

Julius Pepperberg is putting in a bran new show case to-day.

M. McElwain will be engaged for the next thirty-five days weighing the mails for Uncle Sam, between Plattsmouth and Pacific Junction.

Some of the boys felt pretty good last night over the result of the election, that don't feel so good to-day. Not on account of the election, but—

The grand commandry of Knight Templars is in session at Omaha. U. V. Leonard, F. E. White and A. H. White are in attendance to-day.

The apple man is on the street to-day, and the usual forked stick with red apples stuck on the end graces one corner of the wagon box.

A ball will be given at the Cottage house on Thursday evening of this week, to which all lovers of the dance are invited. Tickets 50 cents.

In the first ward the judges threw out several votes which bystanders say were republican, but they evidently would not alter the results as returned.

The county commissioners are in session to-day and will be to-morrow. The jurors and grand jurors for the next term of the district court will be drawn to-morrow.

Quite a number of women were out casting their votes for members of the school board yesterday. As far as the candidates were concerned politically the favors were about equally divided.

An application for Jim Weick's release is being filed in the office of a motion picture in court. It came up for hearing to-day, but was postponed until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The N. W. Orleans Jubilee Singers will give one of their popular entertainments in Plattsmouth next week on Thursday evening the 13th. The entertainment is given under the auspices of the G. A. R.

Can't some sort of gutter be fixed on the south side of Main street that will carry off the water? It is one solid mud hole next to the sidewalk from one end of the street to the other, while every place else is dry. The attention of the street commissioner is called to the matter.

One of the lively pieces yesterday was at the third ward polls, where desperate efforts were made to create a temperance issue for the defeat of Morrison, who has always been a staunch temperance man, and who a large element in the city would have enjoyed defeating with great zest. However, Jim was there all day, there to stay and there to be elected, and the fight was won by a majority that surprised his friends, his opponents and himself.

An alarm of fire this afternoon about 2 o'clock, was given by one of the switch engines. It proved to be a small blaze in the roof of the passenger depot, supposed to have caught from sparks that flew from a passing engine and lodged on the roof. There was no fire in the building at the time, so it must have originated from some such cause. The prompt action of those first there extinguished it before it got fairly under headway, no damage to speak of being done.

Mrs. Thomas Marshall, on last Saturday night gave a surprise party to her husband, on his birthday, by inviting all the boys in the office at Pacific Junction, who congregated at his paternal residence on Sixth street where they enjoyed the hospitalities of Mrs. M., in the genuine English style. The repast was elegant and the fun was glorious. Of course Morgan Waybright and his wife was there, and George Calder with all his good looks was there "lone and lorn." The boys enjoyed themselves, and will not soon forget the pleasant time, and will wish T. M. many such days.

EDITOR HERALD:—I believe the Recording Angel is pleased with the spirit of independence displayed by the Bohemians, and other foreign elements of Plattsmouth, in not being led astray by the rotten element of democracy in our city election. I do not include in this seemingly sweeping assertion, the whole of the democracy. Far from it. Many of them are a credit to their party, and several of them have voted for General Smith, because they are thoroughly disgusted with the charges made in that vile sheet, called the Journal, against our highly respected and newly elected mayor, the Hon. G. S. Smith. Democrat, behold the Journal began to lead you in politics! Democracy is a dead letter in Plattsmouth while that vile sheet lives in our midst. Three years ago democracy was everything in Plattsmouth; today, "None so poor as to do her reverence."

A DISGUSTED DEMOCRAT.

THE OLD BIRD CROWS!

A Republican Mayor for Plattsmouth,

And a Good Portion of the Entire Ticket.

The Herald's Candidate for Front

It was remarked by old timers yesterday that it was the most quiet election held in Plattsmouth for a long time. There was none of the boisterous, bullying bulldozing element exhibited, yet good, solid, earnest work was done in the interests of all the candidates. THE HERALD is pleased with the result, and claims credit in a measure for the victory of its candidate for mayor. The following is the result of the election:

FOURTH WARD. For Mayor—Smith, 130; Leonard, 61. For Clerk—Wise, 88; Simpson, 109. For Treasurer—Kline, 71; Cushing, 128.

