The trial docket for the May term of court is out, and contains 167 civil cases...

H. H. Grimm has leased the Stadelman restaurant, and will, hereafter be found there prepared to cater to the wants of the public.

Now that Main street has been cleared up of rubbish and old papers it will not be much of an exertion on the part of the business men to keep it so.

Wm. Eikenberry is in the city today, and says he has 72 head of cattle that are putting on lots of fat.

A large fruit-grower of this county informs us that there will be fully as large a crop of cherries this year as last, and that the apple trees are very little damaged, if any, by the extreme cold weather last winter.

Although the city was full of people yesterday, nothing of an unpleasant nature occurred. No boisterous hilarity. No riotous demonstrations requiring the interference of police.

W. Pool, Tecumseh, editor of the Johnson County Journal was married Wednesday to Miss Frank L. Foster of the same place.

The Phanny Phellow published at Nebraska City, and Sunday Morning Optic published at Lincoln have consolidated, and the Phanny Phellow merged into the Optic.

The Lincoln association of Congregational churches met with the Congregational church of South Bend on the 24th and 25th inst.

One of our visitors from up the road, yesterday, indulged in too much celebration, and by night was so "stuffed" that he laid down to rest on the depot platform.

From the Grand Island papers we learn that Babcock, who was rescued at the late battle party at Hastings, and taken to Grand Island for safe keeping, is becoming unwell, and exposing his life in a desperate manner.

The play of "Nip and Tuck" which was presented in this theatre last night to a large audience, is replete with dramatic situations and highly sensational scenes.

It is curious compound of schemes, paths, brilliant wit and heartless villainy. Running through the piece is a quaint vein of drollery which keeps the audience in the best of humor.

THE ODD FELLOWS

They Have Celebrated and Done Home.

The usual quiet which prevails after a day of bustle and excitement pervades the city today. The exercises progressed as we were, a pleasant afternoon was had, and the evening the opera house was filled by lovers of the many dance, who tripped the light fantastic until the hour of the departure of the excursion train was announced.

AVOCA LETTER.

AVOCA, NEB., APRIL 23, 1893.

EDITOR HERALD:—Here we are, again! Forgot to say in my last that at the annual school meeting in this district the required number of votes were cast to remove the school site to Avoca, from its former location one mile east of Avoca, and it was voted etc. to commence the erection of a school house, at once, on the new site, and when completed, to dispose of the old one in a usual method.

A subscription list in circulation here now for the purpose of erecting a Congregational church. C. Betts and family, also A. Tromble have gone to Dakota, overland, with teams and wagons, to break prairie this summer, and possibly locate.

Haller's new clerk, A. R. Smith, just completed one of the best jobs of lighting rod work to be found in the state, by LaGrange & Co.'s rodding outfit, on A. Marshall's drug store. The outfit will start for Kansas in a few days, to be absent most of the summer.

Our Sunday school is in a flourishing condition and largely attended; much the same can be said, too, of our I. O. G. T.

E. A. Gerrard has invented a post-hole or socket that promises to be a good thing. It is to be made of cast iron, with hinges where it enters the ground; the socket, into which a wooden post is to be driven tightly, is to be about a foot in depth.

Cows, hogs, and horses run at large in the city. They break down gates, fences, and trees. Sometimes the regular town row, like one of old, walks off with the gates, left ajar, by the late leaving swine. The sidewalks are broken by the rambling cow, shade trees mangled and torn by the same.

To D. H. Wheeler, more than any other one man, should we accord the credit of the success of yesterday's celebration and entertainment. He has always recognized the merit of our city, and endeavored to advance our interests.

The Central City Courier says that a train, consisting of engine, mail car and caboose, passed through town late Monday afternoon at a high rate of speed. It was the train carrying the Australian mail, running to connect with the steamer at New York City.

