CITIZENS We are not ashamed of them, they are No. one representative, enterprising, men of means and standing in the community. Their names are all the recommendation they need. We do not expect to elect these gentlemen by pulling down, traducing, and blackguarding gentlemen on the other ticket. We don't have to do that to elect them. We put these men up to make this race on their own merits. We only ask their fellow citizens to compare them with the other ticket and vote understandingly.

CAMPAIGN lies retailed on the eve of an election never count for anything with fair-minded men.

If you want a man at the head of our affairs who is known abroad, and who will preside as mayor of your city with emphasis, vote for Geo. S. Smith.

GEN'L GEO. S. SMITH is absent in Sarpy county, trying an important railroad suit, while penny-liners and adventurers are attempting to smirch his character behind his back. Will the citizens of Plattsmouth endorse such warfare?

If you elect V. V. Leonard for mayor or you create a vacancy on the school board. If Mr. Leonard desires to be mayor of this city, he should lay down the robes of school director, in or out of that office, and let the people be enabled to fill that office; it won't do to give one man all the offices.

INTELLIGENCE should be a prominent feature of the Plattsmouth voter. Are you going to allow your votes to be controlled by a campaign lies retailed the night before election? See to it, voters, that this "low level" way of conducting a campaign is emphatically set down upon.

"FRIDAY" is fast coming to the front again in city affairs. It smells something. He is an individual whose olfactory nerves have for a long time been sharpened up to an exceedingly fine point on political carrion. One can always tell by the air molecules when one is in Friday's immediate neighborhood. Friday is stirring about.

THE annual report of the managing officers of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company shows a nice little pot to divide among the gentlemen owning that stock, and also demonstrates the fact, that the road has managed to worry along after a manner despite the unfriendly legislation(?) of the great states of Iowa and Illinois.

CHICAGO, March 31. The twenty-ninth annual report of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad shows gross earnings $21,551,000; operating expenses and taxes, $11,285,000; net earnings, $10,267,000; interest and exchange, $52,000; total, $10,719,000; dividends, $592,400; carried to the reserve fund, 750,000; number of miles of line operated, 3228.

VERMONT has enacted a tragedy of tragedies in hanging a woman accused of murdering her own child, convicted by the testimony of her son, and dying, protesting her innocence and frantically accusing the boy who gave evidence against her for perjury. The horror of such an unnatural situation suggests insanity in that family with too much emphasis to make it comfortable for the community that put the woman to death.—Lincoln Journal.

The execution of Mrs. Meakin is another crime added to the long list of the bloody monster, called the gallows; a crime that will long blacken the fair fame of enlightened Vermont. It is terrible to contemplate the presence of this horrid monster in the after part of the nineteenth century. It is difficult to understand why in this enlightened day and age this monstrosity of the avenging law is tolerated. In the presence of this outrage, perpetrated in the name of justice, one would have to be made of harder clay than the ordinary mortal, not to shudder at the thought of a woman executed upon such testimony—dying protesting her innocence—with the words upon her lips, "May God forgive you all." DOWN WITH THE GALLOWS!

The brutal attack made by the Journal upon General Geo. S. Smith will simply give to that gentleman democratic votes he otherwise would not get; we know whereof we speak when we say this: General Smith has lived in Plattsmouth city for long years. He came here some fourteen years ago with his little family, and cast his lot among our good people investing some thousands of dollars in our city—which through hard times and on account of the depreciation in real estate during our dark days, almost disappeared by the shrinkage of values; in other words, was almost entirely lost. In adversity as well as prosperity, Gen'l Smith has lived among you, people of Plattsmouth, an honest, open hearted, genial gentleman, against whom no man can honestly say aught. He has paid his debts, patronized the tradesmen of his city, and lived the life of a kind, generous public spirited man and citizen. The nomination of mayor of this city has come to him unsolicited upon his part, and against his wish. He has been the choice of his party and friends, who insist that he is needed at this juncture in our city affairs, and he is going to be the next mayor of Plattsmouth city.

The men who have been making this attack upon Gen'l Smith, are many of them, comparative strangers in our midst who do not own one foot of property in your city, who have not one dollar's interest in Plattsmouth, and who have no prospects ahead of them except that of relying upon your charity to pick up a precarious living. It is far easier, citizens of Plattsmouth, to retail the scurrilous slanders picked up upon the curb stones of your public streets, than to labor honestly in advertising and advancing the good name and fame of your city and her good citizens, and right here the HERALD brands the insinuations made against the good name of General Smith as foul slanders and falsehoods which should merit the severest condemnation from all good citizens.

