pretty costumes among the ladies and also the men. There were king and queens, flower girls, etc., and other attractive toilets lent a gay appearance to the evening's enjoyment. The floor was in charge of John Sattler and Emil Wurl.
