Republicans, don't neglect to examine your tickets before voting. Look out for spurious tickets.

The politicians have possession of the streets today, and it is pretty safe to say that somebody will be elected tomorrow.

An immense crowd at the skating rink Saturday night. The most fun for the least money is to be had at Ford's skating rink.

We can't stretch our imagination enough to announce the weather yesterday as an April shower, but it was an April something that might be left for Wiggins to name. By the way, what has become of Wiggins?

We move to have a telephone placed in the high school building. As a matter of convenience and accommodation one is needed there as bad as any place in the city. The building cost enough to enjoy all the modern conveniences.

All hands in the post office are busily engaged this week in balancing up and fixing up the box room. An order has been issued by First Ass't Postmaster Gen'l Hutton requiring those renting lock boxes to deposit 50 cents for each key taken, to be returned when the key is returned. The postmaster must collect this or pay it out of his own pocket.

"Elect this ticket or our paper will go down," is the whimper of our democratic whippers in. Voters, you want to elect the ticket that will save the good name of your city from going down. The HERALD wants to live because it can help the city, and help our citizens, regardless of politics. How do you like our platform, anyway.

An alarm of fire was given about 9 o'clock Saturday night, that Dr. Schildknecht's house was on fire. A grand rush was made in that direction, but the fire proved only to be a small blaze in the Dr.'s office, in the flue, that was promptly extinguished with a few pails of water, before any damage to speak of was done, and before the mob got there.

During the month of January 2040 messages were handled by the Western Union telegraph company at their office in this city; during the month of February 3198, and during the month of March 3025. These are all paid messages, outside of their own business and done with the Omaha office. Lightning jerks things around lively, and our boys know how to manage it.

Republicans, remember our school board:

Thos. Marsland, Frank Carruth, Lloyd Bennett.

Are an earnest of what the republicans give you as the managers of your school interests; good and intelligent men who have the educational interests of Plattsmouth city at heart.

The chief of police was on his ear about something Saturday night. He was evidently looking for somebody to whip, but he waited until so late that all the boys had gone home, and he got inside to turn loose his eloquence. He didn't seem to be very well pleased with the nominations made Saturday night, and the prospects are, that he is at the tail end of his soft job. "All is vanity and vexation of spirit."

What has become of the telegram sent by Frank Carruth to Mr. Woolston in regard to railroad interest, is just now a mystery. Nobody knows whether he ever received it or not. Tracers have been sent out, and still the matter remains a mystery. It may be that Mr. Woolston was not at home, but certainly some one received that message and an answer should have been received ere this.

Personal.

Henry Herold Sundayed in Ashland. D. S. Draper went to Greenwood today.

J. W. Barnes, Will Chambers and Mart Buttery went to Omaha this morning.

W. L. Gibbon and Chas. De Soten, of Paxton & Gallagher, Omaha, are in the city looking after Jim Woodson.

Miss Baker, a sister of W. H. Baker, came home with him this morning, from Kansas City over the Missouri Pacific.

Kiraly Bros', Black Crook.

The revival of this magnificent spectacle was a lucky thing for the management, for its success is a "drawing" attraction has been unprecedented since its first arrival at Haverly's Niblo's Garden Theatre in New York some weeks ago, and it is to be presented in our city with all of its gorgeous scenery, complicated machinery, rich and dazzling wardrobes, its intricate and inexplicable mechanical effects, its efficient dramatic company, and its host of special artists, in the same manner as in the metropolitan theatre. The company, composed of fifty people, travel in their own special coach, attached to which are two baggage cars for the scenery, machinery and trunks of the company. All the available hotel accommodations have been secured, and the troupe will arrive on Thursday morning. The sale of reserved seats for the performance will assume a "booming aspect, and to those who desire a choice of seats, we would advise to call early and secure them. There will be a crowd in the opera house Thursday night, April 13th.

The small pox scare at Nebraska City isn't much of a thing after all. They deny the prevalence of the epidemic and are looking for the man who sent the communication to the Omaha papers. They make the following statements: Special to the Omaha Republican.

Dr. Larsh, of Nebraska City, called at the Republican office to say there is not a case of small pox in that place, and there only has been one case. E. Gueszel's family had it, two of whom died, the remainder of the family are entirely well. No new cases have developed. Special to the Omaha Republican.

The communication signed James P. Mason is grossly exaggerated and false. One family three miles from town was affected, but the disease was stamped out successfully. No small pox in this city now nor for the last nine years. Who is Mason? Special to the Omaha Republican.

You have been imposed upon. No such person as James P. Mason resides in Nebraska City, and there is not a case of small pox now, nor has there been a case in Nebraska for nine years.

