

PERSONAL MENTIONS.

Wall paper at Brown & Barretts. Frank Carruth left this morning for McCook. Hon. F. E. White was in Omaha to-day on business. F. S. White was in Omaha in an official capacity to-day. Hon. William Neville was a Lincoln passenger this morning on No. 5. Al Gass and John Jungquist, of Pacific Junction, were in the city to-day. George Huber of Louisville, this state, has removed to Quick, Iowa, with his family. Elder Errett returned to Lincoln this morning, after a short visit with his father-in-law, Captain Wiles. Colonel Hyde, editor of the Lincoln News, and a Mr. Graham, also of Lincoln, were in the city yesterday. Latest things in wall paper at Brown & Barretts. The pay car arrived on the K. C. this morning. Wall paper! Wall paper! at Gering & Co's. The B. & M. received two more new switch engines this morning. You should see Brown & Barretts stock of wall paper. The Daughters of Rebecca will hold a basket social at the S. of V. hall to-night. Remember JOE is the only Clothier that handles Wilson Bros. Furnishing Goods, exclusively. Conductor Hall has resumed his run on the flyer, after a lay-off on account of sickness. It is town talk that Brown & Barretts is the only place to find a new and complete stock of wall paper. An eight-pound girl made its appearance at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Farthing last evening. If you want to see the latest style of hats, go to JOE the popular One Price Clothier. The democratic city convention will be held next Friday night, instead of Saturday. Paints, oils, and varnishes at Brown & Barretts. Harvey W. Beaver and Miss Ollie Andrews were married by Rev. J. T. Baird last Sunday at Cedar Creek. Gering & Co have just received a large invoice of wall paper, for the spring house cleaning. There will be an auction sale of the estate of the late J. V. Weckbach to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, in front of the court house. Finest line of wall paper in the city at Brown & Barretts. The wind to-day blew so hard that it blew a section of the bill boards down on the west side of the opera house. New spring goods arriving every day at JOE's your clothier. The Hotel Paddock at Beatrice caught fire last evening, but it was put out before any damage was done to amount to anything. A committee met at Judge Ramsey's office last evening and selected 300 volumes of standard literature to be placed in the public library. Gering & Co. have the finest line of spectacles in the city and can suit the eyes of both the old and young. The contest case of Ackland Salisbury has been set for trial Friday, March 11, 1892. The case of Edson vs. William Tighe is set for Friday, March 18. The entertainment given last night at the M. E. church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. drew a very fair audience, who listened to a well selected and well executed program. Millions of people can find their wall paper at Brown & Barretts. Will Streight has, after several years of labor and study, invented a remedy that he guarantees to drive away the worst case of the "blues." For further particulars call on or address W. J. Streight, Plattsmouth. Irene for the complexion, most useful toilet made, is highly medicated and perfumed. Removes pimples; makes the skin clear and velvety. 50 cents at Brown & Barretts and O. H. Remember a councilman from each ward and delegates to the city convention are to be selected. WANTED—A girl to do general housework. Good wages. 23-tf MRS. W. J. HESSEK.

THE BOYD-THAYER CONTEST.

Further Proceedings Therein Probable—Where is the Mandate? Developments of yesterday lead those interested in the Thayer-Boyd contest to believe without doubt that the case will be reopened, that is, providing the mandate from the United States court permits of such action. The non-arrival of the mandate is something of a mystery and is to be looked into. It is known that James H. McKinney, clerk of the United States supreme court, placed it in the hands of Judge Garland on the fourth day of March, supposing that it would be forwarded. Whether or not it was sent to Governor Boyd's attorneys instead of to the clerk of the Nebraska court, as is sometimes done, is not known, but the document is not forthcoming. It has never reached the court upon which it is an order and whose acts it is designed to direct. It is now thought that Governor Thayer will await the mandate and act accordingly, but he declines to express himself. It is known that unlimited means have been volunteered by certain gentlemen. Several prominent Nebraskans are interesting themselves in the case, and the talk is that it is to be pushed and the question of citizenship delved into a little deeper. —Lincoln Journal.

OPTION BILL PASSED.

By a Certain Majority the Senate Decides in Favor of Local Regulation. The Iowa prohibition law was practically wiped out of existence yesterday. The state senate yesterday afternoon by a vote of 27 to 22 adopted the Gatch bill, which allows county option, each community being given the right to settle the liquor question for itself by elections to take place not oftener than every five years. The matter can be brought up only by petition of one-fifth of the legal voters. Three republican senators sided with a number of democrats in the passage of the bill. There is little doubt that the measure will receive the approval of Governor Boies and become a statute. An acrimonious debate preceded the final roll call, the question at issue being as to where rested the political responsibility for the bill. The announcement of the vote was received quietly, but with signs of relief by the big audience present.