For Engineer—Fairfield, 92; Black, 97. For Councilman—Eikenbary, 81; McCallan, 108.

For School Board—Wintersteen, 101; Hartigan, 94; Showalter, 89; Carruth, 90; Bennett, 87; Marsland 83.

Majority—Smith, 69; Simpson, 21; Cushing, 57; Black, 5; McCallan, 17.

RECAPITULATION. For Mayor—G. S. Smith, 251 majority. For Clerk—J. D. Simpson, 37. For Treasurer—W. H. Cushing, 171 majority.

For Engineer—Geo. W. Fairfield, 84 majority. For Police Judge—B. E. Stout, no opposition.

For Councilman 1st ward—H. M. Bous, 31 majority. For Councilman 2nd ward—J. H. Fairfield, 25 majority.

For Councilman 3rd ward—J. E. Morrison, 79 majority. For Councilman 4th ward—P. McCollan, 17 majority.

For members of the school board—Two years, M. A. Hartigan, 11 majority. Three years, W. Wintersteen, 18. " L. D. Bennett, 4 majority.

The above figures will not be materially altered by the official count, the figures being taken as nearly correct as possible. When it became known that General Smith was elected the B. & M. Band made its appearance on the street and a bonfire was kindled on Main street, at the crossing of Sixth, and a sort of jollification took place. General Smith was called for and made a short speech, in which he thanked his friends for the generous support they had given him; that he considered himself vindicated as a republican, as a citizen and as an officer, by their expression of confidence in him in the large majority which elected him mayor of the city of Plattsmouth. He denied the scurrilous attacks upon his record by the newspapers, and courted and urged investigation of his official acts. He denounced the course of the Journal in its personal assaults upon private character. He promised his best efforts for the good of the city of Plattsmouth, the interests of the city being identical with his own. Mr. Morrison, the newly elected councilman in the Third ward, was called for and made a short speech, in which he expressed his thanks for the support given him, and also declared his principles as a man on the liquor question. Considering that Mr. Morrison is an outspoken temperance man, his successful run was a marvel. The saloon interests were hard at work against him all day, and to beat democracy and whisky, too, is a herculean task—either one alone is bad enough. Jos. Fairfield, another good republican, elected over in the second ward, was called for, and also made a short speech, thanking his friends for the kindly support they had given him. He also stated some facts regarding the young man participating in governmental affairs, that the so-called "boys" were discouraged in those matters until they arrived at that period when they stood with one foot in the grave, etc. He is the youngest man ever elected to the Plattsmouth city council, but we predict for him a record that will surpass that of many of the old hands.

Will Cushing, re-elected city treasurer, was called for and responded. Another one of the "boys" He was born a democrat, was reared a democrat, was elected as a democrat, and we are safe in saying he is a democrat. He is also a No. 1 city treasurer.

The band boys furnished lots of good music, everybody seemed to be in a good humor, and thus election day closed without a fight or a row or an unpleasantness of any sort. We are proud of Plattsmouth, and under the new administration shall look for long needed improvements, and expect to boast of the best governed city in Nebraska.

THE HASTINGS HOODLUMS.

A Vigilance Committee Takes the Matter in Hand and Successfully Dismisses the Case.

The following telegram to the Omaha Herald very satisfactorily explains the situation. We do not advocate lynch law, but there are times when it is almost impossible to denounce it, and this happens to be one of the times:

HASTINGS, Neb., April 3.—In the Millet assassination case, on Friday last, a mask was found near the place of assault, which the authorities succeeded in matching with a stand cover in the Central hotel, in a room occupied by one Green, now under arrest with Babcock and Ingraham. On Saturday evening Babcock asked for a piece of paper on which he wrote a confession in effect as follows:

"That their only intention was robbery, for which purpose they ordered their victim away from town to a common, and that when Millet ran Ingraham shot him." On Sunday morning the authorities fearing trouble, hastened their prisoners to Lincoln. The coroner's jury not having returned their verdict, refused to do so until they had further examined the prisoners, who were brought back yesterday to Harvard, within the county, where the coroner and jury hastened, but their doings were unable to ascertain. This afternoon the prisoners were brought to this city and immediately driven to the court house, followed by an immense mob. While at the court house the coroner's jury gave a verdict in effect as follows: "That C. M. Millet, on March 27th, came to his death by a pistol shot fired from the hands of the aforesaid persons."

