

...ished old
...Alexan-
...announced
...four years.
...drawing to a
...extraordi-
...direction and man-
...public affairs in Europe.
...of these were
...Beaconsfield, Bismark and Gortchakoff.
...of the three, the chancellor of the Ger...man empire alone survives today, "weary
...and old with the service."
...A unified Germany, rugged in its ...strength, could not today, nor will not ...in history, be thought of without Prince
...Bismark standing out as the great central
...figure.
...The eastern policy of Great Britain-
...her possession of the Nile and the land
...of the Pharaoh's, holding as an insur...mountable barrier the Dardanelles and ...the Bosphorus between the aggressive
...power of the Russian empire and her In...dian possessions, will be but a portion of ...the biography of her world-renowned ...diplomat, Disraeli.
...The triumph of the Russian empire,
...for over three quarters of a century are ...inseparably blended with the name and ...fame of Alexander Gortchakoff, who ...passed away yesterday, at Baden Baden.
...It is not our purpose in this mention
...to write a notice of this great man. We ...only say, he served his country in many ...foreign courts, always with distinction, he ...was privy councillor, vice-chancellor,
...chancellor, and finally received the mark...ed honor of having the emperor confer
...upon him the "Dignity of Serene High...ness" on account of his diplomatic ...triumphs. His ideas of statesmanship
...were broad and liberal. It was mainly ...through his influence, the Russian em...pire has been liberalized and especially ...towards its subjects, differing in their ...faith from the Greek church; in fine, the ...Russian empire in its every progressive ...feature to-day bears the impress of this ...man's character and genius.
...All can remember the picture of the ...wonderful trio, Bismark, Disraeli and ...Gortchakoff in the Congress of natives at ...Berlin—at the close of the late bloody ...struggle between the Russian and Prus...sian powers—where the peace of Europe
...was guaranteed. There is no American ...today, loving his country as he ought ...and remembering the attitude of the ...three greatest nations (at that time) of ...Europe towards this country, after the ...outbreak of the rebellion, but could ...wish to cast a token of love and grati...tude upon the grave of this man. He ...was a friend and an admirer of Ameri...can institutions, and although entreated,
...he refused to permit Russia to assume ...an arbitrary attitude towards our coun...try during our civil war, although both ...England and France had assumed such ...an attitude towards us, and European ...diplomacy required that Russia should
...at that time maintain the closest friend...ly relations with those great powers.
...All honor to the name of Gortchakoff.

PLATTSMOUTH, MARCH 12, 1883.

WEATHER splendid. Spring is re.

OMAHA depends for her Board of Public Works upon the unconstitutionality of the late amendment to the charter of cities of the third class.

THE city is full of farmers, with corn, hogs, cattle and general farm produce, and we can see a general business smile overspreads our city see more.

We don't think Dorsey ever—or hardly ever—played cards, at least, judging from the number of cards he publishes daily, saying he never has, could lead one, having implicit confidence in Mr. Dorsey's word, to suspect he never has.

OUR old friend, Johnny Valley, who rely came to his senses and chose himself from among the daughters of men, has a bottle of native wine, the other made at his father's, Uncle Jacob Valley Sr.'s, farm and from the choicest of his vintage. The wine is delicious, pronounced by those who are judges of the article; as fine as can be made, and it's a double health to thee," John said to thine.

THE defense in the star route cases is the floor now, and all indications point to the close of these famous trials very soon, in Judge Wiley's court; then if conviction follows the cases are the cases will be carried to the higher courts, where a revival is very apt to follow, on account of the testimony in the admission of oral testimony; when the whole matter will have to be gone over again.

SENATOR PATTERSON, of Cass county was in the city yesterday—the ready-going element who never lets his horse get off the track, in short, Mr. Patterson enjoys the reputation of being the most successful politician of the state. Our unfortunate friend seems to have fallen by the side on the issue, after having strongly opposed to the measure which is bad for our unfortunate Draper.—Omaha Herald.

THE HERALD had hoped that no controversy would arise over the record of our democratic brethren in legislation; but Mr. Patterson's words seem to insist upon a comparison of sheets, and we shall have in due time from the record.

Grand Army of the Republic, Grand Army of the Republic has quite a feature in Nebraska, and with pleasure we read the spirited editorial of Bradford P. Cook, A. A. G. of the department of Nebraska. Every editor, or comrade should procure this address, which we publish in tomorrow's issue, and we very forcibly set out therein; and we very forcibly set out therein;

...about eighteen years have passed since the war closed, this generation embraces over one hundred and members living. It also bears its muster roles—sleeping the long sleep, on fames eternal ground—hundreds of thousands of comrades, whose memories, its object and aim of this organization ever keep fresh and green. Very memorial day will be here, when it will be the great pleasure of our citizens and all of them, to close their business and go with the old soldiers to our cemetery, there to laurel the graves of our dead. It is a beautiful and sacred and the resting places of our dead should be generously and tenderly cherished on that occasion.

...the iron trade in other cities
...uncertain, that inter-
...not only prosperous,
...capital and con-

Creighton's and other democratic Lilliputs of Douglas county. When it comes to reading old war horses out of the democratic Guild, you may look for a general tumbling of the temple, and a wholesale slaughter of the worshippers. "We are for the under dog."

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever dis-

READ PROOF BELOW.
FROM COL. E. T. FOSTER
Youngstown, Ohio, May 10th, 1880.
B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents: I had a very valuable lambsfoot and a very good sized very highly heeled shoe made in one joint and a small one on the other, which made him very lame. I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading an advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and out-drugs I have said for it. I got three bottles, I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colic ceased to be lame, and the hump had disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colic has not returned from him and is smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. And cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it.
Very Respectfully,
E. T. FOSTER.

ON HUMAN FLESH.
Patten's Mills, N. Y., Feb. 21, 1874.
B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents: The particular case on which I used your Kendall's Spavin Cure was a malignant spavin of sixteen months standing. I had tried many things, but in vain. Your Spavin Cure put the foot to the ground again, and for the first time since I was in a natural position. For a family remedy it excels anything we ever used.
Yours truly,
H. M. P. BELL.
