THE CONVENTION.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—It was nearly eleven o'clock before the Irish National convention assembled this morning.

Dr. O'Reilly announced that the committee on resolutions had prepared their report, but it was not ready to be presented.

Col. Michael Boland, chairman of the committee on organization, would not be ready to report until the committee on resolutions had reported, as, after a long debate, the committee on reorganization had not been able to agree on the number of officers for the National league, or its exact scheme of government. Col. Boland therefore moved that when a recess be taken it be for two hours, to allow the committee on organization to perfect its report. Carried.

The secretary then read by unanimous consent a communication from Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, congratulating the convention on what it had achieved, and declaring that it was impossible for Ireland to remain under British rule on account of the commercial restrictions of the latter. There were 68,242 able bodied men engaged in keeping the peace, while there were but 21,000 engaged in teaching. The uncertainty of the land tenure, and of the political statute, and the standing army spies, go to render Ireland the worst governed country in the world. Agitation for liberty will go on. Questions of extradition, citizens' rights, etc., considered by the convention, must be viewed in the light of recent events.

Edward O'Meager then moved that the thanks of the convention be tendered to Cox. Carried.

On Mrs. Parnell's entrance she was heartily cheered.

Father Boylan, county Cavan, Ireland, then addressed the convention, amid much applause. He said that new John Bull would put on one of his horns the Irish dilemma and landlord on the other, while Pat would milk the cow. He complimented the manner in which the American press treated the Irish question. America had given Irishmen employment, but the Irish had done America's hard work in her fields in both peace and war. The entire convention arose to its feet and cheered Father Boylan tumultuously.

Cries for Betts were then heard.

The chairman said Betts was not in the hall.

The president of the convention said the Irish in England and Scotland would be the first to feel the effects of any intemperate action on the part of this convention. He was glad to congratulate the delegates that their action so far had been wise and moderate. He moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to Revs. Father Boylan and Agnew.

Carney, of Massachusetts, said on this motion that every Scottish clergyman had for many years endeavored to denationalize every Irishman who crossed the boundary.

Carney, amid hisses and confusion, was pronounced out of order.

The motion of a vote of thanks was then carried.

At twenty minutes to 12 a recess was taken for two hours, to await the reports of committees.

MURDERER HUNG.

ELIZABETHTOWNE, N. Y., April 27.—Henry Debowen was hanged here today for the murder of his wife. He slept well last night and ate a hearty breakfast this morning, after which he smoked a cigar and then inspected the gallows. Taking hold of the rope he said: "I am afraid I'll break that rope. You out to have soap on it." He seemed entirely indifferent to his fate.

THEM ALL DROWNED.

MIDDLETON, O., April 27.—At one o'clock yesterday afternoon a little daughter of John O'Connel, living on the bank of Hydraulic canal, was discovered by her father and mother in the water, struggling in the last agonies of death, by strangulation. The father was unable to swim, and in attempting to rescue his child he also was drowned, and likewise his wife who in turn made frantic efforts to save her husband.

CAPTURE CONFIRMED.

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—Dispatches from Albuquerque, New Mexico, regarding the reported capture of Professor Bandelier by the Apaches, states that Captain William Barcher, one of his companions says that Bandelier was in Sonora, near Hermosillo, a few days ago, and he (Barcher) believes the account of Capt. Bates, who brought the story to Albuquerque. He says that a Mexican, who saw the capture, was certain that Bandelier was one of the party, having spoken with him that morning.

A COLLISION.

DETROIT, April 27.—A collision occurred on the Grand Trunk railway near Olive station, between a passenger train from the west and a freight following. The air brakes attached to the passenger train failed to work and the train stopped at a slight grade. A signal was sent back to the freight, but for some reason the train, which was very heavy, passed the signal, crashing into the rear of the passenger, demolishing two Pullman sleepers and killing the conductor of the Pullman and two or three passengers. Ten or twelve passengers were injured. The killed are: Conductor H. J. Wahl, of Montreal; N. Fry, of Englewood, N. J., and John W. Higgins, travelling agent of the boat and firm of H. P. Baldwin & Co., Detroit. Mr. Pennington, assistant general freight agent of the Wabash railroad, was seriously but not fatally scalded. Ten others received minor injuries.

SNOW.

QUEBEC, April 27.—Four inches of snow, and sleighing resumed.

NITRO-GLYCERINE.

LONDON, April 27.—A nitro-glycerine factory was discovered in Northampton. The discovery causes great excitement.

PARNELL AND ENGLAND.

BERLIN, April 27.—The National Zeitung declares that it is impossible for England to accede to the further demands of Parnell in regard to the condition of Ireland. It declares that to honor the demands of Parnell in regard to the condition of Ireland demands an unequivocal disavowal by Parnell of the dynamite policy of Irish extremists.

THE SHOOTERS.

LONDON, April 27.—The programme for the rifle shooting of the national rifle association at Wimbledon includes two competitions which have been instituted as a compliment to the American national guard. They are for military rifles, 500 and 300 yards respectively. The match at the latter range has been named after Colonel Bodine. Thirty-two prizes have been offered in each competition, ranging from ten pounds to one pound. It is expected that the Prince of Wales will distribute the prizes to the victors.

GUILTY.

DUBLIN, April 27.—The trial of Michael Fagan for the murder of Burke, was continued this morning. The case for the defense was closed, and Judge O'Brien charged the jury. His remarks were to the effect that the testimony of the informants had been fully confirmed by that of other witnesses. The judge having finished the charge the jury retired, and after a short deliberation returned and announced that they had found a verdict of guilty against the prisoner. On being asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, Fagan protested his innocence. He declared that he was a Fenian, and would die one. The judge then sentenced him to be hanged May 28th.