They were then arraigned before Judge Work, and the verdict read. When the judge asked, "Guilty or not guilty," Green and Ingraham plead not guilty, and Babcock guilty. An immense crowd assembled near the court house, and masked men have been seen on the back streets, denoting that there may yet be a necktie party before morning.

THE DEED DONE.

HASTINGS, Neb., April 3.—10:45 p. m.—At about 10:30 this evening a posse of armed men, all masked, came out of an alleyway opposite the room in which the prisoners were being closely guarded, and wended their way up to the court room, broke in the door and covered the guards with about forty guns, and demanded that they leave the room. The murderers were then gagged, and brought down, the lookers-on being held at bay and not permitted to follow. It is supposed they have been taken to a bridge on the St. Joe and Western railroad, about half a mile west of this depot.

Later—11:45 p. m.—Your reporter has just returned from the scene of hanging. The lynchers had done their work well. There under the bridge can be found dangling in the air the lifeless forms of Green and Ingraham. Babcock was taken back to the city and turned over to the authorities. Green and Ingraham died with their.

HANDS AND FEET PINIONED.

They had no coats or hats or boots on. Not less than three hundred people looked upon the remains to-night of the assassins of Cash M. Millet, and not one man was heard to utter one word in condemnation of the parties that did the lynching.

A party consisting of L. D. Bennett, E. V. Mathews, J. W. Jennings, Sol Patcher, J. G. Ritchie, C. H. Smith and S. M. Chapman, with guns, dogs and all other necessary hunting paraphernalia, started out on the K. C. this morning for a big duck hunt, the objective point being Percival. It is impossible to calculate what each duck will cost them, but they will have lots of fun if the weather stays as pleasant as it is now.

Driving Park Meeting.

At an adjourned meeting of the Plattsmouth Driving Park association the following business was transacted: The meeting was held in the rooms of the First National bank, and stock to the amount of 255 shares, was represented.

On motion, H. E. Palmer was made president pro tem, Mr. McMurphy, the secretary, holding over being present.

On motion, the association proceeded to the election of officers, and the following ticket was nominated and voted for by ballot:

President, U. V. Mathews; vice-president, F. R. Gutman; Treasurer, A. W. McLaughlin; Secretary, J. M. Patterson; directors, H. E. Palmer, D. H. Wheeler, J. C. Gilmore, Fred Gorder, Samuel M. Chapman.

This ticket received 265 votes and was declared duly elected by the acting president.

A committee of two, the president, Mathews, and one director, F. Gorder, were appointed to attend to the fair grounds, see that the fences are repaired, the gates closed and the grounds generally preserved and taken care of at once.

On resolution of the late secretary, MacMurphy, was instructed to turn the books and his report over to the new secretary, Mr. Patterson. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

FIRE AT PACIFIC JUNCTION.

The C. B. & Q. Round House a Total Loss.

Last night in the neighborhood of 11 o'clock a bright light was noticeable across the river, and this morning the news came that the C. B. & Q. round house had burned down. The fire originated in the oil room, and there happened to be a good supply on hand. There were but two engines housed at the time, and they were both taken out in time. The building is a total wreck, nothing being left but the outside brick wall. Three coaches and two baggage cars that were sidetracked and stood near by were badly scorched. Just how the fire originated we could not learn. The estimated loss to the company is about $35,000.

Found Dead.

We are informed by a gentleman that Cal Stewart, a farmer residing in Ogo county, near the county line, was found dead in his bed Saturday morning. Cal was one of the Stewart boys that have acquired such an unenviable reputation in this city for drinking and fighting, and is the lame one. We understand he leaves quite a family. No inquest was held, as it was not deemed necessary.—Nebraska City News.

Notice.

To Whom it May Concern: My wife, Mary Ann Straight, having left my bed and board without just cause and provocation, I hereby forbid any or all persons trusting her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting after this date.
