You should see Brown & Barrett's stock of wall paper.

A firm from Des Moines, Iowa will start a bakery in this city in the Anheuser-Busch building as soon as the building can be made ready. Workmen are busy to-day repairing the room and building an oven.

Millions of people can find their wall paper at Brown & Barrett's.

The York Daily Press found its way to our exchange table yesterday. The paper is published by Casper & Rawalt and is a four-column folio. The paper is well gotten up and the only criticism THE HERALD has to make is that it is a democratic paper. The publishers say in their announcement that "the Press is democratic in every fibre."

Paints, oils, and varnishes at Brown & Barrett's.

The Parisian Millinery company has succeeded Dawson & Pearce and now have their agents in the east selecting a new stock of goods to place in the store-room formerly occupied by their predecessors in the Riley block. They will have all the latest styles and novelties in the millinery line, at eastern prices. Ladies of Plattsmouth and vicinity can rest assured that they can get eastern prices here and not have to go away from home for their goods.

It is town talk that Brown & Barrett's is the only place to find a new and complete stock of wall paper.

A goodly number of people assembled last night in the new reading rooms to inspect the fine collection of books recently placed there by the Excelsior Library Bureau of Chicago. Subscribers expressed themselves well pleased with the collection, consisting of over three hundred volumes, which have been approved and accepted by the Y. L. R. R. A. in behalf of the city. Mr. Thompson deserves credit for the systematic and efficient way in which the business has been transacted.

APPLICATION FOR RE-OPENING.

Gov. Thayer Through His Attorneys Makes Application for the Re-opening of the Case

This morning's Lincoln Journal contains the following concerning the celebrated governorship case: Governor Teayer yesterday commenced the last step in the celebrated governorship case which was instituted more than a year ago to test the citizenship of Governor James E. Boyd, who was elected to fill the chair of chief executive of Nebraska. The step taken is in the form of a motion for reopening the case, which was dismissed March 16, by the supreme court of Nebraska. None of Governor Thayer's attorneys appear in his behalf. Argument on the motion will be heard March 29. The motion is as follows: State of Nebraska ex rel John M. Thayer vs. James E. Boyd—Motion: Now comes the state of Nebraska upon relation of John M. Thayer and moves the court, to wit: First—That the judgement of this court, entered herein March 16, 1892, on the mandate of the supreme court of the United States, and that the defendant go hence without day and recover his costs and that execution be awarded therefore, be recalled, vacated, and set aside. Second—That the said relator be given leave to file a reply to the answer of defendant; and Third—That thereupon this case be set for trial.

JOSEPH H. BLAIR, CHARLES A. GOSS, M. B. REESE, Attorneys for Relator.

Accompanying the motion was the following notice which was served on Governor Boyd:

State of Nebraska ex rel John M. Thayer vs. James E. Boyd—quo warranto—notice.—To James E. Boyd, defendant: You are hereby notified that on Tuesday, the 29th day of March, 1892, at the opening of court in the forenoon of that day or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, the state of Nebraska upon relation of John M. Thayer will move the court to set aside the judgement entered in said cause on the 16th day of March, and for leave to file a reply; and that the cause be set down for trial. A copy of said motion is hereto attached and is herewith handed you.

JOSEPH H. BLAIR, CHARLES A. GOSS, M. B. REESE, Attorneys for Relator.

The report that Governor Boyd's attorneys will, on the 29th, appear and attempt to prove that the United States court in rendering an opinion in this case settled the matter of Governor Boyd's citizenship, has been the means of arousing renewed interest in the matter. They expect to produce the record of the vote on the various points in the opinion to prove these allegations.

A WRECK AT DAVID CITY.

B. & M. and U. P. Engines Crash Together at a Crossing.

A bad wreck occurred at David City yesterday about two o'clock on the B. & M. and U. P. crossing. Two freight engines were badly smashed the B. & M. being thrown from the track, the front trucks of the U. P. resting upon it. The train men jumped and saved themselves just before the crash came. The B. & M. engine and tender were the only ones thrown from the track, though that of the U. P. is off the rails. Wrecking trains were sent for and the track will soon be cleared so that other trains will be but little delayed.

High School Notes.

This year's senior class has an advantage over former classes in the teacher's review course, which is a review of arithmetic, grammar, geography and U. S. history under Prof. Halsey's instruction. Ten weeks are given to each subject, and methods of teaching suggested. Several post-graduates are taking the course.

Each of the classes in the High School is preparing some practical work for exhibition at the end of the year. The girls of the sophomore class are making an aquarium 4x2½. Some of them are very good carpenters.

