THE NEW POSTMASTER GENERAL.

Death of Peter Cooper

Another Defaulter Caught.

Miscellaneous.

GUILTY GRAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—John S. Gray, defaulting secretary of state, has been arrested at Guaymas, by United States Consul Ward. Papers will be forwarded for extradition tomorrow.

SHOT HIMSELF.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Nathan S. Morse, business manager of the Daily News, shot himself through the head this morning in his office, and died instantly. His health had been impaired by over work and for sometime he had been very sick. Recently sleeplessness added to his troubles and it is supposed his reason gave way and that he was insane when he took his life.

SMALL POX.

NASHVILLE, April 4.—There has been some increase of small pox in the edges and eastern portion of this city during the past week, but no new cases reported yesterday and today from the health office. The city population is pretty thoroughly vaccinated, and doctors declare no apprehension at a spread of the spread of the disease. More careful quarantine of infected houses has been ordered by the sanitary authorities, and the recorder instructed to enforce the law in regard to vaccination.

RAILROAD BUILDING FOR 1883.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The Railway Age will publish a statement of railway construction for the first quarter of the year 1883. Shows the latter part of the winter extremely unfavorable to road building on account of the severity of the weather. The heavy snow storms, floods and the flurry in the iron trade causing the timid to hold off. It reports to the effect that the construction of main tracks for that time has been 766 miles against 1,200 for the same period of 1882 when the weather was very mild and all conditions favorable. The mileage for the year is estimated at 8,000. Among leading companies by states as follows: New York, 114, Arkansas, 91; Arizona, 68; Pennsylvania, 10; Montana, 45; Florida, 43; Missouri, 41; Illinois, 37.

PETER COOPER DEAD.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Peter Cooper died of pneumonia at 3 this morning, aged 92.

Mr. Cooper celebrated his ninety second birthday February 12. He had been ailing some time with a slight cold, and Sunday was compelled to remain in bed. The family doctor was summoned and discovered at once that the patient was suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Cooper's advanced age was a great drawback to his recovery. About two o'clock this morning he called his son, ex-Mayor Cooper, and Mrs. Abram S. Hewitt, his daughter, and bade family to his bedside, saying to them he knew he had not long to live and they must become reconciled to the fact. Death came exactly at 3 a. m. He remained unconscious up to the time of his demise and made several remarks in regard to the family. Prominent citizens called at the house Sunday morning and expressed sympathy with the bereaved family. Mr. Cooper was born in this city February 12th, 1791, and lived a life full of honors from early boyhood.

Among many who called to express sorrow for Mr. Cooper's death were Samuel J. Tilden, Algernon Sullivan, Gen. Alex. S. Webb and Andrew H. Green. During the last hours Cooper manifested a great interest in Cooper Institute, and spoke to Hewitt and his son, ex-Mayor Cooper about the manner in which the work should be carried on after his death.

THE NEW POSTMASTER GENERAL.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The president leaves for Jacksonville at noon tomorrow. Judge Gresham has accepted the appointment of postmaster general.

JUDGE GRESHAM.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 4.—Judge Walter Q. Gresham, who was appointed postmaster general, is in the city, holding court. A reporter of the Associated Press visited him this afternoon, and in answer to a question whether he intended to accept the nomination or not, he said that he had just notified the president and secretary of state he would accept, but that his duties here would detain him until Saturday of this week, and that he could not reach Washington until the middle of the coming week. Judge Gersham said the appointment was unsolicited, and entirely unexpected. He received notice of the appointment early this morning, the secretary of State informing him that his commission had been signed yesterday. The appointment gives very general satisfaction in this state, where Judge Gresham is honored and respected by every one and stands at the very head of the judiciary. He received the congratulations of prominent people of both parties.

BRIEF SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Judge Gresham was born in Harrison county, Indiana, in 1832, and educated in his own State. After graduating in the Indiana state university in Bloomington, he studied law, and soon afterward began practice in Coryden, county seat of Harrison, and was from the first successful as a lawyer. He took an active part in the politics of the state and shortly before the outbreak of the war was elected representative to the state legislature. In 1861 he was chairman of the house committee on military affairs, and while occupying this position he cooperated so skillfully with Gov. Morton in the organization of the state militia, and in raising and forwarding troops, that Morton commissioned him as colonel of the Thirty-eighth regiment, Indiana volunteers, and was promoted to colonel of Third division in 1862, and brigadier general of volunteers in 1863. He participated in the sieges of Corinth, Jackson, Miss., and capture of Vicksburg. He was brevetted major general for distinguished gallantry in 1864, and in July of the same year was severely wounded before Atlanta, and was mustered out of service. In April, 1866, he entered into partnership with Judge Butler, of New Albany, Ind., and resumed the practice of law in that city. When Grant became president he appointed Gresham district judge for the district, which position he still holds. He was strongly urged for a place in Garfield's cabinet, and there is reason to believe that the representations of his friends in his behalf was regarded with much favor.

The president has designated First Assistant Postmaster General Hatton to act as postmaster general for a period of ten days, beginning to-morrow, until the arrival of Gresham.

FROM THE CAPITOL.

Tom Ochiltree Paid.

Secretary Folger's Health.

A Letter From an Indian.

JEANNETTE INQUIRY.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Jeannette court of inquiry adjourned until tomorrow to await the arrival of questions forwarded by Dr. Collins.

FOLGER CONVALESCING.

Secretary Folger is rapidly convalescing. The inflamation in his eyes is now the only trouble. He received a large number of callers yesterday, and went out riding in the afternoon. He took another ride today. Nothing has yet been settled about his proposed trip to Bermuda.

REPRESENTATIVES PAID.

Treasurer Wyman paid the salaries of the the members of the house of representatives for the month ending the fourth inst. Payment was made and the certificate issued by the speaker. Among those paid was Representative Ochiltree, the comptroller having withdrawn his prohibition in this case, Payment was however, suspended in the case of Delegate Raymond, and Singster, the compotroller having notified the treasurer that such payment would be charged against his own account. It is supposed the accounts of these delegates will be settled shortly.

A SIOUX INDIAN'S WANTS.

The following letter, from a Sioux Indian, was read at the indian office today:

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, Da., March 26. —Hon. Commissioner Indian Affairs, Washington—Sir: I am a friend of the Great Father and am going in the white man's way. I have noticed the white men cutting wood, and I thought I would be like a white man chop some wood for my wife. A piece of wood flew up and put out my right eye, and now I would like the Great Father to send me another eye. I can have it put in here. I have always been a friend of the white man, and an bringing up my children in the white man's ways. I am getting old and wish my father would send me a cane. When you send me the eye, please send me a brown one, as that is the color of my other eye. I hope the Great Father will do as I ask. I shake hands with a good heart. Your friend,