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION.
 EXECUTIVE OFFICE.
 LINCOLN, Neb., March 30, 1883.

To the people of Nebraska:
 The subject of forestry, or tree-planting, is fast becoming one of national importance, and is receiving the careful attention of thoughtful minds throughout our own country, and in other lands as well.

The steady and rapid disappearance of our forests is viewed with apprehension. We are forced to consider the matter in its relation to the general question of grave moment. The disappearance of the natural growth of timber has been followed in many of our states by the drying up of springs and brooks, a decreased annual rain fall, and consequent increase of frequency of seasons of extreme drought. The presence of trees and forests exerts a direct and controlling influence upon the moisture of the air, and amount of rain fall, as well as serving to lessen the extremes of temperature, and greatly modifying the severity of climate and season.

The attention of the general government has been directed to this matter, and it has received substantial recognition at the hands of our national congress in the passage of what is known as the "Timber Culture Act," which has for its object, the securing of timber upon our forested prairies.

Encouragement and incentive, in the matter of tree planting is given by the constitution of Nebraska; which says, "The legislature may provide that the increased value of lands, by reason of live fences and forest trees grown and cultivated, shall not be taken into account in the assessment thereof."

The State Board of Agriculture offers liberal premiums for the greatest number of trees planted during the month of April, 1883, by any one person, and for the greatest number planted, or put out, during the year 1883. In addition to this, they offer a special premium—known as "Arbor Day" premium—for the greatest number of trees planted upon a given day,—divided and classified as to varieties,—and earnestly inviting competition thereto, from all.

The question of Tree Culture—important as it is to the country at large—is of paramount importance to our state. Nebraska embraces within her limits lands that are unsurpassed in fertility; and offering a they do, advantage in the way of easy and simple cultivation, they are being developed with a rapidity that is nearly, if not quite without precedent.

Therefore, to the end that the past gratifying degree of development, and improvement, may be maintained, and if possible increased, I, James W. Dawes, Governor of the State of Nebraska, hereby name Wednesday, the 18th day of April, A. D. 1883, to be observed as "ARBOR DAY."

Embracing in its design results so varied, beneficial and far-reaching; having for its aim and purpose, the common interest and general welfare of our state, it should be strictly observed by all classes.

The supreme court of Illinois has placed itself right upon the question of the liability of the Pullman Palace Car company as a common carrier. On March 30th, the court with full bench assenting, decided that this Palace Car company was a common carrier, upon the same footing as a railroad company. The case arose by one Lake Lever bringing a suit against the company for damages on account of the company refusing to permit him to occupy a sleeping berth upon tender of the usual and customary price. This company arrogated to itself the right under its rules and regulations to carry a passenger if it saw fit. The court holds that by the Pullman Palace Car company holding itself out as a carrier, furnishing accommodations of that nature to the traveling public for hire, the business has become a social necessity, placing the company under the same obligations to furnish accommodations, as railways, ferry-men and innkeepers, upon payment of regular fares. This settles another question of right, so far as Illinois is concerned, between corporations and the individual, and is a just and righteous interpretation of the law.

We are informed that the suits the Journal its libelous paragraph upon Gen. Geo. S. Smith on Saturday hints at, are the suits against W. J. Hobbs by Cass county. There is no use in any citizen of this city having any excuse to believe this slander about Gen. Smith for one moment. The record is in Mr. Showalters office; he is an accommodating gentleman, and can show you both judgments against the county for costs. Gen. Smith was not the leading counsel in those cases, but Hon. George W. Correll, of Nebraska City, was, and the cases were under his control. Under decisions of the supreme court of this state those cases could not be maintained, and were so decided by Judge Pound.

Our old friend, Mr. V. V. Leonard is nominated by the democracy of this city for mayor. We have told Bro. Leonard time and again to get out of that crowd, or they would play some trick upon him that would make him regret he ever was a democrat, and here he has found verified, our predictions. Sam Weiler's father said to Sammy, "beware of the vidders, Sammy," to Bro. Leonard we say, beware of the democratic "vidders"; she will lead you astray, and then when you refuse to be a pliant suppliant tool, to carry out her schemes, "will turn and rend you." We wish V. V. Leonard lots of good things in the world, and among these, and the chiefest of them is, that he get left on this mayor business.

Permanent Cure Guaranteed

Five years established and never known to fail in a single case, acute or chronic. Refer to all prominent physicians and druggists for the standard of Salicylica.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called remedies and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been succeeded by eminent scientists that outward application, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvellous effect on this acid and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent cures in three days.