The High School had a pronouncing match on St. Patrick's day. They are making good improvement in spelling and penmanship under Prof. Musgrave's instruction.

A nice class is being prepared by Miss Clark for entrance to the High School next year.

The scholars who come from other districts to our school have generally a wholesome influence over the pupils of this district, as they are honest, faithful, hard working students, and appreciate their advantages.

The American school house and the American school are the forts and garrisons of this republic.

District Court.

The jury returned a verdict of $20 in favor of the plaintiff in the Baer Fleming case yesterday afternoon.

E. W. Murlless vs. the county county commissioners has been occupying the attention of Judge Chapman to-day. The attorneys are arguing the case as we go to press.

THE GUILTY PAIR.

They are Found by the Father and an Officer.

When the Press gave the particulars of the elopement of Walter Palmer and Miss Snowden in Sunday's issue, it had not yet learned whether the guilty pair had flown. However Mr. Isaac Snowden was not minded to allow his daughter to escape from home so unceremoniously and without making some effort to find her.

Accordingly, in company with Officer Zack White, Mr. Isaac Snowden set out Sunday afternoon for Rulo at a venture, knowing that place to be the home of young Palmer's parents. They arrived in that place at about eleven o'clock and set out at once to Palmer's father's house. They had struck the right trail. They found the guilty but happy pair; but they had the marriage license, which effectively shut off all protests on the father's part.

The little ruse succeed in every particular. The parental anger was foiled and the venturesome end attained. It is said that the young couple will spend their conjugal life in this city and that they will arrive in a few days. Such is the happy ending of a love story.—Press.

"TWO OLD CRONIES."

Anderson's Unique Comedians a Company of Stars—They Delight a Large Audience.

It is seldom that the Plattsmouth public has been permitted to enjoy the acting of so fine a company as Anderson's comedians. This superb organization presented the rejuvenated farce-comedy, "Two Old Cronies," at the Waterman last night to a large and appreciative audience. The comedy has been rewritten since its former production here, and, as seen last night, it was execrably funny. It was presented by artists who were stars in their line. In fact every member of the troupe is a star. To particularize and give any one member mention would only serve to do the others an injustice. A. H. Wilson and E. J. Heffernan, the two old cronies, kept the house in a continual howl of laughter by their droll talk and antics. J. H. Macke, Harry C. Dietz and Lindsay Morrison were also fine. Mr. Morrison's bass solo was excellent. Miss Ada Deaves fully deserves her reputation as an actress. She is certainly as versatile and able an actress as any that have visited our city in years. Miss Fanny Bloodgood and Miss Florence Myatt are also excellent and versatile actresses. The Sisters Don are very fine dancers and deserved the warm encores they received. Only two of them appeared here, as Miss Lizzie Don is sick in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Taken as a whole, the performance was superb.

World's Fair Notes.

New Jersey has increased its world's fair appropriation from $20,000 to $70,000.

The Russian government has adopted a very liberal policy toward the exposition. Information has been received at headquarters that the minister of finance with the approval of the Emperor, has decided to pay all freight relations on Russian exhibits for the fair, to insure the exhibit and to decorate the Russian section. The Imperial Porcelain factory is making ware of special designs to be shown at the fair.

"Our Irish Visitors."

It is with pardonable pride that the opera house management informs the patrons of the Waterman that the attraction for next Saturday will be Thomas E. Murray, in "Our Irish Visitors." This simple announcement in itself is sufficient to insure a full house; but for the benefit of those who have forgotten the excellence of this strong attraction, it may not be out of place to refresh their memory. Mr. Murray was the leading member of the comedy firm of Murray & Murphy, who, in "Our Irish Visitors," and under the management of J. M. Hill, became famous throughout the United States. Mr. Murray possesses an Irish dialect so droll, peculiar and funny, that it has no equal on the stage, although numerous comedians have tried to imitate. Then again his manners and actions are peculiar to himself, and are extremely ludicrous. In the role of Colonel, alias "Lord" Gilhooley, Mr. Murray has wide scope in which to display his execrable comedy efforts. The fun begins with his first entrance, and ripples along uninterrupted to the closing climax. This season he is adding new laughs to his big stock of old ones. The play, "Our Irish Visitors," is very funny without partaking of the nature of a farce-comedy. The fun is relieved at intervals by clever, bright and pleasing specialties by the members of the company. These specialties, which are introduced at proper intervals, include the brightest and latest musical gems, and jolly, jovial songs and dances. The present company is by far the strongest and best that has ever appeared in "Our Irish Visitors." It includes Katie Rooney, the talented daughter of the famous Pat Rooney, and some of the brightest lights on the comedy stage.
