PRELIMINARY HEARING.

Alvin Gay Was Bound Over to the District Court.

NOTHING IN THE SMALL POX SCARE

Two Immigrants Arrived Yesterday Who Have Been Exposed to Small Pox--Other News.

From Monday's Daily.

Alvin Gay (real name unknown) had his preliminary hearing this afternoon before Judge Archer.

The state examined several witnesses and the testimony was sufficient to cause Judge Archer to hold him until the next term of the district court, under $1,000 bonds, which he was unable to give.

H. M. Stickney, manager of the Brunswick hotel in Omaha, where Gay was arrested, testified that the prisoner came into the hotel a week ago last Saturday and wanted to sell him some postage stamps. Mr. Stickney asked him where he got the stamps and he said he was in the furniture business near the hotel and received more stamps than he had use for; also said that he would sell them at a sacrifice. Mr. Stickney told him to come around the first of the week and he would buy some of him.

Gay made his appearance next Tuesday and made a sale of $1 worth of stamps. He was just making the transfer when arrested.

Other witnesses testified to seeing him in the city the night of the robbery and they were positive that they had never seen him since.

The defence produced no witnesses. The prisoner was defended by Attorney Crane of Omaha, and S. P. Vanatta of this city.

Exposed to Small-Pox.

Mayor Butler received a letter yesterday from Secretary of State Allen saying that a couple of immigrants had landed at New York enroute for Plattsmouth and that they had been exposed to small-pox and to take the necessary steps when they arrived. The couple arrived yesterday and are cousins of Joe Wurga. Mr. Wurga secured a house for them to live in by themselves. There is no danger as both of the newcomers have been successfully vaccinated. They were only exposed to the disease so there will be no use of getting scared.

J. H. Haldeman of Weeping Water is in the city to-day.

W. G. Noble departed for points in Colorado this morning.

Rev. J. T. Baird was an Omaha passenger this morning.

M. M. Beal is doing a job of painting in Pacific Junction to-day.

Judge Chapman left this morning for a short visit at Norton, Kansas.

Gering & Co. carry the largest stock of wall paper and paints of any firm in the city.

Stewart Livingston arrived home from Ann Arbor Saturday night to spend the summer vacation.

The old saying "that if it rained on Easter Sunday it would rain seven Sundays thereafter" failed, as yesterday was the only nice Sunday for several months.

The first marriage license issued by Judge Ramsey since moving into the court house was issued this morning to Harry Pearson and Miss Rachel S. Reasoner, both of Salt Creek precinct.

The dwelling house of Thos. Sullivan near this city, was struck by lightning Saturday between 11 and 12 o'clock. No damage was done except demolishing the chimney and scaring the inmates.

Steve Buzzell was the possessor of a fine Jersey milch cow up to this morning. Last Friday he started her in the herd and he failed to see her again until this morning when he found her on high school hill. After chasing her for an hour trying to capture her he finally cornered her near the bell tower on the bank. Thinking he had the cow for sure he made for her, but she was not to be caught so easy' but jumped down the bank, a distance of about thirty feet, breaking her fore leg. After trying to capture the then infuriated beast that was hobbling on three legs a man by the name of Jim Patrick lassoed her and he had a narrow escape from the cow catching him. Mr. E. W. Gibson has the cow now in his barn and is going to try to have the broken leg put in a plaster paris jacket.

Gering & Co. are headquarters for everything in the druggist line.

Married at Omaha.

The last act in the celebrated Winch divorce case was enacted today in Omaha. Seth F. Winch, the defendant in the above case, was married to Jennie Mitchell, the woman who has been keeping house for him for a long time past.

From Tuesdays Daily.

A dispatch to the Lincoln Journal, dated at Hot Springs, S. D., says: The boiler of engine No. 178, attached to train No. 45, B. & M., exploded between Edgemont and Newcastle. Fireman Rinehart was killed, Engineer Wilson will die and brakeman Woodberry was badly hurt. No wheels left the track. No one else was injured.

The cause of the explosion is a mystery. The train had come over the divide and was on the down grade. The boiler was lifted off the trucks and thrown ahead 250 feet, striking about twenty feet from the track. Other portions of the engine were scattered for 300 feet on either side, while the grass and sage brush was flattened and blackened for some distance.