Platte Lodge No. 7 desires to express its thanks to the G. A. R. of the A. O. H. the Fire Department and to the many citizens and those who assisted in the anniversary exercises, yesterday, for their ready response and hearty cooperation in making the celebration one long to be remembered in the history of Plattsmouth, and especially in the history of Plattsmouth's lodge of Odd Fellows.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Root, late of Eight Mile Grove, is in the city today. The old Dr. is looking finely, and is making his home at South Bend, where he will dispense pills and general good health to all parties.

Henry Inhelder, of Cedar Creek, is in the city today. Wm. Gilmore has brought a family of Plymouth Rocks from Lincoln, consisting of five hens and a rooster, and they are beauties.

Keene, the tragedian, passed through this morning on his way east. Miss Kittie Kline went to Orleans this morning for a visit to friends and relatives.

State Senator 'Dave' Hinggardner, of Orleans, was in the city yesterday, taking in the Odd Fellows' celebration, returning home this morning. He is a "way up" Odd Fellow, a live business man, and the very personification of gentility and good nature.

Hon. L. H. M. Byers, U. S. consul at Zurich, Switzerland, a brother-in-law of our neighbor, Billy Gilmore, passed through the city this morning on his way to Lincoln. He is the oldest consul in the service, having served fourteen years, and has given entire satisfaction and credit to his government.

Miss Mary Vass will teach the Concord schools this summer. We bespeak for the children of that district an excellent school.

"Uncle" Sam Barker came in this morning from Chicago, where he has been with ten cars of cattle. He reports the markets flourishing, and feels happy as a clam.

Harry Webber at the opera house tonight. The glass has been put in front of Late O'Neil's new building.

The measles have broken out at Pawnee City. Several deaths are already recorded. What we need—telephones in the clerk of the district court's office and the high school building.

Travel on the night trains is on the increase, and we predict that ere long the night trains will be the heavy ones. The Chinese washer-washer, was the only business house on Main street that didn't swing out the stars and stripes yesterday.

The heavy emigration west still continues, and Nebraska's population will increase this season as never before in the same length of time. For an evening of fun and first-class entertainment, witness Harry Webber's production of Nip and Tuck at the opera house tonight.

South Bend and Louisville put in an appearance, yesterday, at our I. O. O. F. celebration, and reported their respective localities hearty and prosperous, in a business point of view.

The list of May is close at hand, and from that date taxes become delinquent and draw interest. It is a good time now to get square with the county treasurer.

Mrs. Fred Latham is the possessor of a very handsome and rare plant, which she received from Canada. The flowers are larger than a tea cup, of a bright red color, that delights the beholder.

Evidently the visiting guests enjoyed their day yesterday, as last night when the train started out they were secretly happy and expressed themselves to the HERALD reporter that the people of Plattsmouth had done them proud.

Miss Clara Leidtke, daughter of our ex-Auditor, now with Parsons & Crossman's Ideal Co., is playing the part of Princess Frederick in Massachusetts, in the Eastern States. She has obtained considerable celebrity as an actress, and is entitled to credit for striking out for herself.—Fremont Herald.

Auburn rejoices over its organization and incorporation as a village. A Board of Trustees have been appointed by the county commissioners, and Rush Fellows, of the Post, has been chosen clerk. Who says newspaper men never get fat? (7) places.

An exchange says: Some one has made a very curious calculation of what Mr. Vanderbilt could do with his money. Mr. Vanderbilt's income from his investments in four per cent. government bonds is represented at $85,000 daily, which is $208,250 per hour, $5.47 per minute, or over five cents per second. Assuming that he is paid by the second, he cannot possibly spend his money, as he could not select his purchases and lay down his money fast enough. He could not throw it away; to pick it up, cast, recover and cast again, would take him two seconds, and if he worked all through the twenty-four hours, without rest, he could only dispose of one half of his income. By living economically, saving up for four years, he could, placing his five-cent pieces side by side, make a nickle belt around the earth, or by converting his savings into one-cent pieces and mounting them in a pile, in twenty years, erect a road to the moon.