AMUSEMENTS

"Fogg's Ferry" by the Vincents—An Able Presentation. The Vincent company last night presented "Fogg's Ferry" at the Waterman to a very small audience. The play is familiar to the Plattsmouth public and, consequently, no review of its plot and characters is necessary. In the role of "Chip," the heroine of the play, Eva Vincent demonstrated that she is well fitted to fill soubrette parts. Her singing was especially enjoyable. As a soubrette she is of the Mattie Vickers order, and is as capable as Miss Vickers. As "Mother Fogg," Adrienne Mitchell scored a success. Cora Clark, as "Martha Blodgett," the simpering young girl, won well merited applause. Linc Libbey and Will Robyns, in their respective characters, with their singing, showed very marked ability. What was said of Felix Vincent and J. D. Bernard in last night's HERALD applied with increased force to their acting last night. Mr. Vincent is certainly one of the best comedians on the American stage to-day. Mr. Bernard played the character of "Bruce Rawdon," the heavy villain, last night, and in every respect he was a success. The remainder of the cast showed a vast improvement over their acting of the night before, and it is a matter of regret that our people did not turn out in larger numbers to witness what is really one of the best companies that has showed at the Waterman, at any price. At the prices which this combination charges they should fill the house. They are superior to nearly all of the higher priced companies that have played here this season. To-night they present "Inshavogue," a well known Irish play, and if last night's performance can be taken as a criterion, it will be presented in a very capable manner and is deserving of a full house.

Eigenbroadt-Irish. At the residence of the bride's parents in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, March 9th, 1892, at 9:30 a. m. Mr. Arthur D. Eigenbroadt and May Bird Irish were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock, Judge Ramsey, officiating. The groom is and has been for a number of years a trusted employe of the B. & M. and one of Plattsmouth's most popular young men. The bride was born and reared to womanhood in Plattsmouth, and her charming manners and graceful womanhood have always made her one of the most popular young ladies in the city. THE HERALD joins with their many happy friends in wishing the couple many happy years of success.

World's Fair Notes. One of the most remarkable features of the exposition will be a series of religious congresses from August 25 through the month of September, 1893. The chairman of the general committee, Rev. John Henry Barrows, of Chicago, has associated with him members of sixteen different religious organizations. They have invited the representatives of all the great historic religions to confer together and to show what light religion has to throw on the great problems of the age. Their plan has met the approval of Mr. Gladstone, Cardinal Gibbons, the poets Holmes and Whittier, Archbishops Ireland and Ryan, Professor Drummond, Professor Godet, of Switzerland; Rabbi Maybaum, of Berlin; Justice Amerc Ali, of Calcutta; President Washburn, of Robert College, Constantinople, Bunyin Nanjje, a learned Buddhist, of Japan, and scores of the leading scholars of America and Great Britain.

Brown & Barrett were successful in securing the agency for Nebraska of the only house in the U. S. who make a specialty of new designs of wall paper for city trade. But the Chickens Kept Right on Coming Back. Dr. S. C. Martin, Jr., of Argonaut Rowing Club fame, told an interesting incident of an experience of his, says the St. Louis Republic, while traveling in California some years ago. "We were stranded in Frisco," said the doctor, "dead broke and ashamed to write home. Things became desperate with us, and at last I decided to 'shake' the other fellows and strike out for myself. I secured passage on one of the steamships running between Frisco and some of the small places along the coast, for the price of my watch, which I sold. "Arriving at a small mining and timber town I secured a position as waiter at the Metropolitan hotel, the only hotel in the camp, an imposing frame structure. The landlord employed me at $10 a week, and charged me $15 a week for board, and the night of my arrival myself and a German named Fritz, who was in the same boat with me, were stowed away in an old kitchen, or shed, which had not been used for some time. About midnight I was awakened by Fritz, who was swearing softly to himself. "A moment later I discovered the cause of his annoyance. He had found the room to be the roosting place of the fowls, and was busily engaged throwing frightened chickens and ducks out of the window. After he had been engaged in this manner for some fifteen minutes, and the place seemingly as full of fowls as ever, I thought to examine into the cause. "On looking out of the window where Fritz was throwing the fowls I saw there was an opening for them to enter just below the window, with a plank for them to walk up wide enough for two fowls. Up this plank in procession, two by two, came the fowls Fritz was throwing out. As fast as they were ejected they re-entered. We gave up trying to clear the room that night, you may be sure, and the next morning we decamped."

The population of Plattsmouth is about 10,000, and we would say at least "neo-half are troubled with some affection on the throat and lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others.
