A GUATEMALA correspondent writes to the British Trade Journal that "at present British trade is falling off, its place being taken by the commerce of the United States and Germany." This seems to be the condition of British trade everywhere. And "the great system of 1846" is beginning "to totter to its very base!"

IN 1880 the national debt of the United States was $38.33 per capita; the average for all foreign countries $35.62, $2.71 less than ours. In 1890 our debt was only $14.24 per capita; that of the rest of the world was $32.88, more than twice as large as ours. The question is, Have we or have we not distanced the rest of the world in the last ten year?

ENGLAND will not put a duty on American food products. The democratic papers which imagine that she will are in error. Premier Salisbury's talk in favor of a protective policy will have no influence. He has attacks of this sort of folly every twelve or fifteen months, and nobody in his country minds him. A protective tariff would hurt England as much as free trade would hurt the United States.

It is estimated that the total appropriations by the first session of the Fifty-second congress will foot up $32,894,678.81. The total appropriations of the first session of the "first" or "billion dollar" congress were $463,398,510.79, and this included a pension deficiency of $25,321,907.34, left by the previous democratic congress. The second session of the "billion dollar" congress appropriated $25,018,672.55. Therefore the first session of this congress will exceed the first session of the last congress by $69,406,169.02, and the second session of the last congress by $7,786,007.26. These are the figures of Mr. Beltzhoover, a democratic congressman from Pennsylvania, and are verified by Mr. Holman.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURE PROSPEROUS.

The agricultural class deserves some special consideration. It may be asked, if farming is not profitable, why do crops increase? If market gardening is not profitable, why does the product increase in quantity and in value? If farmers do not prosper, why is it that there is a constantly increasing demand for labor on farms at wages that are much higher than they were ten or twenty years ago, to meet which demand for farm labor there is no sufficient supply? I anticipate the bugbear of the mortgage; but about that we are beginning to have data sufficing for a true solution. It is not true that the farmers, taken as a body, especially in the west, are oppressed with heavy mortgages. The reverse is true. Let it suffice to refer to the special census bulletin giving statistics of farm lands and mortgages in Illinois. In this return, compiled by Mr. John S. Lord (whose reputation is well known to every one dealing with statistics) and by Mr. George K. Holmes, a separation is made between mortgaged acres and mortgaged lots. Dealing with mortgaged acres as a representative of mortgaged farms, we find that the percentage of the mortgage upon the true valuation of all farms taxed in Illinois was only thirteen and twenty-seven hundredths. Less than one-half of the farms in Illinois are subject to any mortgage, the percentage of the total number of taxed acres represented by the number of mortgaged acres being only thirty and seventy-eight hundredths. Dealing with the mortgaged acres only, the average of the mortgage to the true valuation is but forty-two and twenty-seven hundredths per cent. It therefore appears that much less than one-half of the farms of Illinois are subjected to a mortgage, and the average mortgage upon that part encumbered by debt is less than one-half its specific value. This official statement confirms the judgment which I had formed from data secured in a much less adequate manner from other states.—Edward Atkinson in May Forum.

Oregon, Washington and the North-west Pacific Coast.
The constant demand of the traveling public to the far west for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling has led to the establishment as what is known as Pullman Colonist sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference being that they are not upholstered. They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen curtains plenty of towels, combs, brush etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper leaflet. E. L. Lomax, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha Nebraska.

A Revolt Against Tradition.

"The two greatest American delusions," said an observer of what is going on, "is cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie."
"In all recitals of turkey feasts we hear great stress laid on the cranberry sauce. For years I ate it out of regard for the customs of my ancestors. I pretended to like it, but I have come out as a rank rebel. I will have no more of it."
"Pumpkin pie is quite as big a fraud. At the best a pumpkin hasn't any more taste to it than a turnip, and why it should be made into pie and treated as a dessert I don't know. I have talked about this thing confidentially among my most intimate friends, and many of them have confessed to me under a solemn pledge of secrecy that they don't like pumpkin pie or cranberry sauce either, and there is now a little coterie of us drawn very closely together. I can tell you, by this joint antipathy."

"I don't know what the New England club is going to do about it, but this rank treason is flourishing in their very midst, and before long there will be an Anti-Pumpkin Pie and Cranberry Sauce association that will make its influence felt."
A caterer said: "The gentleman you quote has never tasted the real article. He must have got his dislike to the dishes by devouring them at cheap table d'hotes, where they are rarely very palatable."—New York Herald.

F. G. Fricke & Co., the druggists desire us to publish the following testimonial as they handle the remedy and believe it to be reliable: "I bought a 50-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and applied it to my limbs, which have been afflicted with rheumatism at intervals for one year. At the time I bought the Pain Balm I was unable to walk. I can truthfully say that Pain Balm has completely cured me.—R. H. FARR, Holywood, Ken. Mr. A. B. Cox, the leading druggist at Holywood, vouches for the truth of the above statement."