Paxton & Gallagher, of Omaha, are after Jim Woodson with a sharp stick. It is said they will lose about $500 through Woodson's failure. While we're getting out papers for him he suddenly disappeared and could not be found. It is presumed he will only take a short layoff, and then come to the front, after the storm has cleared up. There was no occasion for his leaving, seems to be the general opinion, he having simply sold the store to Parmele who was selling off the goods. This afternoon there was quite lively times in the store, parties who had bought goods, before the attachment were after them, and everything was at a dead lock, while E. B. Lewis and Wm. Herold were taking an inventory of the stock. A big law suit will probably follow.

This morning attachment proceedings were instituted in Judge Pottenger's court by Joe Ford against George Prescott, and Crof Eikenberry seized Prescott's valise under the order. Prescott came into court and asked permission to get some letters out of the valise, and at the same time smuggled out a watch chain worth $10 or $12, and dropped that into his pocket too. Joe heard it "drap," and told Crof to get it. Prescott denied having it and refused to be searched, but when he learned that he would be searched, whether he wanted to or not, he pulled out the chain and gave it up.

It is now definitely settled that the extra passenger trains will be put on between Pacific Junction and Red Cloud on the 15th of April. These will be the trains 3 and 4 and will do the local work, both being night trains. The old numbers 1 and 2 will be fast trains, stopping only at the principle stations, and their speed will be much increased, bringing down the time between Plattsmouth and Denver to 19 hours.—Fairmont Bulletin.

The Conventions Saturday Night.

The republicans and democrats both met pursuant to their calls, Saturday night, to place in nomination candidates for the several city offices. The republicans met at Rockwood hall and the democrats at the court house.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE REPUBLICANS. The convention was called to order by J. E. Strode and he was made chairman of the convention. H. M. Bushnell was nominated for secretary but declined. Prof. Drummond was nominated and elected.

A motion was made and carried that chairman appoint a committee of one from each ward on credentials. The chair appointed H. M. Bushnell, Geo. W. Fairfield, M. B. Murphy and Frank Carruth.

Mr. Wooley moved to take a recess of half an hour to give the committee time to make up their report. Motion lost.

The chairman of the committee announced the report ready and reported H. M. Bushnell as proxy for Joseph Ford and W. C. Brown proxy for Julius Pepperberg.

Major Wheeler moved that the report of the committee be received and adopted which motion carried.

A motion by Mr. Wooley that delegates present cast the full vote of the ward in the absence of delegates, was carried.

Major Wheeler moved that a committee of three be appointed to report to the convention the offices to be filled.

Mr. Murphy moved to amend by proposing an informal ballot for members of the school board.

Major Wheeler offered an amendment to the amendment that a committee of three be appointed to recommend three names as candidates for the school board. The amendment prevailed.

A motion by Judge Gass that three tellers be appointed was carried. Gass, Wise and Schlegel being appointed.

The chair announced that nominations for members of the school board were in order. The following names were presented: Rev. Burgess, Frank Carruth, T. M. Marsland and L. D. Bennett. On motion of J. W. Jennings, which carried, two receiving the highest number of votes were chosen for three years, and the one receiving the next highest, for the two year term. An informal ballot was taken, which was afterward declared the unanimous choice of the convention. On ballot Carruth received 30 votes, Burgess 19, Bennett 35, Marsland 29, Wiles 1, and Leonard 1. Carruth and Bennett for long term, and Marsland for short term. W. S. Wise for clerk, and W. H. Kline for treasurer were nominated by acclamation. On motion a recess of 10 minutes was taken. After the recess on motion the convention proceeded to nominate a candidate for mayor, and that the first ballot be an informal one. Result of ballot: Smith, 32; Pellock, 3; Wheeler, 1, and Carruth, 1. The informal ballot was by the convention declared formal and Geo. S. Smith the unanimous choice as candidate for mayor. Geo. W. Fairfield was nominated for city engineer by acclamation. A committee man was chosen from each ward: Richard Kirby from 1st ward, D. A. Campbell 2d ward, E. H. Wooley 3d ward, and Ed Gueszel 4th ward; and J. W. Jennings committee man at large. A committee of two was chosen from each ward to work at the polls, and that each committee man be chairman of those committees; for 1st ward were selected Brown and Lewis; 2d ward, Fairfield and McMacken; 3d ward, Murphy and Warga; 4th ward, O'Neil and Eikenberry. Convention adjourned.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The convention was called to order by the Hon. Wm. Neville. On motion F. S. White was elected chairman and Henry M. Bons secretary. On motion the chair appointed a committee on credentials consisting of J. A. Connor, H. M. Miller and M. W. Morgan. The committee reported as entitled to seats the following: First ward—William Herold, J. M. Roberts, F. Geos, Ed. Stamm, J. N. Wise, J. V. Egenberger, J. A. Connor, H. M. Bons, M. Waybright, and V. V. Leonard. Second ward—James Grace, F. Kroehler, Wm. Guthmann, C. Heisel, John Drain, F. S. White, W. H. Cushing, Geo. Weidman, H. Speis, J. Leuchtweis. Third ward—C. F. Nichols, M. W. Morgan, Charles McEntee, P. McCann, George Poissall, Wes. Kinser, A. D. Despain, W. D. Jones, Chas. Bell, and A. G. Hart. Fourth ward—Wm. Wintersteen, P. McCallan, C. Hempel, F. D. Lehnheff, Aug. Tartsch, H. Martin, John Blake, M. O'Connor, F. R. Gathmann, Martin McGuire.