Neither engineer or fireman recovered consciousness. The engine was built by the Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia. It was an eight wheeler of the style known to trainmen as a "hog."

Committees Appointed.

The board of education held their first meeting since the new members were sworn in last night. President Bennett announced the committees for the ensuing year as follows:

Grounds and Buildings—William Ballance, S. A. Davis and S. Waugh. Supplies—J. I. Unruh, C. D. Cummins and S. A. Davis.

Teachers and Text Books—S. A. Davis, S. Waugh and J. I. Unruh.

Printing—C. D. Cummins, J. I. Unruh and William Ballance.

Finance—S. Waugh, William Ballance and C. D. Cummins.

The Trains Delayed.

The rain last night done considerable damage along the B. & M. between South Bend and Ashland—in a cut—the bank caved in, covering the track but was cleared up in time for the Schuyler to pass. Between Bellevue and Omaha the damage done was a good deal worse. The high bank caved in, delaying the trains. No. 6 due here at 12:35 last night has not arrived. A large force of men were at work moving the dirt and the trains will be running on time by this evening.

DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE

Afflicts a Well-Known Merchant. Itching and Burning Terrible. Doctors and All Remedies Fail.

Tries Cuticura. Relieved by the First Application and Entirely Cured in Five Weeks.

About eighteen months ago a small speck appeared on my ankle; it resembled a fish scale; it became larger, and I consulted a physician who pronounced it psoriasis or monied disease, because it resembled money. I applied an ointment, but it spread until at last it covered almost my entire body. My suffering was something terrible, itching and burning sensation continually until it became almost unendurable. I suffered tortures especially at night, and for two months I was compelled to sleep with gloves on. I became desperate. I would have given anything to be relieved of the itching sensation. I tried a number of remedies without any relief. I was requested to try CUTICURA; this I did, and to my great surprise, I was relieved after the first application. I used the CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT according to directions for about four or five weeks when I was entirely cured. But what a relief it was to me after the suffering I went through. I cannot speak with too much favor for the "CUTICURA REMEDIES," and I would recommend it to all those who are suffering from the same disease that I have suffered. JOHN T. MELROY,
of MELROY BROTHERS, Wyandotte, Mich.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Following are the resolutions passed by St. Luke's Altar Guild upon the death of Mrs. J. E. Barwick:

WHEREAS, It has pleased God to take from us our beloved and faithful member, Lillian, wife of Mr. J. E. Barwick, on the tenth day of May, 1892, in the twenty-second year of her age, and

WHEREAS, This Guild truly knows that in the untimely removal of our dear member, the bereaved husband and parents, for whom we entertain abiding regard, have lost a wife and daughter alike noble in excellence of character and person, a young woman indeed adorned with all those winsome and charming domestic graces, through which the home is most hallowed and glimpses of Heaven are alone possible to the dwellers of earth;

Resolved, That this society as one individual, esteems it a sorrowful privilege, and begs to convey to the heart-broken husband and parents the assurance of its unfeigned sympathy, and invoke for them such unequalled consolation as the hallowed memory of a young life can afford.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the books of St. Luke's Altar Guild, that the daily papers be requested to publish them and that a copy be sent to the sorrowing husband and parents.

John H. Holliday, editor and chief owner of the Indianapolis News, has sold out his interest in the paper to William Henry Smith and Charles R. Williams. Smith is manager of the United States Press association and Williams has been connected with the New York World for a long time as an editorial writer. They retained the services of Arthur W. Peterson, who has been in charge of the advertising department for the last seven years and under whose charge the advertising business has doubled and is still growing. Mr. Peterson has a first-class reputation as a newspaper man. He is a brother of O. M. Peterson of this city.

A disagreement has arisen between Julius Pepperberg and force of his cigar makers, resulting in the cigar makers not going to work this morning, but the matter will probably be settled in a short time, satisfactory to both sides.

Before purchasing examine the mammoth stock of wall paper at Gering & Co.

The county commissioners went down to Union to-day where they will meet the commissioners of Otoe county. The two counties contemplate building a bridge, each county to pay half the cost.
