

REPUBLICANS CONVENE.

The State Republican Convention Meets Today.

AND IS A PRETTY POLITICAL GAME

Richards and Cobb Certain of Selection, While Webster, of Omaha Will Get Third Place The Fourth Man is Uncertain.

The republican state convention meets in Kearney to-day for the purpose of electing four delegates at large to the national convention. The following is taken from the State Journal:

There are more politicians in Kearney to-night than ever before, and she has seldom entertained so large a crowd. Arrangements by the local committee as perfected provided for a crowd of not over 1,200. One thousand are accommodated by private families and societies, which have furnished a block with cots. Business houses are gaily decorated and every attention is shown. The Midway hotel is headquarters, with the rotunda crowded, and the discussions are earnest but exceedingly good humored, indicative of an harmonious convention. Tom Majors and Joseph Bartley are circulating among their friends, while G. W. E. Dorsey is working hard in someone's interest. The congressional candidates present are Dorrington, Whitehead and Stone from the Sixth and McPheely from the Fifth.

The evening trains brought in most of the eastern delegates, who were met by bands. Richards came in this evening. The sentiment is that he will undoubtedly be elected. John L. Webster and Judge Cobb are likely to be elected without difficulty. The fourth place is one of possibilities, Colonel E. D. Webster of Hitchcock, J. L. Keck of Buffalo, Judge Church of Lincoln, W. H. Needham of Bloomfield, Judge Heist of Cheyenne, E. L. Dorrington of Dawson being mentioned, with Colonel Webster or Heist the most probable.

The Midway hotel rotunda was a confused mass of delegates all the evening and many rooms upstairs were occupied for consultation. There was a good deal of talking but so far as surface indications counted the situation was little changed. There are a few on the Omaha delegation that are trying to raise a kick on Webster, but the majority of the delegation say no serious trouble is feared. Rosewater engaged a room here two or three days ago but cancelled the order to-night. Several of his followers are here but are getting little sympathy.

The Evening Hub published this evening an editorial telegraphed by Rosewater, headed, "Can Webster be Trusted," which will be printed in to-morrow's Bee. It was prefaced by the following telegram:

OMAHA, Neb., April 26.—Will you publish an editorial that will appear tonight, "Can Webster be Trusted." Answer quick and will wire it prepaid.

[Signed.] OMAHA BEE.
Editor Brown said the editorial was published mostly to give Rosewater a fair show and he closed by saying that so far as the Hub is concerned it has none of the fears that the Bee expresses. It is willing to trust Webster, Rosewater or any other republican at the national convention. This expression is about the feeling of delegates to the convention as expressed in conversation at 11 o'clock to-night. Some were willing to say that Webster would be elected.

The endorsement of Keck by the Sixth district convention to-night may play some part in deciding the question.

Interest in the Rosewater fight is added by the fact that his name has been mentioned for the national committee. The suggestion does not strike the delegates generally as favorable.

The state central committee held a lengthy session to-night and decided on a temporary organization as follows: Chairman, Brad Slaughter; secretary, F. G. Simmons of Seward; assistant secretary, Eugene Moore of Norfolk.

Wilsely Bound Over.

Charles S. Wilsely, the gay and festive sewing machine agent, who was arrested last week at Seward on the charge of bigamy, had his preliminary examination yesterday before Judge Miner at Seward. Wife No. 1, of this city, was present and swore that they were married at Maryville, Mo., June 17, 1889. Also other damaging testimony was introduced. Wilsely was bound over to the next term of district court and his bonds were fixed at $2,000, which he was unable to give, and he was remanded to jail.

Capt. H. E. Palmer and wife and son, George, came down from Omaha to attend the funeral of Father Hays.

Silver Anniversary.

The meeting of the citizens of the state held at Lincoln Monday night, seem to be taking a lively interest in the celebration. It will be the greatest historical celebration Nebraska has ever seen. About forty towns in all parts of the state were represented, and that, too, by men whose names alone are sufficient pledge for the successful completion of anything they undertake. The Lindell hotel was thrown open to the committee and guests, and the reputation of Lincoln for hospitality was not allowed to suffer.

The address of welcome by Mayor Weir was responded to by Secretary Nason of the Omaha board of trade. Afterwards C. A. Atkinson of the Lincoln board of trade gave in detail the program for the celebration as it has been discussed. Of course in many of the minor particulars it has not been settled. In the main it will follow the lines which have been given in these columns heretofore.

Speeches were made by R. B. Windham of Plattsmouth, Editor A. L. Bixby of the Columbus Sentinel, Dr. Alexander of Norfolk, W. H. Dickinson of Wahoo, ex-Lieutenant Governor Shedd of Ashland and others, all pledging the hearty cooperation of their cities and sections. It was voted on the suggestion of one of the visitors that funds be raised by popular subscription for the purchase of an appropriate souvenir of the anniversary celebration, to be placed in the state house as a lasting memorial.