The report was received and adopted. Waybright and Hempel being absent P. McCann was admitted as proxy for Hempel, and Gorder for Waybright. On motion, A. D. Despain and George Poissall were appointed as tellers. An informal ballot was taken for a candidate for mayor with the following result: R. R. Livingston, 30; F. Gorder, 10; V. V. Leonard 8; C. S. Dawson 1; J. N. Wise 1. Dr. Livingston made a short but spirited speech, declining the honor of a nomination, but thought the "unterrified" strong enough to elect a good man. The first formal ballot was then taken, Leonard receiving 15 votes, Gorder 10, Livingston 5, Wintersteen 6, Dawson 1, G. S. Smith 1, blank 1. The chair announced no choice, and the second formal ballot was taken, resulting in the nomination of V. V.

Leonard, W. H. Cushing for city treasurer, and J. D. Simpson for city clerk were nominated by acclamation.

Nominations for city engineer were then declared in order, and Herman Smith was nominated. Some one suggested that Herman was a republican, so Herman was dropped. Lafayette Gilmore and Robert Black were proposed, and it was ascertained that Lafayette was a greenbacker; so goodbye, Lafayette. Robert Black was then unanimously chosen. Dr. Wintersteen and W. C. Showalter for the long term, and M. A. Hartigan for the short term were nominated as candidates for the school board. B. F. Stout was nominated for police judge.

A city central committee was chosen, consisting of J. A. Connor, J. M. Patterson, M. A. Hartigan and Wm. Wintersteen. After speeches by Leonard, Connor and Hartigan the convention adjourned.

THE HASTINGS TRAGEDY.

Arrests Made and Great Excitement. Major Wheeler moved that the report of the committee be received and adopted which motion carried.

We learn from Sheriff Deary, who came in on the western train yesterday, that three men has been arrested at Hastings upon suspicion of using the murderers of C. M. Millet. They boarded at the same hotel, at which trucks were found. After arrest they were kept separately confined, and two of them have made damaging confessions. Each admits to being in the crowd, but accuses the other of firing the fatal shot. The third man, as yet, denies all complicity in the affair. It is said revenge was one of the supposed motives, as it seems that Millet had informed against a house of ill-fame in which the three men were said to be interested. Threats had been made by the men against the deceased. Feeling runs high, and it is feared that if the public income convinced the right men are arrested, ugly work will follow.—State Journal.

We learn to-day that the parties arrested have confessed to their guilt and were taken to Lincoln yesterday for safe keeping. The names of the three men are John Babcock, Jim Green and Fred Ingraham. It is to be hoped that all the punishment the law provides will be meted-out to them and that no more mere will be shown them than they had for their victim. It is to be regretted that Judge Gass is not preside over the Adams county district court now, for he's a terror to law breakers.

Syracuse wants the diagonal, too, and the Journal expresses their want and explains the advantages offered as follows: We ask the attention of our citizens to the proposition now pending before the people of Iowa for the building of what is called the "Diagonal railroad," from Des Moines to some point on the Missouri river, either at Plattsmouth, Omaha, or Nebraska City. Of the three points named it seems to us that a road from Platts mouth to Weeping Water or Avoca, thence to Syracuse, Sterling and Crete or Beatrice would be the thing, both for south-eastern Nebraska, and the railroad also. Apropos to this matter the Plattsmouth HERALD says: Now is the time for Plattsmouth, Weeping Water, Syracuse, Bennett or Beatrice, Beatrice, Wynora and Edicott, and all the ambitious towns on the route of the diagonal to send their committees and lay before the builders of the new road, the advantages, inducements, etc., for that road to pierce the fat corn, hog and beef region of Nebraska.

River Report.

As furnished officially to the War Department. The river at noon today, stood 6 ft. 11 in. above low water mark, showing a rise of one inch since last report.

After the business of the conventions was over Saturday evening the candidates were called on for something. The democratic man gave his crowd a good dose of wind, and the republican fellow gave his crowd a good dose of smoke.

It is stated editorially in today's paper that Gen. Smith went to Papillion yesterday to attend to a lawsuit. He returned, however, today, sick and unable to attend to his business. Geo. Miller who "pulverized" old man Lindsey down at Factoryville a few days ago, was before Judge Johnson today and donated $15 and costs to the "good of the order."

The bids for county physician were opened today. Dr. Meade's bid was $75, Dr. Hall's $80, and Dr. Schildknecht's $90. In all probability Dr. Mead is the man.

The county commissioners have been in session today, and adjourn tonight to meet again Wednesday.

Get our republican ticket and gaze upon our pyramid of strength.