John Dillon.

Completely cured of any appetite for the flowing bowl, John Dillon, supported by a capable company, will appear at the opera house next Friday night, April 29. After a rest of some weeks at his comfortable home on Evans avenue, in Chicago, Mr. Dillon joined the throng at Dr. Keeley's wonderful chloride of gold establishment in Dwight, Ill., and now it is said that nothing will tempt him to take a drink. Mr. Dillon is pre-eminently the funniest of the laugh makers and there is abundant opportunity in his plays, the new "State's Attorney," and "Wanted the Earth," to set everybody in a roar. Reserved seat sale will open to-morrow morning. Price 75 cents.

The following were present: Miss Nanie Moore, Miss Alice Atkins, Miss Kattie Cummins, Miss Verna Leonard, Miss Putnam, Miss Ella Clark and Messrs. Chas. Sherman, Chas. Murphy, Frank Cummins, Emmil Wurl and Will Clements.

PADDOCK'S GOOD WORK.

Nebraska's Militia Expense—Fort Sidney Not to be Vacated.

The following specials to the Lincoln Journal make up a pretty good record for one day:

While Senator Manderson was in the chair Friday morning Senator Paddock called up the bill which directs the secretary of the treasury to audit and pay the actual and necessary expenses incurred by and for the national guard of the state of Nebraska, called into the service of the state by Governor Thayer last year during the Sioux outbreak, on presentation by the governor or other proper authorities of the state of statements of the actual and necessary expenses incurred by the state, accompanied, as far as possible, with the proper vouchers and satisfactory proofs. The sum of $42,000 is appropriated. It is provided that the pay and allowances to the Nebraska National Guard shall not exceed the pay and allowances of the army of the United States. The bill was passed without any extraordinary amount of trouble on the part of either of the senators from Nebraska.

Upon the personal solicitations of Senator Paddock, based on letters of N. M. Neeves and others of Cheyenne county, the secretary of war with the concurrence of Major General Schofield, rescinded the order for the removal of the garrison at Fort Sidney. He declined to increase the force there at the present time, but intimates that there is a possibility that later on additional troops may be ordered to the post.

Senator Paddock also succeeded in securing the passage of a bill for the relief of Esther J. Booth. This case is a very meritorious one as shown by Dr. H. B. Lowery, president of the board of examining surgeons at Lincoln, Neb. A pension of $12 per month was granted her for the valuable services which she rendered the government during the war as a nurse.

Nehawka News Notes.

Farmers are not all through yet sowing oats and barley.

J. M. Stone and A. F. Ost are shipping cattle to Omaha to-day.

L. C. Pollard returned last week from a visit to Kansas and Missouri.

Fields of winter wheat and rye in this section look splendid and promise a bountiful crop.

Spring wheat is coming up nicely but it will be at least three weeks behind the fall sown in ripening for harvest.

The amount of eggs standing about in tubs and boxes would indicate that the hens are getting in good work.

The usual Sunday rain was on time yesterday. It was, however, a gentle April shower. Such as we read about.

The citizens are hopefully expecting a plentiful supply of pure water in the near future. The plan is to pump the water from a spring into a reservoir, which will be built on the high ground north of town. The work is well under way. The windmill which is to furnish the power is up and the reservoir at the spring is completed.

Already Nehawka has one suburb known as East Nehawka or "The Quarries." When we get another one we will want street railroads. Indeed, something of the kind is in demand now to bring the farmers in and wait them home again, some of whom seem to have business or make an excuse to come to town every day, and it takes time and a team to come. But with lines of telephone and rapid transit radiating out, farmers might dwell in town and on the farm by proxy. JUNIUS.

Mexico's exhibit will include a number of fine work's of art. Casts are being made of the sacrificial stone, the God of War, the Goddess of Water, the Calender Stone and other Aztec relics, now in the Mexican National Museum. From the national art gallery, which has a very large collection of paintings, a number of the best works will be sent to Chicago. Among them will be the representation of Hidalgo, the "George Washington of Mexico," which was exhibited at the Paris exposition.

The women of Cincinnati have asked for a room in the woman's building, which they wish to furnish and decorate throughout in a distinct and separate manner as illustrative of the culture and art of that city.

John Longmaker, Louis Wheeler and Jerry Sullivan were arraigned in police court this morning, charged with breaking in a box car in the B. & M. yards yesterday afternoon. All three of them plead not guilty to the charge. Judge Archer let them off with paying the costs if they would immediately sever their connections with Plattsmouth, which they agreed to do.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago Ill.
